olute Annihilation Is Ultimate Idea—Segregation Is Condemned.

ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

ICAGO, April 5.—Poverty more than any other influence causes and perpetuates the social evil. In the finding of the Chicago Vice mission, the first paid commission of its kind, in its report made to the Council tonight.

Federal, State and local officials, philanthropists, clergymen and social workers are comprised in the membership of the committee whose report gave an exhaustive review of the present status of the social evil in Chicago, its past, its causes, and plans of suppressing it.

The recommendations were directly against the European plan of segregation. They were:

Constant and persistent repression of the social evil as an immediate step, with absolute annihilation as the ultimate idea. This by means of: First, the appointment of a Morals Commission.

Second, the establishment of a Morals Court.

In summing up present conditions, the report says:

"Most of the police are honest; one standard of morality in Chicago applauds dances by nearly naked women in the name of art, and condemns dances no worse before less prosperous audiences; men, not women, are the ones "highest up" in the business administration of the social evil; hotels which "ask no questions" of their patrons are a great contributing means to wrecked girlhood; prejudice against colored girls drives them into the social evil centers either as servants or inmates; the white slave traffic is not organized.

Contributing causes are named as follows:

Want of the necessities of life, craving for simple luxuries, ignorance, broken promises, deceit of men; but chief of all—poverty.

FRUITFUL SOURCES.

Lack of protection to immigrant girls aids the evil, says the report, and lake steamers with no regulations are fruitful sources of victims. Lack of proper pay for working girls is assailed at great length in bitter terms and is called the chief reason why young girls fail to resist temptations.

The causes are summed up thus:

Lack of ethical and religious teaching; economical stress on underpaid workers; large number of seasonal trades for women, leaving periods of the year when there is no employment; unhappy home conditions; careless and ignorant parents; broken promises; love of ease and luxury; craving for excitement and change; ignorance of hygiene.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

Among the recommendations are these:

Instruction of children between 12 and 16 years old in sex hygiene; by personal attention of parents; physician examination of applicants for marriage licenses; better protection for girls; abolition of the fining system against known members of vice districts; an intelligent and ample adult probation system; home for old offenders; an appeal to the chivalry of men; regulation of lake boats; investigation and supervision of employment agencies; laws calling centers of the evil public nuisances; the State to take the place of parent to illegitimate children; comfort stations in the city; municipal dance halls; no liquor at public dance halls; municipal lodging house for women; women officers for the police force; hotels and homes for working women and girls; vigilance in public parks where girls and women visit; and less liberty for children except under the eyes of their parents.

High Mason and Leading Odd Fellow Gives Way to Fit of Despondency.

Twenty Years Cashier and Vice-President of Bank of Northern California.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

REDDING, April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] One of Redding's most prominent citizens, Edward L. Bailey, was found dead with a bullet in his brain at 11 o'clock tonight in a local cemetery after a search of three hours.

For several months Bailey has been suffering from stomach trouble, and that is given as the cause of his act. For twenty years he has been cashier and vice-president of the National Bank of Northern California, and was a high Mason and prominent Odd Fellow.

At 8 o'clock tonight, when Bailey did not come home to his dinner, his wife became alarmed and notified the neighbors. Several prominent Odd Fellows organized a searching party. After a three hours' hunt in all sections of the city, a division of the searching party came upon the body lying on a newly-made grave. The remains were removed to his home.

The suicide came as a great shock to the community. He was one of the most beloved citizens of this city. Besides a wife and a daughter, Mrs. L. McHenry, he leaves a son, Ellsworth, 23 years of age, a student in the University of California.

A few days ago the Bank of Shasta of this city closed its doors with more than half a million dollars of deposits. The institution was not connected, however, with the Bank of Northern California, and it is not believed that the failure had anything to do directly with the suicide of Bailey.

Mother Lacerates Herself in Order to Save Her Indian Babies.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

VANCOUVER (B. C.) April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Fish dealers confirm the story that an Indian woman living on a small island north of here cut a piece of flesh from her body in an effort to procure food for her children when they were starving. The woman and children were in desperate straits. The last scrap of food had been eaten the day before and there was no game, although the woman hunted until her strength gave out. In this condition she cut a strip of flesh from her body. This flesh was used as a bait to catch fish and thus sustain life until aid arrived.

Mr. Funk said his object in giv this testimony was to save H. H. Ko saat, publisher of the Chicago Reco Herald, from a possible jail sentence a result of Mr. Kohlsaat's refusal give certain information demanded the committee last week.

The witness said he had given Kohlsaat information in confidence, on which the Chicago publisher based an editorial.

The publication in February last this editorial, which charged the $100,000 to elect Lorimer, resulted in calling of Kohlsaat as a witness bef the committee.

RELEASED FROM PLEDGE.

Mr. Kohlsaat refused to make kno the name of Mr. Funk. The Chica publisher was then given one week which to divulge this name or sta in contempt of the Senate committee

Funk testified today that he volu tarily released Mr. Kohlsaat from t pledge of confidence, when he felt th the publisher would be sent to jail u less the information was given.

The disclosures made by Funk c curred unexpectedly at a specia called meeting of the Senate committ members. The committee was scheduled to resume its inquiry un tomorrow, at which time Mr. Kohlsa had been ordered to reappear. But h Kohlsaat and Mr. Funk arrived Springfield this morning from Chicag and Chairman Helm of the Investiga ing Committee at once called its me bers in special session.

Chairman Helm was aware that M Kohlsaat stood ready to give the nam of his informant, but no one outsi of the committee knew of the matte News of the disclosures swept fro the Supreme Court building to t State House near by within a fe moments.

The House was still in session wh the Senate had just adjourned for t day. The reports caused excitemen much discussion and hurried consu tations among certain members in bot branches of the Legislature.

SENSATION STARTS.

Several House members left the seats in the midst of the debate o the civil service bills to learn mo of the disclosures.

Mr. Kohlsaat preceded Mr. Fun on the witness stand. He briefly state that he was ready to give the nam of the man who had furnished hi with the report of the alleged $100, 000 slush fund.

Attorneys, members of the commit tee and spectators leaned forwar tensely as Mr. Kohlsaat named M Funk.

Mr. Funk testified of a conversatio with Edward C. Hines shortly afte the Lorimer election. The witnes said:

"The conversation took place in th Union League Club. It was an ac cidental meeting. He said he had bee wanting to see me and we sat in the lounging-room.

"Hines said to me without prelim inary, 'Well, we put Lorimer over but it cost us $100,000 to do it.'

"He said, 'We had to act quickly s that it became necessary for us t put up the money. Now we are seeing some of our friends to get it fixed up.'

"He gave me to understand they wanted to be reimbursed, and I asked him why he came to us and he said: 'You are as interested as anyone in having the right kind of a man in Washington.'

CONVERSATION RETOLD.

"I told him we would have nothing to do with it. He said he could only go to big people and wanted to get $10,000 from each of ten. He left me and told me to think it over.

Foreseen a Crisis.

THINK UNITED STATES TROOPS WILL CROSS MEXICAN BORDER.

Americans in Chihuahua Would Welcome Their Appearance, But Fear Their Coming Might Anger the Rebels Under Madero—Insurrectos Are Said Now to Control a Stretch of One Thousand Miles.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHIHUAHUA (Mex.) April 5.—Three thousand troops, representing the main strength of President Diaz's forces in Northern Mexico, are "bottled up" in this city.

It is the belief of the 700 Americans here that Francisco Madero, the insurrecto President, is preparing to deliver a decisive stroke with a view to bringing the insurrection to a crisis in this section.

The opinion expressed by Americans is that with its present tactics of allowing its forces to be shut up in the towns, the Mexican government will never be able to suppress the insurrection; that the insurrectos are gaining strength daily and that already they have extended their control over a far greater area than heretofore has been allowed to become known.

WELL FORTIFIED.

Chihuahua, with 25,000 inhabitants, is believed to be well fortified. The churches, housetops and other points of vantage are surmounted by breastworks and machine guns. The troops, mounted and headed by brass bands, frequently parade through the streets as if to impress the people with a feeling of security.

Many smaller towns in the interior are garrisoned by a mere handful of men. Just outside the city the insurrectos are in great force.

Madero, with Orozco and 1200 insurrectos, is at Bustillos plantation, sixty miles west, where, surrounded by his staff, he has established a so-called capital.

Two thousand more insurrectos in smaller groups are stretched in a semi-circle about the north of the country.

Abraham Gonzales, insurrecto Governor of Chihuahua is at San Ysidor, about 100 miles west, where he has established a provisional government. The purpose is believed to be to proceed with civil organization regardless of any peace possibilities and with a plan to establish themselves permanently on the land which they regard as "conquered."

APPEARS TO BE ADVANCING.

Gov. Ahumada sent word to Gen. Hernandez, requesting that no more troops be sent out of the city, unless an emergency demanded. The insurrecto movement appears to be advancing to the south.

At Torreon, forces are reported to be about the city. All the railroads to the south have been blockaded, although trains are still running in other directions. This, with the exception of the larger cities, makes a sweep which brings the insurrectos in control of 1000 miles of territory.

Americans here have not abandoned the opinion that the United States troops ultimately will cross the border. For business reasons they would welcome the appearance of American troops as a means of restoring order, but personally they look upon the insurrection as a strife among a people wholly alien to the United States.

It is pointed out that the presence of troops would provoke the anger of the insurrectos and might result in the destruction of the very property which it was intended to protect.

At present Madero has given orders that no property shall be destroyed except such as may be necessary to prolong the insurrection and block the railroads.

More Fighting.

REBEL FORCES PUT TO ROUT BY FEDERALS FROM ENSENADA.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

MEXICALI (Mex.) April 5.—United States soldiers who have been patrolling the border eight miles to the west, have reported to Lieut. Clarence Leisinger of the First Cavalry that wounded Americans from the insurrecto forces at Alamo have appeared at the outpost. They say Berthold's force was routed during a battle that occurred March 28. The attack was made by Federals from Ensenada, and fighting continued all day.

Many insurrectos were killed, according to the report, among them Thomas Raineys, a deserted from the United States Army.

Berthold's fate is unknown, but the fugitive insurrectos declare he and his comrades fled, every man for himself, when night brought a lull in the fighting.

It is the belief of the fugitives that Berthold fell into the hands of the Federals, as he was quite helpless from the wound he received in the leg during the battle of March 22.

Wounded insurrectos were reported to be on their way to El Centro for treatment, but as far as can be learned here, none has yet appeared there.

Gen. Salinas, the former member of the personal staff of President Diaz, who is now the commander-in-chief of the rebel forces of Lower California, stated today that his scouts had failed to find any of Col. Mayol's Federal forces within forty miles of Mexicali. Although undoubtedly on the advance from Tecate toward Mexicali, none of the government troops have yet emerged through Picachos Pass. Mayol's force is supposed to number about 400 men, with two machine guns.

Gen. Salinas believes that the Fed-

THREATS TO ARREST THE WIFE OF TEXAS OIL MAGNATE'S SON.

Roy Ensworth Pierce Languishes in a New York Sanatorium While His Newly Wedded Spouse Is Menaced By a Charge of Perjury and May Let Well Enough Alone.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A step was taken today by Mrs. Elizabeth Beatrice Chapman Pierce to get her husband, the eldest son of H. Clay Pierce, the Texas oil magnate, from the sanatorium where he was placed by his father's orders immediately after the latter learned of the secret and mysterious wedding. But the minute Mrs. Pierce attempted to start proceedings to recover her husband she was threatened with prosecution for perjury and it is believed she will let well enough alone and worry along without her spouse.

Foy Ensworth Pierce also faces a charge of perjury as a result of false statements in the application for the marriage license last November. He is a patient in a sanatorium at Central Valley, N. Y.

Last November young Pierce, under the name of Roy Ensworth, secured a license to marry Mrs. Elizabeth Beatrice Chapman. Mrs. Chapman was wedded under the name of Beatrice Perry. Mrs. Pierce, it is said, alleged that she had not been previously wedded. Both were obliged to swear that the statements made in the application for a license were true. The couple were married by Alderman James Smith, and the ceremony is legal. The Pierce family is convinced that the young man was not mentally responsible for what he had done.

Albert H. F. Seeger, as guardian of Roy Ensworth Pierce, appears for his charge in a suit recently filed in Orange county for annulment of the marriage of his ward to Mrs. Elizabeth Faulkner Chapman Pierce. Only the summons and complaint have been served and a copy of the record of the proceedings by which Roy E. Pierce was adjudged an incompetent and placed in charge of a guardian have not yet been delivered to the attorney for Mrs. Pierce, James H. Hickey.

Through the mist of mystery the only path runs along the statements of friends of Mrs. Pierce, who declare that her husband has never reappeared in her sight since the day, two months ago, he left her in their apartment in New York with the avowed intention of going to his father, Henry Clay Pierce, and announcing the fact of his marriage to Mrs. Chapman. Mrs. Pierce instituted a search for her husband, and after many anxious days discovered that he was in a sanatorium at Central Valley, N. Y., of which Dr. Carlos F. MacDonald, a well-known alienist, is at the head. Dr. MacDonald referred inquirers about Mr. Pierce to Judge Alton B. Parker, counsel for Henry Clay Pierce. Judge Parker declined to be interviewed.

Henry Clay Pierce is one of the wealthiest men in the United States and is well known in the business world for his dominant personality.

KRUPPS INVENT A PROJECTILE TO DESTROY AIRSHIPS IN WARS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A new death-dealing device for use in aerial warfare has been patented by the Krupps, the well-known German manufacturers. It consists of a highly sensitive fuse which insures the explosion of a projectile upon impact with the delicate resistance afforded by the gas bag of a balloon or the light canvas covering of an aeroplane.

Up to this time the explosion of such projectiles in aerial warfare practice has been dependent altogether on time fuses, but the Krupps, by their latest invention, have eliminated the large element of uncertainty in this method and have added a weapon which will be an important factor in aerial warfare of the future.

Letters patent have just been issued here for this latest of modern war devices. The new fuse, while being susceptible to the most delicate impact, is safeguarded by an intricate mechanism against the resistance formed by the air in its flight. The fuse has a base plug containing a pellet of fulminated mercury which, when ignited, sets off the explosive charge of the projectile. The fulminate is ignited by a needle driven against the pellet by a spring which is controlled by two levers. These levers are normally held against swinging by the movable shaft which is made of wood for lightness. When the head of the projectile strikes a surface as delicate even as that of the yielding silk of a balloon, or the most fragile part of an aeroplane, the levers are released and swing outward under centrifugal force, permitting the ignition needle to be driven by its spring into the fulminate. The mechanism is controlled against the resistance of the air by another device which is, however, susceptible to the least impact except that caused by the atmosphere.

With the development of the possibilities of aerial warfare, ordnance experts of nearly every country have been working for several years on offensive devices to destroy aerial craft. Inventions along these lines have developed field guns having large angles of elevation, even upright and having mounts designed to permit horizontal training from a circular path with the rear of the carriage as a center. But to obtain a shell which will insure destruction whenever the target is reached was the purpose of the Krupps in working out their new invention and this they have succeeded in accomplishing.

...NO RE-ELECTION" BILL.

Measure Is Introduced in the Mexican Chamber by a Member From Lower California.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

MEXICO CITY, April 5.—Deputy Francisco Bulnes yesterday introduced in the Chamber of Deputies a measure proposing an amendment to the Mexican Constitution prohibiting the re-election of a President, a Vice-President or a State Governor.

Mr. Bulnes represents a district in Lower California, although most of his time for many years has been spent here.

The amendment is one of the reforms suggested by President Diaz in his message and has been one of the demands of the revolutionists, although it was heard frequently before the inauguration of the revolt.

It was said Gen. Diaz advocates "no re-election." It is believed no time will be lost in forcing the measure through.

MEXICAN REBELS ROUTED.

eral commander will send his entire force against Simon Berthold, the rebel leader at Alamo, seventy-five miles south of here, before making the final assault on Mexicali. Berthold is badly wounded, with a bullet in his leg which shattered the bone above the knee. The wound, which he received two weeks ago in a brush with Federal scouts, may cause the loss of the injured leg.

There is apparently no further trouble in the rebel garrison here over the question of leadership. Salinas has supreme command, following Leyva's deposition by the Mexican junta. Stanley Williams, the ex-United States soldier, will maintain his force of eighty men outside of Mexicali, operating between Algodones and Packard, a few miles to the east. Williams's men are all Americans. The garrison in Mexicali is composed of about thirty men, divided about equally between American and Mexican soldiers. Berthold has about sixty-five men with him at Alamo. Twenty-five others under Quijada have been sent from Mexicali to reinforce him. In addition to these, small scouting parties are out in different directions.

VILLAR IN COMMAND.

Succeeds Hernandez in Charge of the Second Military Zone on Orders of the President.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

MEXICO CITY, April 5.—Gen. Lauro Villar, who has been placed in command of the second military zone, with headquarters at Chihuahua, should arrive there tomorrow night. He was called here four days ago from Nuevo Laredo, where he was the ranking commander, and named by the President to relieve Gen. Juan Hernandez, who has been conducting the Chihuahua campaign. To what command Gen. Hernandez will be assigned is not known.

An official report of the battle of Aldamas on last Friday places the rebel loss at eighty dead. The official report of the three days' fighting at San Rafael and Ures, Sonora, gives the number of rebel dead at 120, and that of the Federals at thirty.

Reports received here last night from Culiacan, Sinaloa, say a band of 500 rebels was defeated near Badirguato, by Col. Morelos. Forty rebels were reported killed and 195 saddle horses captured by the Federals.

CRAZED BY THE ORDEAL.

Insurrectos Prepare to Shoot a Presidente, But Release Him When His Mind Is Destroyed.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

AGUA PRIETA (Sonora, Mex.) April 5.—[Via Douglas, Ariz.] As a result of the visit of the insurrectos to Fronteras Saturday, Presidente Pablo Rivera is a raving maniac. A rebel band commanded by "Red" Lopez and a new leader named Rico, captured Rivera, and stood him up to be shot, when the presidente suddenly became insane. The insurrectos then released him.

Rivera immediately left the city and was not heard of before today, when, according to information from Fronteras, he was found roaming the fields only half clad.

The rebels are established at Jonoverachic, but make daily trips to Fronteras which is abandoned by the Federals. The rebels are poorly clad and lack ammunition and guns.

The rebels have burned all the archives of the City Council, offices of the judges, presidente and treasurer, including titles to land in the Fronteras district.

ARIZPE MAY FALL.

DEFENDERS QUIT THE PLACE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CANANEA (Sonora, Mex.) April 5.—Reports from Arizpe indicate that the town is liable to fall into the hands of the rebels at any moment. Six hundred rebel soldiers are reported to be in the vicinity of Arizpe, and they will encounter no opposition in taking possession, Prefecto Pico and his 200 Federal soldiers having deserted the city and started for this place. Three hundred Federal troops have left the train at Imuris, on the Sonora railway, twenty-five miles west of Cananea and are marching overland to effect a juncture with Pico here.

Pico, it is said, plans to return to Arizpe with his increased force and, after the rebels have taken possession of the town, surround and entrap them in it. Large numbers of refugees are arriving here from Arizpe, which is about fifty miles south.

SAN ANTONIO (Tex.) April 5.—Orders were received today at headquarters of the Department of Texas for the relief of the Third Cavalry on patrol duty on the border by the Ninth Cavalry (negro) now in camp at Ft. It is said that local sentiment against the removal of the regiment.

OFFICE CHASES THE MAN HARD.

Nobody in Colorado Town Has Any Aspirations.

Handful of Votes Elect Mayor; Don't Want Job.

Direct Primary and Election All Rolled Into One.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

COLLBRAN (Colo.) April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The voters of this city yesterday had the opportunity to name their candidates and cast their ballots for them at the same time, thus combining the direct primary and election. After a canvass of weeks all of the leading citizens declined to accept a nomination for municipal office and finally the task was given up in despair.

A primary, called to make nominations, was not attended and no ticket of any kind was named. The voters were given the chance to vote for whom they pleased.

There was very little interest in the election, and finally a number of leading citizens got together and decided to all vote for the present Mayor, A. E. Humeston, in spite of his repeated refusals. The word was quickly passed around and Humeston received twenty-nine votes of the thirty that were cast. The committee also agreed upon three trustees and these were also elected, although each of them had declined to be a candidate for any office.

DRYS AND WETS STAY WELL PUT IN ILLINOIS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SPRINGFIELD (Ill.) April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Reports received at the office of the legislative superintendent of the Illinois Anti-Saloon League, show the "drys" lost only three townships to the "wets" in Tuesday's elections.

The three "dry" towns changed to wet were Auburn and Riverton in Sangamon county and Cherry Valley in Winnebago county. Five "wet" towns that voted to remain so were New Berlin, Sangamon county; St. Charles, Kane county; Coal Valley, Rock Island county; Piasa, Jersey county; Lake, Clinton county.

"Dry" townships and cities that turned down saloons, many by largely increased majorities, include the following:

Pawnee, Island Grove, Roodhouse, Charleston, Rantoul, Shoal Creek, Bourne, Raymond, Gresuam, Coffeen, Jerseyville, Robinson, Towerhill, Waynesville, Cuba, New Trier, Maunie, Lorah, Oneco, Truro, York, Willowhill, Tampico, Milford and Walnut.

HARRISON OUTLINES HIS COMING POLICY.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHICAGO, April 5.—"I propose to give to Chicago a Democratic administration," said Mayor-elect Carter H. Harrison today, after the returns from yesterday's election were all in.

"I shall be personally responsible for the conduct of departments and I shall name men for the heads of departments who are personally known to me and whom I consider my personal friends. That has been my policy in times that are past. It is a perfectly safe forecast that there will be an entirely new list of cabinet officers."

While the Democrats have made a gain in the City Council and will have a majority of twelve instead of the six they have had during the past year, it is said the non-partisan organization of committees, which has been the custom for fifteen years, will still prevail. A sufficient number of the incoming aldermen have signed a pledge to stand by the non-partisan organization to insure a two-thirds vote when the question comes up for final decision. The Council will stand forty-one Democrats to twenty-nine Republicans.

Mayor Harrison will have the appointment of about fifty heads of departments, which are exempt from civil service. The salaries of these positions range from $10,000 to $15,000 a year. The Mayor of Chicago receives $18,000 a year, the largest salary paid by any city in the United States to a Mayor.

SOCIALISTS HARD HIT BY MILWAUKEE VOTE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

MILWAUKEE, April 5.—Complete figures on yesterday's judicial and school board election show that in the main contest, that for circuit judgeship, the Socialist candidate, John C. Kleist, was beaten by the sitting judge, L. W. Halsey, non-partisan, by a majority of 14,011 votes. The socialists were defeated by nearly two to one in the contest for places on the school board.

Mrs. C. M. Gantrovitz, the only woman candidate elected to the school board, ran about 10,000 behind the highest successful candidate.

WETS AND DRYS BREAK EVEN IN COLORADO.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

DENVER, April 5.—More complete returns from yesterday's municipal elections in Colorado show that the "wets" and "drys" divided the State almost equally. In regaining Colorado Springs, however, that city voting to resume liquor selling under decidedly restricted conditions, the "wets" have the advantage.

Another significant feature of the elections was the carrying of Victor, one of the big mining camps, by the Socialists. In Pueblo, the second city of the State, the Democratic ticket was successful in one of the great partisan fights of the day. Leadville remained Democratic, while the Republicans were successful at Manitou.

CUDAHY CASE RECALLED BY ATTACK ON A STREATOR MAN.

Superintendent of Two Glass Plants in the Illinois City Is Dead of Injuries Inflicted by Unknown Assailants After He Had Departed From a Hotel.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

STREATOR (Ill.) April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] John C. Evans, superintendent of the two local plants of the American Bottle Company, died last night at 12 o'clock in a hospital, as a result of injuries inflicted about ten days ago, when, according to the best information now obtainable, he was waylaid by two men on North Sterling street, near the C. I. & S. Railway tracks and beaten and kicked in a vicious manner. His injuries were confined largely to the abdominal region. The assault on him presents some of the features of the Cudahy-Lillis affair in Kansas City.

If Mr. Evans made an ante-mortem statement which might shed further light on the affair, including a provocation, if there was any, the Coroner's jury has yet been unable to get hold of it.

The attack is said to have been made on the night of March 25, but it was not until the afternoon of the following day that the injured man was brought in an automobile to a local physician for attention. Gangrene developed several days later and this resulted in his death.

Mr. Evans early this week is said to have stated that he knew neither of the men who attacked him. He is known to have left the Columbia Hotel at 8:30 p.m., on March 25, the night of the attack.

Evans was 43 years of age, and was widely known in the glass trade. He was superintendent here eighteen years. A wife and four children survive; also his mother, Mrs. Mary Evans, and two brothers, Herbert and Thomas, in Chicago.

The Coroner's jury will probably not reach a verdict for several days. As yet only the local attending physician and Evans's coachman, have been called.

ALASKA TOWNSITE INVOLVED.

Court of Appeals Grants New Hearing in Case Affecting Title to Every Lot in Haines.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

JUNEAU (Alaska) April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A letter received here from Clerk Monckton, of the Circuit Court of Appeals at San Francisco, announces that a rehearing has been granted in the case of the citizens of Haines, Alaska, against Solomon Ripinski.

The town of Haines is located on ground claimed by Ripinski and many of the owners of the lots had about decided to make purchases from Ripinski, who had won the case in a former trial, when the news came saying the Circuit Court had granted a rehearing. The case will be retried here. Ripinksi is a trader of a Russian family, well known in Southeastern Alaska.

STABBED DEAD IN A UNION WAR

One Fatally and Two Others Seriously Injured.

Laborite Pickets Board a Car and Start a Fight.

Gun Men Start Reign of Terror in Chicago Buildings.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] One man stabbed to death, one shot and perhaps fatally wounded and two others seriously injured, formed today's record in Chicago's labor wars. One outbreak occurred on a Halstead street car in West Forty-fifth street between union and non-union ma...n workers, and another near the Heisen building between rival factions of union men.

The dead:

MAURICE GRIFFIN, striking marble worker, stabbed six times and died in the Englewood Union Hospital.

The injured:

C. A. Raimer, union steam fitter, shot twice by an unknown assailant.

Daniel Vincent, laborer on Heisen building, struck by stray bullets.

Coloyne Broslan, non-union marble worker, struck on the head with a hammer, seriously injured.

In the marble strike, which has been in progress for a month, the manufacturers today filed a bill for an injunction to restrain union pickets from assaulting and intimidating non-union men, and the assault occurred almost at the hour that Dudley Taylor, attorney for the manufacturers, was asking that the injunction be immediately issued.

The non-union marble workers had left the plant of the company and boarded a car at Fifty-third street. At Fifty-first street, four men, said to be union pickets, among them Griffin, boarded the car and began talking to the non-union men. The fight started a minute later and Griffin was stabbed twice on the head, three times in the back and once in the left shoulder. He died in the hospital before being placed on the operating table.

Architects and builders have united in a demand that the police put an end to the reign of lawlessness in the building trades. It is well known to the Contractors Association that a band of "gun men" has been hired at the rate of $5 a day each to shoot and slug workmen and that they are openly going from one building to another, attacking jitters.

"Gunmen" employed in the steam fitters and plumbers' warfare turned the New Haven building, South Dearborn and West Harrison streets, into a battle ground, probably fatally wounding one man and sending half a dozen bullets whistling about the heads of hundreds of women and girls who were in South Dearborn street on their way to work.

Whether the man who was shot was struck by stray bullets or was fired upon intentionally is not known. The man is a steam fitter and was wounded twice while standing in the doorway of a saloon across the street from where the "gunmen" were firing through the main corridor of the new skyscraper. He told the police that he was not engaged in the warfare, but he is believed to have been either employed as a picket or as a steam fitter in the building.

After the "gunmen" had fled Charles A. Ramler, a steam fitter, was found lying across the street from the building, unconscious, with a bullet wound near his heart. He was hurried in an ambulance to St. Luke's Hospital, where it was said that his wounds were dangerous.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 5.—Troops A, C and D of the First United States Cavalry were ordered from Calexico to San Francisco today. They will be sent to the annual summer encampment in the Yosemite Valley. Three other troops, from the same regiment, will be sent from the East to take their places at Calexico.

Big Land Deal.

JAPANESE WANTED TO PURCHASE HOLDINGS ON MAGDALENA BAY.

Former Governor of Nebraska Admits in Tacoma That the Orientals Made Him an Offer for Lower California Lands, But He Rejected Their Proposition and the Fifteen-Million-Dollar Deal Will Be Closed.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TACOMA (Wash.) April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ezra P. Savage, former Governor of Nebraska, now a resident of Tacoma, tonight announced the practical completion of a deal whereby the syndicate of which he is a member will transfer its holding on Magdelena Bay, on the Peninsula of Lower California, for a consideration which he would not name, but which will reach a total of more than $15,000,000.

Ex-Gov. Savage tonight admitted that, while in Mexico last winter, both he and his associate, J. E. Blackman of New York, had been approached a number of times by men who said they were the representatives of the Japanese government, asking for an option on the land. The overtures of the Japanese representatives were not considered, however, and the land is now being examined by representatives of three syndicates who are figuring on its purchase. One of these syndicates has an option which will expire within a few weeks.

According to telegraphic advices received by Gov. Savage tonight, the sale is likely to be consummated any day and he is awaiting advices which will call him South to wind up the transaction.

Said Ex-Gov. Savage: "It is true that our syndicate is negotiating the sale of its holdings on Magdalena Bay, but we are not going to sell to Japan for a coaling station. While I was in the South a few months ago I was approached, as was my associate, Mr. Blackman, by men who said they were representatives of the Japanese government, asking us our price on the land.

"I told them that we could not consider the proposition, no matter how much they were willing to pay, on account of the Monroe doctrine.

"The land is known as the Flores-Hale estate. It is twenty-eight miles wide and 450 miles long, containing about 4,500,000 acres, or 12,600 square miles. One million, five hundred thousand acres of this land is a rich agricultural section and the climate is ideal. The greatest wealth of the land, however, consists in its mineral deposits. There are a number of gold mines in operation on the land and there are placers which have been operated for over 200 years. Aside from the gold, there are copper mines, iron mines and great beds of onyx which are exposed and easily mined.

"There are three syndicates after the land now. Two of these are foreign syndicates. One is an English syndicate. Then there are a number of corporations which are after various portions of the estate. On the land we have located fifty-six copper claims uncovering richer copper beds than are found in the copper country of Michigan, Thunder Bay, or Butte. There are also several iron mines.

"The land first belonged to the Flores-Hale estate years ago. I do not know how long. It was granted by the Spanish government to the ancestors of a Senor Flores. He sold a portion to an Irishman named Hale. They left the land to a large number of heirs who, in an effort to settle the estate, sold it to a New York man named Reed.

"Reed went to England to exploit the property and went broke. He sold his holdings, subject to a mortgage, to Blackman, who is a lifelong friend of mine, and Blackman took the estate and settled with the heirs.

"Blackman, to handle the deal, took in with him a number of his friends, myself included. The others interested are Leslie M. Shaw, former Secretary of the Treasury; A. H. Allen, a prominent New York financier; E. D. Rowland, nephew of J. Pierpont Morgan, and other eastern men."

THOUSANDS MOURN FIRE DEAD.

Thousands in Procession March in Rain to Funeral of Victims of New York's Factory Holocaust.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, April 5.—Rain reduced to less than 75,000 the army of 200,000 workers who had planned to march today in memory of the victims of the Washington place factory fire; but what the storm took in numbers it added in solemnity.

The demonstration will long be remembered by those who took part and by countless thousands who came to look on, but who unconsciously found themselves joining in the wave of emotion which swept the line of march.

Simultaneously with the removal from the morgue for burial of the eighty coffins containing unidentified victims of the fire in which 144 lives were lost, workers poured from sweatshops and garment factories and formed in line.

The down town section was headed by 500 men and women employees of the Triangle Waist Company, survivors of the fire, and when they turned into Washington Square, where so many of their comrades met death, one young woman broke forth into a wail that swept the entire throng.

Meanwhile the uptown division had been trudging south, and the two sections poured into the square and ... Hundreds, if not thousands, burst into tears; many knelt in the wet street in prayer and women and men stood bared and wept. The uptown section, ... ors, flanked by spectators, ... back for twenty blocks and the down town line was fully as long.

Each person carried a small Amer... can flag draped in crepe. Now ... then the line was broken by a ... draggled banner lettered "We ... our loss."

The bodies of the unidentified dead were buried in Evergreen Cemetery, where services were conducted in three faiths, Jewish, Catholic and Protestant.

HENRY'S WIFE IS ARTFUL DODGER.

Alleged Kidnaper of Young Children Still Free.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Pearl Wyckoff, the nurse who had charge of the two Henry children Monday night when the mother, the young Seattle divorcee, forcibly took them from her, with her sister, Edith Wyckoff, were entertaining two young men, E. F. ...roy and Martin Oberg, a rubber company employee and a former chauffeur, at their apartments when the alleged kidnaping took place. That fact was wrung from Miss Edith Wyckoff by Attorney Drew in Judge Hogan's court this afternoon during the investigation of a series of charges of contempt of court that have resulted from the escapade.

Attorney Choynski, representing the chauffeurs, who were placed under arrest yesterday, charged with aiding Mrs. Henry in removing the children from the jurisdiction of the California courts, entered a formal protest against taking testimony from those men. He declared to force them to testify against themselves would be illegal and in order that an affidavit charging the chauffeurs with a specific offense may be filed by the attorneys representing Henry, the Seattle bank employee, the case has been continued until Friday.

Meanwhile Mrs. Henry, with her two children, is baffling the score or more detectives who are making unusual attempts to find them. That the woman, with her babies and Foster Kelly, the co-respondent in the Seattle divorce case, are within a short distance of San Francisco, if not actually in the city, is the belief of Attorney Metson and the men working under him. He also believes that Kelly, the Seattle banker, the father of two children and husband of a woman now in Seattle, is assisting Mrs. Henry in her flight with her two children, the matter of whose custody is still in abeyance in the Seattle courts.

Detective Cavanaugh has found that after the children were transferred from one automobile to another near Golden Gate Park Monday night, nine men, among them Bogan, appeared at a road house on Fell street, near the park, and remained there for an hour or two. That those men were the ones who assisted in carrying out Mrs. ...ery's plan is the belief of Detective Cavanaugh.

Half Million.

GUSHER CAUSE DAMAGE SUIT.

ASSESSORS FILE LONG COMPLAINT AGAINST THE LESSEES.

Judgment Is Asked for Damages in the Sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars, Pay for One and Third Millions of Barrels of Oil and Instant Possession.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BAKERSFIELD, April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Lake View gusher and its 5,000,000 barrels of oil are involved in a suit filed today in the local Superior Court by J. M. Dunn, Parker Barrett, Julius Fried and A. E. Hodgkinson as lessors against the Lake View Oil Company, lessee.

Based on a rate of 30 cents a barrel for oil, the plaintiff share of one sixth, or 1,333,333 barrels would be worth $400,000, which with $100,000 damages make the total amount asked in the suit $500,000. The Union Oil Company owns 51 per cent. of the Lake View stock.

Judgment is asked for possession of the property and annullment of the lease, that a receiver be appointed and the defendant account for all oil produced, estimated at 8,000,000 barrels since the well came in, March 15, 1910, and that it deliver one-sixth of all oil to the plaintiffs. Damages of $100,000 are asked.

The plaintiffs allege that the Lake View is now doing 5000 barrels daily and that only about 80,000 barrels have been delivered to them. The demand for 200,000 barrels of oil in February was not compiled with. It is alleged that the defendant has failed to keep a daily record of the oil produced and has made no effort to shut off the water, thereby immeasurably damaging the oil sands by percolation of water or other drilling wells.

Commenting on the suit, in answer to question, J. M. Dunn said tonight that he and his associates have received only about $12,000 from their share of the Lake View Oil. "The terms of the lease to the Lake View Oil Company," said Mr. Dunn, "gave us the option of selling the royalty oil or letting it go with the Lake View Company's share. We have demanded possession of the royalty oil, but have not been permitted to handle it. At one time we could have sold it all for 60 cents per barrel. Later we were offered 56 cents, then 40, and at last 30. That illustrates our loss in not having the handling of our oil as the lease provides."

Mr. Dunn says that the Lake View is now making from 5000 to 6000 barrels per day. "On some days it is nearly all oil, and on other days it is 50 per cent. water and mud. The production of oil varies all the way between. The present product of the lease is being stored in old sumps and in open reservoirs on the Maricopa flat. About 400,000 barrels of Lake View oil are now in storage with the Independent Company, and we have to pay storage on our share," said Mr. Dunn.

HENRY'S WIFE IS ARTFUL DODGER.

Alleged Kidnaper of Young Children Still Free.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Pearl Wyckoff, the nurse who had charge of the two Henry children Monday night when the mother, the young Seattle divorcee, forcibly took them from her, with her sister, Edith Wyckoff, were entertaining two young men. E. F. Foley and Martin Oberg, a rubber company employee and a former chauffeur, at their apartments when the alleged kidnaping took place. That it was wrung from Miss Edith Wyckoff by Attorney Drew in Judge Hogan's court this afternoon during the investigation of a series of charges of contempt of court that have resulted from the escapade. Attorney Choynski, representing the chauffeurs, who were placed under arrest yesterday, charged with aiding Mrs. Henry in removing the children from the jurisdiction of the California courts, entered a formal protest against taking testimony from those men. He declared to force them to testify against themselves would be illegal and in order that an affidavit saving the chauffeurs with a specific offense may be filed by the attorneys representing Henry, the Seattle bank employee, the case has been continued until Friday.

Meanwhile Mrs. Henry, with her two children, is baffling the score or more detectives who are making unusual attempts to find them. That woman, with her babies and Foster Kelly, the co-respondent in the Seattle divorce case, are within a short distance of San Francisco, if not actually in the city, is the belief of Attorney Metson and the men working under him. He also believes that Kelly, the Seattle banker, the father of two children and husband of a woman now in Seattle, is assisting Mrs. Henry in her flight with her two children, the matter of whose custody is still in abeyance in the Seattle courts.

Detective Cavanaugh has found that the children were transferred from one automobile to another near Golden Gate Park Monday night, nine men, among them Bogan, appeared at a rooming house on Fell street, near the park, and remained there for an hour or more. That those men were the ones who assisted in carrying out Mrs. Henry's plan is the belief of Detective Cavanaugh.

USHER CAUSE DAMAGE SUIT.

DIRECTORS FILE LONG COMPLAINT AGAINST THE LESSEES.

Judgment Is Asked for Damages to the Sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars, Pay for One and Half Millions of Barrels of Oil and Instant Possession.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BAKERSFIELD, April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Lake View gusher and 1,000,000 barrels of oil are involved in a suit filed today in the local Superior Court by J. M. Dunn, Parker Stewart, Julius Fried and A. E. Hodgkins as lessors against the Lake View Oil Company, lessee.

Based on a rate of 20 cents a barrel for the plaintiff share of one sixth, 1,000,000 barrels would be worth $200,000, which with $100,000 damages and the total amount asked in the suit $300,000. The Union Oil Company owns 51 per cent. of the Lake View Oil.

Judgment is asked for possession of the property and annullment of the lease, that a receiver be appointed and the defendant account for all oil produced, estimated at 3,000,000 barrels by the well came in, March 15, 1910, and that it deliver one-sixth of all oil to the plaintiffs. Damages of $100,000 are asked.

The plaintiffs allege that the Lake View is now doing 5000 barrels daily and that only about 90,000 barrels have been delivered to them. The demand for 200,000 barrels of oil in February was not complied with. It is alleged that the defendant has failed to keep any record of the oil produced and has made no effort to shut off the water, thereby immeasurably damaging the sands by percolation of water and other drilling wells.

Commenting on the suit, in answer to Mr. J. M. Dunn said tonight that he and his associates have received about $12,000 from their share in the Lake View Oil. "The terms of lease to the Lake View Oil Company," said Mr. Dunn, "gave us the right of selling the royalty oil or letting it go with the Lake View Company shares. We have demanded possession of the royalty oil, but have not been permitted to handle it. At one time we could have sold it all for 60 cents per barrel. Later we were offered 50 cents, then 40, and at last 30, that illustrates our loss in not having the handling of our oil as the lease provides."

Mr. Dunn says that the Lake View is now making from 5000 to 6000 barrels per day. "On some days it is nearer 6000, and on other days it is 56 oil, water and mud. The production of oil varies all the way between. The present product of the field is being stored in old sumps and in reservoirs on the Maricopa flat. There are 600,000 barrels of Lake View oil now in storage with the Independent Oil Company, and we have to pay storage on these barrels," said Mr. Dunn.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Announcement is made of the engagement of one of Sacramento's most popular daughters, Miss Willamette Lobner, whose marriage to Ernest Coons of Los Angeles will be celebrated some time during the summer months. Miss Lobner is the daughter of Mrs. W. B. Lobner of this city, and not only claims social popularity, but has become a great favorite in amateur theatricals in which she has appeared from time to time, so much so, in fact, that there has been little in the dramatic line of importance given among local Thespians during the past few years that has not included Miss Lobner in its cast. She was a student at the Sacramento High School, leaving to accept a position with Wells-Fargo Company, which she resigned a few weeks ago.

Mr. Coons is a nephew of Mrs. Marshall R. Beard, wife of the Mayor of Sacramento, and is prominent among the young business men of Los Angeles, where he is manager for the southern division of the Pacific Fruit Express. The date of the wedding has not yet been definitely set, but it is expected that it will be one of the events of the early summer, when Mr. Coons will take his bride to the southern metropolis.

Warrants Scattered Broadcast in Endeavor to Locate Young Girl and Married Man of The Dalles.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

THE DALLES (Or.) April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Warrants have been issued for Miss Gladys Heebner, beautiful 17-year-old daughter of John W. Heebner of The Dalles, and the girl who was awarded a diamond ring last fall as the most popular young woman in The Dalles, and for Al A. Carpenter, a married man. They are supposed to have eloped.

By exchanging clothes with her chum, Lilah Price, and completely changing her appearance, Miss Heebner, who ran away last Friday night, succeeded in eluding the officers at Umatilla and Spokane. The local officers have sent out new descriptions. Carpenter has a wife living at Heppner.

Miss Price admitted that she knew all about the affair, but refused to give any information regarding the whereabouts of Miss Heebner.

Miss Heebner is of the burnette type with masses of jet black hair and large brown eyes. She was very popular with the younger set here.

Mr. and Mrs. Heebner, who are among The Dalles' most respected citizens, are heartbroken over their daughter's disappearance. It is said Miss Heebner took parental money with her.

ARRESTED FOR WHITE SLAVERY.

Salt Lake Youth Gets Into Trouble by Enticing Girl From Home on Pretext of Marriage in the North.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND (Or.) April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] While Federal authorities here were searching the records to ascertain if Ross Morrison had married Miss Lena Henderson of Salt Lake, officials at Walla Walla took that young man into custody for violating the white slave law.

Information came here that Morrison had left Salt Lake with the girl, who is of a respectable family, stating to her mother that they were to be married in La Grande. Inquiry proved that they had not been married there. Then the girl wrote home that they were to be married in Portland. The records here failed to reveal that the ceremony had been authorized by law.

Next the report went to the mother that they would be married in Seattle, but no confirmation was obtained in that city. In the meanwhile, the Walla Walla officials picked Morrison up for bringing the girl to that place for unlawful purpose, it being alleged he had forced her into a disorderly life.

GRAIN LANDS INUNDATED.

Twenty-five Thousand Acres Seriously Damaged in Colusa Section by Breaking of a Levee.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

COLUSA, April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The levee of Reclamation District No. 18, south of Colusa, broke today near the Yolo county line, and the district is filling with water from Colusa basin. A heavy wind last night caused waves, which battered away the embankment. Twenty-five thousand acres of growing grain, that would have made a heavy yield, will be ruined. Probably not more than 1000 acres will remain out of water. Three large dredgers were rushed to the scene and are trying to stop the flood.

Three hundred men have been working night and day protecting the levees with burlap, lumber and other materials, trying to prevent disaster, but their efforts were rendered futile by the wind. Ten days ago a cut was made through the dam of another district to lower the water in Colusa basin, but its height was reduced only eight inches, not enough to remove danger of disaster.

Various reclamation districts have built levees against floods from the Sacramento River and back levees to keep out the water of Colusa basin. These districts now extend to Knight's Landing Ridge, which forms a dam and the water cannot escape. Means must be taken to remedy this before the districts will be safe.

WOMEN COPS FOR SEATTLE.

City Council Passes Favorably on Ordinance Making Fair Sex Eligible to Police Situations.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SEATTLE, April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Women are to be given an equal chance with men in the police department in such positions as detectives, desk men and patrolmen. This was decided by the Public Safety Committee of the Council today when a bill was recommended for passage directing Chief of Police Bannick to appoint a special policewoman to the first vacancy in the list of patrolmen. This action was taken upon the petition of the Federation of the W.C.T.U., represented at the meeting by Mrs. Jackson Silbaugh. The committee directs the Chief of Police to appoint a woman to the first vacancy, the appointment to be made from an eligible list to be submitted by the Civil Service Commission.

This bill will give every woman who makes application an opportunity to take the examination and the Chief will be required to make the appointment from the first three on the list. This is not favored by Mrs. Silbaugh and the other women of the W.C.T.U., for the reason that their candidate, Mary E. Brown, may not reach as high a standing in the examination as some other applicant.

FIGHT ON RECALL LEGALITY.

Seattle Lawyer Attacks Election Which Recently Resulted in Taking Hiram Gill From Mayoralty Office.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SEATTLE (Wash.) April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] An attack on the validity of the recall, as applied to Seattle and used in the recent election, was made this afternoon by the attorney for Herbert S. Frye, charged with facilitating and effecting the escape of Clarence Gerald on February 7 last, while Gerald was in the custody of Deputy Sheriff William Griffith. Gerald was accused of selling liquor upon election day. Frye as an attorney advised Gerald that the Sheriff's office had no power to make the arrest except upon a warrant, and then Gerald, acting upon this advice, refused to accompany Deputy Sheriff Griffith to the County Jail.

In starting his argument, the attorney for Frye contended first that any evidence on the part of the State was immaterial, because, he said, February 7 was not a general election day and the election had not been legally called by ordinance. The second point was that the recall amendments were not validly enacted, it being urged that the recall was not then a State legislative act, and for that reason the proceeding, being brought in the name of the State of Washington, the court cannot take any judicial notice of any act or fact establishing the validity of such recall amendment to the city charter.

DIDN'T STOP TO SCREAM.

Woman Merely Spurred Her Horse on and Beat the Runaway Team Down the Mountain Side.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WHITE SALMON (Wash.) April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] To meet a runaway team on a mountain road so narrow as to prevent passing was the predicament in which Mrs. Justin Waugh, wife of a White Salmon physician, found herself while horseback riding yesterday. To hesitate and scream or go into hysterics might have proved fatal. Controlling her nerves Mrs. Waugh wheeled her horse and began a mad race with death down the narrow road, the runaways closely pursuing her, dashing around curves and along the brink of a deep canyon for nearly a mile.

The deviation of a foot or two from the trail, or the stumble of a horse, would have ended disastrously. For ten miles the race continued and team and rider reached the bottom without mishap. Mrs. Waugh turning off the road at the first inviting point. The runaways, having worn themselves out, stopped on their own accord a mile farther on.

Thanks to the protection afforded by the blankets, the baby escaped without injury. Mrs. Haag was badly burned about the face and hands in the fire, which completely destroyed the residence of Edward Corpe this morning.

Roosevelt Amused by What He Sees and Hears in Portland Even When the Joke's on Him.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

PORTLAND (Or.) April 5.—Theodore Roosevelt was given a reception in Portland today that was equal, if not greater in enthusiasm, to any thing he has experienced since he began his present tour.

Mr. Roosevelt tonight was the guest of the Portland Commercial Club at a banquet which was the most novel affair he has attended since he left New York. The club rooms were transformed into an African jungle and the features of the entertainment, all of which were of the tropical sort and held up national and local figures to good natured ridicule, were reviewed by Mr. Roosevelt with every evidence of enjoyment, even when the joke was on himself.

REWARD FOR HER SON.

San Francisco Mother Thinks He Is Either in a Hospital or Is Held Prisoner Somewhere.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Believing that her son is still alive and is either in a hospital or is being held a prisoner somewhere, unable to communicate with her, Mrs. George Landsburg, mother of Guy Landsburg, the young man who dropped out of sight mysteriously in this city the night of March 27, has offered a reward of $1000 for information of his whereabouts.

Guy Landsberg attended a theater in this city the night of March 27 with three friends. They became separated in getting out of the playhouse, and Landsburg was never seen after.

"I am sure that if Guy were able to send me word," said Mrs. Landsburg, "he would do so, for he knows how I am suffering. Even if he were dead it would be better to be advised of the worst. The suspense is killing me."

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 5.—A majority of the Legislature of Hawaii is pledged to memorialize Congress for a modification of the Chinese exclusion in Hawaii to relieve the labor famine and "offset the influx of Japanese," according to a Honolulu dispatch.

The suggestion is that a limited number of Chinese be brought to the islands on five-year contracts.

The dearth of labor has become more acute in the past few weeks through the operations in Hawaii of labor agents from the Pacific Coast, who have been recruiting Filipinos and Porto Ricans for work in Alaska and California.

Calling Himself a Professor of the University of Napl... He Prepared Youths for the College Career, But W... Forced to Flee from Paris as a High-Class Gambler a... Went to London.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

VITERBO (Italy) April 5.—One of the most interesting characters in the Camorra, Giovanni Rapi, the supposed treasurer, was heard in his own defense today.

Questioned by President Bianchi of the Court of the Assizes, he made a general denial of complicity in the murder of the Cuocolos, called attention to discrepancies in the testimony of Gennaro Abbatemaggio, the informer, and sought to impress the jury by the assertion that, having escaped the jurisdiction of the court, he voluntarily returned to stand trial.

Rapi has the bearing of a gentleman and today he was dressed in stylish clothes. Speaking in a carefully modulated tone and with precision, the prisoner betrayed a desire to emphasize his social superiority over the other thirty-five defendants.

HIGH-CLASS GAMBLER.

By profession Rapi is a high-class gambler and has experienced the usual ups and downs of a follower of chance. The surveillance of the Italian police becoming oppressive, he went to Paris and when expelled from that city, he set up business in London, subsequently returning to Italy with a fat purse, there to go broke again.

He founded the Unione del Mezzogiorno of Naples, to the success of which many of the aristocracy are said to have contributed their fortunes in a single night's play. He conducted gambling places also in Rome and Ostend.

In his Neapolitan resort, Gennaro Cuocccolo is said to have gathered information of its patrons that made the latter victims of crime. Rapi had many bankers, politicians and journalists among his acquaintances.

Dreadnaught Secrets Pass Into Hands of Argentine.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—In compliance with a resolution adopted by the Senate last session, calling for information concerning the part played by the State and Navy departments in obtaining from the Argentine Republic contracts for the building of two battleships in private American yards, replies were sent to the Senate today by Secretary Knox and Secretary Meyer. Both Cabinet officers defended their course in permitting the use in the foreign ships of confidential plans of the Dreadnaught type of vessels now being built for this government and secret devices embraced in armament. The responsibility of justifying the action of this government chiefly fell to the Secretary of the Navy, but Secretary of State Knox said the action of the administration officials was in accord with the policy of the act of 1909, under which the Department of State was reorganized, and the purpose of which was the extension of American trade relations.

The two Argentine battleships which are being built in private ship yards here are partly from plans this government has adopted for the construction of the new battleships New York and Texas, for which appropriations were made only last session.

For the information furnished the United States reserved the right to purchase the two battleships from Argentine in case they were to be sold at any time. Furthermore, Argentine was to consider the plans confidential. "It was apparent," said Secretary Meyer, "that if the American competitor in the shipbuilding trade were to offer bids upon a footing of equality with their foreign rivals it was essential that they receive from their government the same assistance and support as that which the great ordnance manufacturers of Europe obtain from the governments."

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Progressive Republican Senators were given good representation on the Steering Committee and the Committee on Committees appointed today by Senator Cullom permanent chairman of the caucus. The list is received generally as indicating that the two factions in the Republican party intend to adopt conciliatory tactics. The committees are:

Steering: Cullom, Illinois; Gallinger, New Hampshire; Clark, Wyoming; Nelson, Minnesota; Gamble, South Dakota; Brandegee, Connecticut; Smith, Michigan; Borah, Idaho; Brown, Nebraska; Briggs, New Jersey; Jones, Washington.

On committees: Gallinger, New Hampshire; Lodge, Massachusetts; Warren, Wyoming; Penrose, Pennsylvania; Heyburn, Idaho; Smoot, Utah; La Follette, Wisconsin; Bourne, Oregon; Cummins, Iowa; Bradley, Kentucky; Bristow, Kansas.

The general understanding is that the Democrats of the Senate will be given larger representation than they have had in the past, perhaps making the ratio about 5 to 4. Last session it was 8 to 5 in some cases. It is likely that the progressives will receive about one-fourth of the Republican representation.

THINKS HIS PATENT BAD.

Land Claimant Wants President's and Mrs. Taft's Signatures to Deed.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A man in Washington, who recently received a patent to some government land, has noticed something wrong with the patent. He has protested that the President did not sign it personally, but that it is only signed by his secretary, and that Mrs. Taft's name is not affixed even by proxy. In his State, he writes the Commissioner of the General Land Office, a deed is not legal unless it is signed by both a man and his wife. In consequence he demands that both the President and the wife of the President sign his patent. The land office has been chuckling over the demand for several days, considering it the best joke that has come through in the official correspondence in months.

PLANS A BIG EXCURSION.

CALIFORNIA SOCIETY'S HOME.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] While others are discussing the new Congress, the California Society of Washington is making ambitious preparations for the big excursion to the Panama-Pacific exposition, in 1915, and a club of 100 members is forming to finance the expedition, which contemplates a solid vestibuled Pullman train. The California Society claims much credit for obtaining Congressional recognition of California as the place in which to hold the exposition.

SENATORS BY DIRECT VOTE.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Direct election of Senators by the people is provided in a resolution introduced today in the House by Mr. Sulzer of New York. It is identical with Senator Borah's resolution at the last session, Mr. Sulzer having consulted with the Idaho Senator. Mr. Sulzer thinks it will have a much better chance of passing the Senate if it goes through the House.

Sixty-second Congress.

STINGERS STILL IN CANNON ROAR

Former Speaker Sarcastic at Democratic Expense.

Takes Hot Shot at New Rules Governing House.

President's Message Read to Special Session.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON (D. C.) April 5.—Both houses of Congress listened today to President Taft's brief message urging the adoption of the reciprocity agreement with Canada. Then, with the Senate adjourned, the Democratic House proceeded further with its organization by adopting new rules.

These are largely a repetition of those that had been handed down by many Congresses. The Democrats claim their greatest reform is taking from the Speaker his power to appoint committees and to designate the chairman of each committee. The new rules provide for the election of committees and their chairman.

The second reform is a return to the former Democratic practice of permitting amendments to appropriation bills when these amendments tend to reduce expenditures.

The rules continue "calendar Wednesday" and the unanimous consent calendar and seek to perfect the rule for the discharge of committees.

This latter effectively does away with the former practice of stifling legislation in committees.

A special order limiting debate on the rules to four hours brought out a cry of "gag" from the Republicans. The speeches were more or less of a political nature and there was no serious fight on the rules.

FORETASTE OF FIGHT.

The Republicans claimed they were debarred from making such a fight because of the further provision of the special order that only one substitute set of rules could be offered by the minority. A roll call was demanded by the Republicans even on the adoption of the rules.

The political battle which raged for four hours was but a foretaste of others to come and which are expected to make the present Congress notable. Representative Mann was ably seconded by former Speaker Cannon and Representatives Dalzell and Olmstead. Mr. Mann charged the Democrats with insincerity inasmuch they spoke in praise of the rules and said they had no purpose to take away from themselves as a majority the right to control legislation.

He characterized the rule for the discharge of committees as "an utter absurdity, not to say idiotic."

Chairman Henry of the New Rules Committee retorted that the rules thus characterized had called out the most doleful speech from Mr. Mann that he had ever heard the gentleman make. He also said the fault the people had found in the past was not so much in the House rules as the bad administration of those rules.

Mr. Cannon's speech was easily the feature. He was greeted with applause from both parties when he arose.

CANNON SARCASTIC.

"I want to say here and now," he declared, "that substantially the rules proposed by this legislation are an indorsement of nearly all that is good in the rules that have evoluted since the adoption of the Constitution and therefore I am not going to criticise the rules merely because the majority of the House proposes to adopt them.

"Sometimes majorities and minorities tear passion to tatters and appeal from the staandpoint of demagoguery and clap-trap to people that would not know a rule or a code of rules if they met in the middle of the street

And now it is said we have a unanimous consent calendar. I am glad that we have. Along with that is the saying, in the language of the distinguished gentleman from Kansas (Mr. Murdock,) and the universal representation of the uplift magazines, that it is no longer necessary to crawl upon your knees, hat in hand, to ask the Speaker for recognition for unanimous consent. When the unanimous consent calendar is called, if my judgment prompts me to object to the introduction of a bill, no doubt the man in charge of that bill will figuratively come on his hands and knees, with his hat in his hand, even the gentleman from Kansas (Mr. Murdock,) trying to convince his co-members on the floor that the consideration of the bill ought not to be objected to."

Mr. Cannon criticised the rules for not permitting the discharge of the Rules Committee itself and declared that "Czar Henry" would be no more nor less of a "Czar" than was the former Speaker.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

President Taft in his message urging early action on the reciprocity agreement with Canada, stated that he based this message on deference to popular sentiment and duty to the great masses of the American people.

TEXT OF THE MESSAGE.

The message follows:

"To the Senate and House of Representatives:

"I transmitted to the Sixty-first Congress on January 26 last, the text of the reciprocity trade agreement which had been negotiated under my direction by the Secretary of State with the representatives of the Dominion of Canada.

"This agreement was the consummation of earnest effort, extending over a period of nearly a year on the part of both governments to effect a trade arrangement, which, supplementing as it did, the amicable settlement of various questions of a diplomatic and political character that had been reached, would mutually promote commerce and would strengthen the friendly relations now existing.

"The agreement in its intent and in the terms was purely economic and commercial. While the general subject was under discussion by the commissioners, I felt assured that the sentiment of the people of the United States was such that they would welcome a measure which would result in the increase of trade on both sides of the boundary line, would open up the reserve productive resources of Canada to the great mass of our own consumers on advantageous conditions, and at the same time offer a broader outlet for the excess product of our farms and many of our industries.

"Details regarding a negotiation of this kind necessarily could not be made public while the conferences were pending. When, however, the full text of the agreement, accompanying correspondence and data explaining both its purpose and its scope became known to the people through the message transmitted to Congress, it was immediately apparent that the ripened fruits of the careful labors of the commissioners met with widespread approval. This approval has been strengthened by further consideration of the terms of the agreement in all their particulars. The volume of support which has developed shows that its broad national scope is fully appreciated and is responsive to the popular will.

"The House of Representatives of the Sixty-first Congess, after the full text of the arrangement with all the details in regard to the different provisions were before it as they were before the American people, passed a bill confirming the agreement as negotiated and as transmitted to Congress.

"This measure failed of action in the Senate. In my transmitting message of the 26th of January, I fully set forth the character of the agreement and emphasized its appropriateness and necessity as a response to the mutual needs of the people of the two countries, as well as its common advantages. I now lay that message and the reciprocity trade agreement as part of the present message before the Sixty-second Congress, and again invite earnest attention to the consideration therein expressed.

"I am constrained in deference to popular sentiment and with a realizing sense of my duty to the great mass of our people, whose welfare is involved, to urge on your consideration early action on this agreement.

"In concluding the negotiations the representatives of the two countries bound themselves to use their utmost efforts to bring about the tariff changes provided for in the agreement by concurrent legislation at Washington and Ottawa.

"I have felt it my duty, therefore, not to acquiesce in relegation of action until the opening of the Congress in December, but to use my constitutional prerogative and convoke the Sixty-second Congress in extra session in order that there shall be no break of continuity in considering and acting upon this most important subject.

North Dakota and Other Border States Want Some Say on Reciprocity Bill.

[Associated Press Night Report.]

ST. PAUL, April 5.—A special to the Dispatch from Grand Rapids, N. D., says the farmers of that and other border States will insist on a hearing before the Congressional Ways and Means Committee before action is taken on Canadian reciprocity. This is one of the results of the North Dakota anti-reciprocity convention held in this city yesterday. Special committees have been appointed to gather data along the border.

RECIPROCITY A BARGAIN.

Favored Nation Clause Does Not Apply Between the United States and the Dominion.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The favored nation clause of the treaties between the United States and other countries does not apply to the reciprocity agreement between this country and Canada. This is the attitude of the President and it was explained yesterday that it is merely carrying out a consistent policy of the United States in interpreting the favored nation clause of its treaties.

The proposed agreement with Canada is a trade contract, or bargain, by which each country makes tariff concessions. Other nations, it is pointed out, can not be given these advantages except by similar special agreements.

This principle, it is said in official quarters, was laid down by the United States years ago when Germany claimed favored nation treatment on sugar in connection with the reciprocity treaty with Hawaii before that territory was annexed to the United States.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Representative McCall of Massachusetts reintroduced in the House today a bill providing for the publicity of campaign contributions in Congressional elections, prior to the election. Mr. McCall's bill last year passed the House, but was amended in the Senate to pro publication after election. As c paign publicity is one of the De cratic plans for the extra session is likely that the McCall bill will be aside and a similar bill introduced Democrat.

Chosen as Russia's Premier, Must Wait.

Vladimir Kokovtzeff,

Changes.

NEW HEAD OF RUSSIAN DUMA IS FAVORABLE TO STOLYPIN.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. PETERSBURG, April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] M. Rodzianko of Yekaterinoslav, was elected President of the Duma last night, succeeding M. Guichkoff, recently resigned. The election had an important bearing on the political situation as indicating what attitude the Duma would adopt, on mature consideration, toward Premier Stolypin.

M. Rodzianko, who is a land owner, a former colonel of hussars and a leading Zemstvo worker, is a conservative. His selection as candidate by the Octoberists and his election by a substantial majority are considered to mean the virtual end of the anti-Stolypin agitation in the Duma.

Valadimir Kokovtzeff, a prominent Russian statesman, was chosen by the Czar to succeed M. Stolypin as Prime Minister. M. Kokovtzeff has been Minister of Finance for six years. At the last moment, however, M. Stolypin reconsidered his resignation and M. Kokovtzeff will have to wait a while for the honor.

GUARDS AGAINST ATTACK ON POPE.

CARDINAL MERRY DEL VAL IS TAKING PRECAUTIONS.

Safeguards Thrown About Vatican Palace and Gardens at Rome Since Shooting by Madman in Cathedral of St. Peter on Tuesday—His Holiness Little Alarmed.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ROME, April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Owing to yesterday's shooting in St. Peter's Cathedral and to Pietro Desanti's confession that he was bent on killing the Pope, Cardinal Merry del Val conferred this morning with Mgr. Biseliti, papal major of Rome, and Mgr. Miciatelli, prefect of the Apostolic Palaces, and also with Count Cecopieri, commander of the gendarmes, and Col. Repold, commander of the Swiss guard. It was decided to increase surveillance over the papal apartments and the Vatican gardens, and to take other special precautions with the object of preventing strangers from entering the Vatican.

Desanti confessed that he abandoned the idea of an attempt on the Pope's life when he failed to enter the Vatican, but Cardinal Merry del Val realizes that another and more intelligent and determined man might have evaded the guards if he had mingled with pilgrims or persons awaiting a papal audience. The Swiss guards and gendarmes have been ordered after this to examine the tickets of all persons allowed inside the papal apartments. Admission to the gardens will be absolutely forbidden unless visitors are escorted by gendarmes.

When informed of the precautions taken to insure his personal safety, the Pope said he feared no attacks, but admitted the necessity of increased surveillance on account of the prevailing irreligious sentiment and the fact that by many the person of Christ's vicar is no longer held inviolable.

The police guard around St. Peter's has been increased despite the conviction that yesterday's shooting was the isolated act of a madman.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 5.—Armstrong, Whitworth & Co., Ltd., of London have been awarded the contract for the vessels of the new Turkish navy, consisting of three battleships of 16,500 tons each and several smaller craft.

The original tender of this firm was $425 per ton, and they received the contract only on reducing their price to $400, the figures submitted by the Palmers Shipbuilding and Iron Company, Ltd., of London, in conjunction with the Bethlehem Steel Company.

Under the latter tender the warships would have been built in England with American armor and guns.

FORTUNE STOLEN FROM WEALTHY WIDOW; ROBBERY IS HUSHED UP.

Stocks and Bonds Taken from Safe Deposit Box Owned by Widow of S. B. Armour and Sold Through Kansas City Brokers; Proceeds Invested in Jewelry, Rare Rugs and Pictures.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

KANSAS CITY, April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A peculiar case involving the disappearance and sale of stocks and bonds owned by Mrs. S. B. Armour of No. 4420 Warwick boulevard became known today. The stocks and bonds represent a value close to $100,000. Who the person is who took the bonds and sold them is known to Mrs. Armour, her attorneys and the president of the New England National Bank, J. F. Downing. None of those who have acted as advisers in the case for Mrs. Armour is at liberty to make public the name of the guilty person.

The bonds and stocks were in a safe deposit box in the New England National Bank. It would have been impossible for anyone not in the confidence of Mrs. Armour to have secured entrance to this box.

The transaction came to light through the purchases made with money derived from the sale of the stocks and bonds. The bonds were taken from the safe deposit vault and negotiated through Kansas City brokers. It was the custom of the person to send the securities by negro messenger to the brokers with a note asking that they be sold. The brokers believed the money was obtained for Mrs. Armour to be used for charities and that she was hiding her generosity in that way.

It was the custom of the person receiving the money from the sales to deposit, in amounts up to several thousand dollars, in another bank. As soon as deposited, heavy purchases would be made, including etchings and engravings, high priced Oriental rugs and jewelry. Purchases were made at one jewelry store to the amount of $10,000, payment always being by check. The purchaser did the same thing with various tradesmen, including department stores and dealers in Oriental rugs. These goods were stored, for the most part, in storage houses in Kansas City.

When the disappearance and sale of the securities became known to Mrs. Armour there was a conference of attorneys, but no prosecution was suggested, so far as known.

A reporter called at Mrs. Armour's home today. Mrs. Armour was not at home but her private secretary and companion, Miss Harriet Byington, said:

"Mrs. Armour has nothing to say about the matter. If there is any statement to give out that must come from Mrs. Armour's attorneys or her banker. Besides, the matter has been settled."

"With whom?"

"You must see the persons I have referred you to," and Miss Byington refused to discuss the matter further.

Mrs. Armour is the widow of the late Simeon B. Armour of the Armour Packing Company, who died in March, 1899. She is 76 years old.

Miss Byington has been a trained nurse in Kansas City about ten years. For the last three years she has been living with Mrs. Armour, acting as nurse, companion and housekeeper.

LORIMER BRIBERY CASE.

send the money to?' asked Attorney Healy.

"I have no evidence on that and do not want to answer," replied Funk.

Chairman Helm, of the committee, ruled that Mr. Funk must answer this question.

"Edward Tilden, connected with the stock yards at Chicago, is the man to whom I was told to send the money," said Mr. Funk.

"Was anything said of Tilden collecting the fund?" Funk was asked.

"No."

"Were other names used?"

"No."

"Did he give you names of any contributors?"

"No; and I did not ask him," replied Funk.

"You told him you and your company would not contribute; did you talk to anyone of your officers?"

"Yes, I told Mr. McCormick," Mr. McCormick said, 'Good. I am glad you turned him down promptly.'

"I also told Edgar A. Bancroft, general counsel for our company."

Mr. Funk said he did not read the Record-Herald editorial which caused Mr. Kohlsaat to be called before the committee. He said Hines came to his office after the editorial appeared.

"Hines was disturbed," said Funk, "and undertook to refresh my memory on our conversation.

"He said he had not tried to get money from me and had talked of money just in a general way. That was the first time I talked with him after the first conversation."

Funk said his company had some dealing with the Hines Lumber Company. He said he had known Hines casually prior to the Union League Club talk.

Funk said he never had any difficulty with Hines, and had no antagonistic feeling toward him.

"I am here because I did not want to see my friend, Mr. Kohlsaat, go to jail," testified Funk.

Funk said he knew Lorimer only slightly and never had had any trouble with him or his friends. He said C. H. McCormick had no interest of any kind in the Chicago Tribune.

"To Senator Helm, Mr. Funk said he had no idea whom Hines meant by "we."

Answering Senator Burton, Funk said neither he nor his company gave any money for the Lorimer campaign.

Witness said he had no interests in politics.

KOHLSAAT TESTIFIES.

The testimony of Mr. Kohlsaat was in part:

Mr. Healy: I show you, Mr. Kohlsaat, what purports to be a copy of a telegram with your name attached and addressed to Senator Helm, the chairman of this committee. It is dated March 30, 1911. Did you send that telegram? [Exhibiting a paper to the witness.]

"Yes."

Mr. Healy read from the telegram as follows:

"CHICAGO, March 30, 1911: To Senator Helm, Springfield, Ill.—The first caller at my office this morning was the gentleman who gave me the information in regard to the $100,000 Senatorial fund. He voluntarily released me from the obligation to keep his name confidential and says he is willing to appear before your committee and give you the information he gave me. If you wish to subpoena him I will give you his name. He can appear Saturday if desired. [Signed] "H. H. KOHLSAAT."

Mr. Healy: Will you tell the committee, Mr. Kohlsaat, what developed which called out the telegram, a copy of which has just been presented for the consideration of the committee?"

TALK WITH MR. FUNK.

The witness: When I arrived at my office Thursday morning the first call over the telephone was from Clarence S. Funk, general manager of the International Harvester Company. Mr. Funk asked if he could see me at once, and I told him yes, to come over, and as near as I can remember, he said the following:

"I see by the papers last night and this morning that you have been subpoenaed to appear in Springfield and have declined to give up my name to the Senate committee. I would be a little less than a man if I held you under any further confidence as to giving my name or identity. I wish to say now that I release you from all obligation to maintain secrecy and that I feel that I also have a duty to perform that until this time I did not feel free to, and if the committee wishes to subpoena me I will go to Springfield and tell the whole story."

He further said:

"When I reached the office this morning I met Mr. Cyrus H. McCormick, the president of the International Harvester Company, and he asked me if I had seen the morning papers as to what had taken place at Springfield. I said I had. He remarked: 'How do you feel about it?' I said: 'Mr. McCormick, I think that it is my duty not only to release Mr. Kohlsaat from all obligations of silence, but it is also my duty to go and tell everything I know in regard to it.' Mr. McCormick answered: 'Good; that is exactly what I wanted you to say and I want you to tell that committee everything you know, no matter what the consequences may be to the International Harvester Company.'"

I then drafted later on this telegram, in conjunction with Mr. Funk, and sent it to Mr. Helm.

Question. And Mr. Funk is the gentleman who gave you the information upon which you based the editorial which was presented to the committee the other day?

Answer. Yes.

The witness: If you would like to ask me how the conversation came about I am perfectly willing to tell it.

Chairman Helm: Well, you might state that, if you will.

Answer: Shortly after the White confession, I met Mr. Funk on Jackson boulevard, near the corner of Wabash avenue, on my way to lunch at the Chicago Club. He stopped and shook hands, and he——I do not remember whether he started the conversation on the Lorimer case, or I——told me of what had occurred a short time before. It was after the election of Senator Lorimer. I say this because I want to show that Mr. Funk did not seek me out to tell this, but it was told in an ordinary conversation without any forethought of meeting; and he then said, Of course I do not want to be known in this matter, I do not care to make this public. It came to me as an officer of the company and not in my private capacity.

Mr. Healy: And about when was that conversation, Mr. Kohlsaat?

A: I should say that it was perhaps thirty days after the election of Lorimer.

Chairman Helm: It came up in a conference or discussion over the White statement, did it, Mr. Kohlsaat?

Chairman Helm: Go ahead.

"Mr. Funk told me that the gentleman who came to him said that they had an opportunity to elect Senator Lorimer by raising a fund of $100,000. A few of them had underwritten it—I may not give his language exactly, because it is some time ago and I never expected to be called to the stand—a few of us underwrote it and sent it down, and we are now around asking some people to reimburse us partially for the money that was spent."

HINES DENIES TALE TOLD TO COMMITTEE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHICAGO, April 5.—Edward Hines late today denied the story told the Helm committee of the Legislature which is investigating the election of Senator Lorimer, that he (Hines) had solicited a fund of $100,000 to reimburse those who had "put up" for the Senator's election.

Mr. Hines, upon being read the dispatch over the telephone, said:

"I never contributed a dollar to the alleged $100,000 fund spoken of by Mr. Funk. I never solicited a dollar for any such fund, nor did I have anything to do with such a fund."

Cyrus H. McCormick, president of the International Harvester Company, confirmed Mr. Funk's statement that the Hines incident had been discussed by officers of the harvester company. Mr. McCormick said:

"It is true that Mr. Funk told me soon after it occurred of the call made on him and the request for a contribution, which he promptly declined."

Los Angeles new water supply from the Owens River Valley, opens up the most fertile land in all Southern California. This land is wonderful in its productiveness beyond belief. Potatoes that run as high as 500 bushels to the acre, with an average of 220. Alfalfa 3 tons to the cutting. Timothy with 16-inch heads. Corn, 70 bushels to the acre. Peaches and pears that took the world's prize at Portland exposition for honey. The finest apples grown on the Pacific Coast. Spitzenburgs, and Wine Saps, the favorite varieties. No better poultry country in California.

No other land in California to compare with it. Foothill land with gentle slope, giving perfect drainage. One of the most complete gravity concrete systems in the State now being installed by men whose irrigating systems in the orange belt of Southern California stand as models for modern orchard irrigating. Title to the hundreds of lakes in the high Sierras. An inexhaustible and assured supply. The Southern Pacific's new main line to the East, now nearing completion, places this valley in touch with all markets. The choicest apple land will be subdivided into tens, twenties, and forties.

The elevation is 4000 feet. Typical California summers, with no excessive heat and cool nights—restful nights. Mild winters, with thermometer 10 deg., above at the coldest. Practically no rain, about four or five inches during the entire year. Three-hundred days of sunshine. Absolutely no fog. The finest scenery in America. The high Sierras at your very door. Trout streams within walking distance. See the valley in the morning, go to the summit of the Sierras, 11,000 feet elevation, pass a dozen beautiful mountain lakes, and return to your home the same evening.

This land is not for speculators, but for real, serious farmers, who know the value of good land, water, and climatic conditions when they see them. We will send Kodak pictures and full descriptive matter, upon application.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

Pasadena.

GREAT CROWD SEES POLO GAME.

It Was the First of the Spring Contests.

Santa Barbara Will Not Be Able to Play.

Riverside Team Is Greatly Strengthened.

(Office of The Times, 36 S. Raymond avenue.)

PASADENA, April 6.—In a spirited game of polo, at Tournament Park, yesterday afternoon, the Pasadena "A" team defeated the Pasadena "B" team by a gross score of 14 1-2 to 9 1-4 goals. The "B" team was given a handicap of 3 points.

It was the first game of the spring tournament, which was to have been participated in by all the polo teams of Southern California, for the championship of the State but, unfortunately, the Coronado team has been broken up, by many of the players and ponies having been taken East for the Meadowbrook tournament. The Santa Barbara team will not be able to play because its champion player and captain, Dr. E. J. Boeseke, had his leg broken, Monday of this week. The tournament will be fought out between the two Pasadena teams and the Riverside team, which will be largely made up of crack players from Coronado.

Yesterday's game consisted of six periods and was fast from start to finish and, while the "A" team played good polo, the "B" team held them down and gave them a "run for their money." The "A" team was made up of Carleton Burke, Reggie, Harry and Tom Weiss, while the players for the "B" team were C. E. Post, Dr. Malaby, Mr. Savage, Fred Emery and Johnny Hobbs.

The best playing of the afternoon was done by Reggie Weiss, who made most of the goals for his side. He was ably assisted by the other players, all of whom showed excellent team work. Reg Weiss was in good form and rarely ever missed an opportunity to place his ball.

For the "B" team Hobbs did some good playing as also did Savage and Emery. Emery had not been in the saddle for several weeks, but made many good plays. The "B" team players have showed wonderful improvement during the past winter, and with another summer's constant practice should turn out several first-class players.

The play by periods yesterday was: First period, Reg Weiss made two goals and Tom Weiss one, making the score 8 to 2 in favor of the "B" team. Second period, Carleton Burke, Harry Weiss and Tom Weiss, each made a goal, and Reg. Weiss was penalized half goal for crossing; score 8 to 5½ in favor of the "B" team.

Third period, Reg Weiss made three goals and the "B" team was penalized one quarter goal for making a safety; score 7¾ to 8½ in favor of "A" team. Fourth period, Reg Weiss made two goals, Burke one, Tom Weiss one and Dr. Savage one; score 2½ to 10¾ in favor of "A" team.

Fifth period Reg. Weiss and Burke each made a goal; score 14½ to 9¾ in favor of "A" team. The sixth period was the best of the game, in which Rex Post, Emery and Harry Weiss each made a goal; Reg. Weiss was twice penalized a half goal for crossing, and Savage was penalized a half goal for same offense, making the total score 14½ to 10¾ in favor of the "A" team.

Today the Pasadena "B" team will play Riverside "A" team, composed of Pedley of Riverside, Costello of Denver, Maj. Ross of Coronado and Capt. J. C. Besley of Hermosillo. The game should be a very good one. Friday there will be a mixed game and Saturday the play will be between Pasadena "A" team and the winner of today's game, which will probably be Riverside. Arrangements have been made to entertain a large crowd Saturday. All school children from Pasadena and Los Angeles will be admitted free.

FREEMAN INSTALLED PASTOR.

The Rev. Robert Freeman was last night formally installed pastor of the Pasadena Presbyterian Church. While he began his pastorate January 1, he had not been formally charged with the pastoral duties. The services were presided over by Dr. John Willis Baer and the installation sermon was preached by the Rev. William H. Crawford, president of Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa., the alma mater of Mr. Freeman.

Among other pleasant things said by his former teacher are the following:

"As a student in Allegheny College Mr. Freeman was a man of honor—ed, wide-minded and high-minded; ed, wide-minded and high-minded; faithful to every duty; related to all worthy college activities; manly in sport and manly in all else; recognized by faculty and students alike as a man above reproach. His record with us is altogether clean and honorable. He wears the gold key of Phi Beta Kappa, which stands for scholarship. He holds a beautiful gold medal which ranks him first in a wide circle of intercollegiate orators. He has to his credit high honors fairly won in intercollegiate debate. But, best of all, he has in his heart's keeping the confidence and goodwill of all his college associates. We who know him best believe in him most. He is a man of high ideals, pure purpose, inexhaustible energy. Wise, true and courageous, he will not be disobedient to the heavenly visions which may come to him. In vision he will see opportunity, and in opportunity he will see duty. You will find him a manly man, a helpful brother, a devoted minister of Jesus Christ. I commend him to your confidence and to your affections.

"Mr. Freeman, your Alma Mater has commissioned me to bring you her loving greetings and on her behalf to bid you God-speed."

Dr. Robert J. Burdette formally charged the new pastor with the duties of his official position and the Rev. Hugh K. Walker of Los Angeles charged the congregation with its duty towards its pastor.

SHOWERED WITH POSIES.

John Burroughs, the venerable naturalist, who has endeared himself to the hearts of the American people, and, especially, to the children, was showered with Southern California blossoms, yesterday morning, as he and his wife departed for their New York home, after having spent the winter in Pasadena. At the depot there was a large crowd of men, women and children, all friends of the famous lover of nature. They came to wish him God speed and to thank him for his contributions to the world. He met them with smiles and grasped the hand of each. There were 250 school children in the crowd from the Franklin School, which is located near where Mr. and Mrs. Burroughs have spent the winter.

BUGS IN BACK SEATS.

In a lecture before the mothers at Wilson School yesterday afternoon, Dr. George Abbott stated that the back seats of street cars are filled with germs of various kinds, which are constantly blown back from the passengers ahead. He advised all mothers, with small children, to always take front seats, when possible, and by all means never sit behind a sick child. Dr. Abbott is advocating that smokers, if they must be tolerated, should be relegated to the very back seats because the bugs will not do them so much harm as they will the mothers and children. He also stated that many Californian mothers make a sad mistake by keeping the rooms, in which children are kept, too cold. He says that warmth is as essential here as anywhere.

BOOM HARRISON FOR PRESIDENT

The Chicago colony of millionaires wintering at the Hotel Green, yesterday started a boom for Carter Harrison, Chicago's new Mayor, for President in 1912. The boosters are headed by John McCord, a multimillionaire real estate man; Jacob Rehm and others.

The Rev. Edward R. Bernard, Chancellor of the Cathedral of Salisbury, Church of England, and one of the four committeemen sent, recently, to Sweden by the Archbishop of Canterbury to discuss terms of intercommunication between the churches, is a guest of the Maryland. Besides church matters he is also well versed in matters of state and is very hopeful that the contemplated arbitration treaty between the United States and England may be brought about. He states that he does not believe an international arbitration treaty can be brought about soon, because Germany will not agree to it, although he believes that England, France and the United States can get together, which combination would be strong enough to dominate in any international tangle.

Gen. Wentworth spent yesterday in this city and said that following the trip which he will make soon East he will return to Pasadena and get busy making preparations to open the Hotel Wentworth for business next season. He thinks that Adams & Company of San Francisco will be able to finance the proposition shortly.

Walter S. Wright, one of the best known attorneys in Southern California, was taken seriously ill yesterday caused by a nervous breakdown. For a time his life was despaired of but he rallied and last night his physicians had hopes for his recovery in a short time.

BUSINESS MEN HOLD MEETING.

ELECT NEW PRESIDENT OF THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Members of Body Favor the Aerial Trolley and Appoint a Committee to Secure a Franchise—Bishop Conaty Is Guest of Honor at Banquet and Speaks Felicitously.

REDONDO BEACH, April 5.—O. N. Tomlinson was elected president of the Chamber of Commerce last evening at the annual meeting to succeed Charles H. Burnett, who for the past four years has filled the office. Other officers chosen were: First vice-president, C. H. Burnett; second vice-president, W. M. McKnight; secretary, R. E. Matteson; treasurer, George H. Anderson; sergeant-at-arms, Fred Calloway.

The establishment of an aerial trolley, a sort of an airship that runs on a rail, was indorsed by the chamber. C. H. Burnett was authorized by the body to use his efforts to secure the right of way along the beach from wharf No. 1 to the Hermosa wharf.

In appreciation of the untiring efforts of C. H. Burnett in the work of the chamber since its organization, a committee composed of E. C. Thomas, C. W. Grassel and George H. Anderson was appointed to engross testimonials of appreciation of his efforts.

The beach-resort agreement which binds the different beach cities not to bid against each other and not to pay any bonus to secure picnics, was ratified.

BISHOP A GUEST.

Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Conaty was guest of honor at a banquet given last evening at Hepburn & Terry's by the Catholic business men upon the occasion of his first official visit to St. James Catholic Church.

The banquet was quite informal and was attended by about fifty. Immediately following the banquet Bishop Conaty confirmed a class of sixteen children at St. James Church.

There were no toasts, but the bishop gave a short talk. He was introduced by Rev. Jas. A. O'Callaghan of St. James Church, who expressed the sentiment of his congregation in extending a most hearty welcome to the bishop.

The hope expressed by the bishop that he would meet all present at the next annual Catholic picnic, which he hoped would be held at Redondo Beach, was joyfully received by the Catholics here. In a happy manner he stated that he thought the Catholics would be obliged to return to Redondo Beach on account of the splendid manner in which they were received at the last picnic.

Among the guests were Rev. Francis Conaty, secretary to the bishop; Rev. Patrick Hawe and Rev. S. P. O'Rourke of Santa Monica; Rev. M. S. Hennessey of Ocean Park, and Rev. Father Ashe of Highland Park.

Confirmation services were conducted at St. James's Church at 7:30 o'clock. The bishop delivered a sermon and confirmed the class. This was followed by the benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

The confirmation class was composed of Joan Anderson, Katherine C. Connolly, Teresa E. McElligott, Mabel K. Large, Beatrice Young, Leverne E. Obergfell, Irene E. McElligott, John F. Connolly, Arthur A. Connolly, Joseph A. Hock, Carl P. Obergfell, Arthur J. Riddell, Virginia Farras, Vivian Farras, John Larkum, Raymond J. Ortega.

The committee in charge of the banquet was composed of J. L. Schallert, J. I. Lechner and J. T. Martin.

Members of the Parent-Teachers' Association have set April 14 for a meeting of the mothers and fathers of the children of the public schools to discuss the question of a bond issue for school grounds and a central school building.

The need of a physical examiner for the schools was taken up yesterday by the association, and a committee composed of Mrs. E. B. Forbes, Mrs. Samuel Lindley and Mrs. John G. Thomas was appointed to visit the physicians of the city regarding the matter and to look into cases recommended by the teachers as needing medical attention.

NEWS BRIEFS.

The report of Miss Mary McKinley, librarian of the city library, shows a circulation for March of 1527, with an average of 56 5-9 a day. The library has experienced a large growth in circulation and in the number of card holders in the past month. An order for about $200 worth of books was authorized by the Library Board at the meeting today.

MODERN WOODMEN IN CONVENTION.

THIRTY-ONE COUNTY CAMPS ARE REPRESENTED.

Most Important Act of the Delegates Will Be the Selection of Representatives to Attend State Meeting at Chico in May—Crazy Man Is Recovering His Reason.

LONG BEACH, April 5.—The county convention of the Modern Woodmen met this afternon at the auditorium, the delegates being the guests of Silver Bay camp.

About 288 delegates were present from thirty-one camps in the county and they were entertained at luncheon on the lower deck of the auditorium. At 2 o'clock the convention was called to order by W. D. Cason and Mayor Windham delivered an address of welcome. Permanent officers were then chosen, Edward Pickering of Pasadena camp was made chairman and C. F. Sawyer of Vernon camp, Los Angeles, clerk. The convention then proceeded with the election of fourteen delegates from the different camps for the State convention at Chico, May 3. Tonight the convention closed with a grand ball at the auditorium.

HIGH ALTITUDE DID IT.

Charles Stone, who started east last Friday night with O. T. Horde, a Minnesota rancher who became violently insane here on his arrival from the East, was found wandering about Compton, has written his wife from Salt Lake City that Horde was recovering his senses and would undoubtedly be sane before they reached Minneapolis. Stone thinks that the high altitude through which Horde passed on his way West to visit his invalid sister was responsible for the upsetting of his reason, as he was in perfect health when he left home.

BIG DEAL.

Through a deal made yesterday and now escrowed W. L. Porterfield, former Home telephone king, recovers possession of the north half of the Westminster property on the beach, held for him under mortgage by W. E. Harris, a Montana capitalist. Harris takes in exchange 4300 acres of land in Fresno county, valued at $70,000.

CEMENT WALK BIDS.

Five bids were received today by the Board of Public Works for the construction of the mile of thirty-foot cement walk and bulkhead along the west beach from Hotel Virginia to the San Gabriel jetties. On the face of the bids the successful contractor will be the J. D. Kneen Contracting Company of Santa Monica, who bid $110,985. This is but $3985 in excess of the city engineer's estimates and can be secured by an additional assessment against the benefited district. The other bids ranged from $122,000 to $140,000. The contract will be awarded next Wednesday. The money for the work is in bank, having been collected in advance under provisions of the Local Improvement act under which the work was done.

She left here to find a situation and yesterday wrote the proprietor of the Yale asking that he forward her trunk to Los Angeles, where she has been living at 441 Ruth avenue since her strange flitting. She says she saw the report of her disappearance in the papers, but did not think it necessary to enlighten the anxious ones.

Free oranges for distribution have been secured by the committee and will be taken in auto trucks by the excursionists. Los Angeles residents and tourists who are on the streets when the Pomona boosters speed through the city, will have to defend themselves against a fusillade of golden bullets, for the populace will be pelted with oranges. A band will accompany the boosters.

CATHOLIC CHURCH DEDICATED.

Solemn High Mass Celebrated by Bishop Conaty As a Part of the Proceedings.

SOUTH PASADENA, April 5.—The Holy Family Church was filled to overflowing yesterday on the occasion of its dedication. A solemn high mass was celebrated by Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Conaty, bishop of the diocese, assisted by several members of the Catholic clergy.

The church was draped in the Lenten colors, violet and purple. Stations of the cross were put in place a few days before, and the congregation viewed the completed church for the first time. Much credit is due Father Cotter, whose untiring efforts made the little church a possibility. At the time it was started, eleven months ago, there were but few Catholics in this city, but despite such handicaps, the priest started his church, and the congregation has grown until there are more than 150 members.

NEWS BRIEFS.

Urged by several prominent residents of the city, the members of the Board of Trustees will probably pass a resolution by which all cows of the city must wear tags. A rigid inspection law for all cows may also be passed. Several have complained that cows are allowed to roam at will over vacant lots. By the license tags the owners may be identified and reported to the authorities, also for a law that would call for the city health officer to inspect the bovines regularly, and to prevail upon the owners to keep them healthy and clean. It was alleged that some peddlers were carrying around milk that was infected to the great danger of both infants and adults.

Superintendent John Francis of the Los Angeles schools delivered a short address at assembly period in the High School this morning, and Rev. Curtis L. A PROMINENT MUSICIAN FINDS RELIEF FROM STOMACH TROUBLE

Came to the Teleconi Offices a Physical Wreck, But Is Getting Better Fast—Teleconi Has Already Done More for Him Than Was Promised.

Prof. J. A. Barker, an orchestra leader and composer of music, who is well known throughout Southern California, has found in Teleconi the relief he had sought from many other sources in vain. His joints were so badly stiffened with rheumatism that not much encouragement was given him when he applied to the medical director of the Teleconi Company for treatment, but his satisfaction with the results derived from the treatment is expressed in his own language so clearly that comment on the part of the reporter is superfluous.

"I was in very bad shape when I began the Teleconi treatments," said J. A. Barker of Ocean Park, Cal., when interviewed by the writer. "I could not eat anything—I was afraid to eat for fear that the old distress would come in my stomach. I had suffered for over three years with indigestion and constipation, and had tried all kinds of doctors, osteopaths and best specialists, but could find no relief. I had made a chemical tank of myself each until I was completely disgusted with the medical treatment.

"Then I read of the remarkable cures that the Teleconi treatment was making in Los Angeles, and decided to try the drugless treatment. I am not sorry I enrolled for a course. Now I have not anything without that terrible pain and bloating of my stomach. I can eat a dog chained up, that wishes to get up and run. I have no aches and pains at all, and I certainly appreciate what Teleconi has done for me.

"Five or six years ago I became afflicted with rheumatism, and found relief I tried everything without hope and took so much medicine that it ruined my stomach, and after meals each became so bad I could not eat much, the rheumatism became worse, and I had to get around with a cane. My left knee became swollen and very painful. I tried to attend to my work, but I finally became so ill that I had to give up my position in June to save myself from a case of nervous breakdown.

"If I would eat milk and eggs my stomach would bloat and feel as though a tight belt were drawn around my waist. I could not get around much and when I went to town to see or buy had to go with me to help me and off the cars and along the street.

"I am not entirely well yet, as I have not taken my full course of treatments yet, but I feel more than pleased with my treatment so far, and feel sure I shall be able to go to work soon. My strength is coming back very fast, and I am gaining in weight rapidly. As I said before, I had tried all kinds of treatments, but this is the only one that ever did me any good. If anyone wants to see me they can come to my house, or I shall be only too glad to answer any letters of inquiry, my address is 2451 Trolleyway, Ocean Park, Cal."

Mr. Barker is a musician by profession and conducted the orchestra at the Ocean Pier Auditorium at Ocean Park, and also the Dancing Pavilion at the ice for several years, and he is well known in his home town.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

San Diego.

SMUGGLER RUSH IS ANTICIPATED.

Federal Officials on the Alert for Offenders.

Chinese Cut Off From Beaten Track by War.

Lieutenant Is on Trial for Overstaying Leave.

SAN DIEGO, April 5.—Immigration officials stationed, along the Pacific coast and on the border line between this county and Mexico may expect a rush of smugglers, conveying contraband Chinese into this country, within the next few weeks, according to reports brought to this city late yesterday by the crew of the Ensenada Transportation Company's steamer San Diego.

It is said 900 Chinese are now en route to Manzanillo from Hongkong, there to take a steamer which plies between that point and Mexico for the purpose of smuggling immigrants and opium into the southern republic.

Cut off from the beaten route by revolutionary movements, the Chinese, it is thought, will endeavor to reach the United States aboard smuggling craft. A portion of them may land at some California coast towns and come overland to the border line to await opportunity to slip into this country.

The immigration power boat Orient is in the harbor after a cruise in the waters of this port.

LIEUTENANT ON TRIAL.

First-Lieut. Benjamin H. Pope, Eighth Infantry, U.S.A., is on trial before a courtmartial at Fort Rosecrans on a charge of overstaying his leave of absence and of being on Lower California soil in uniform and without orders. Col. W. K. Wright, of the Eighth Infantry, is acting as Lieut. Pope's counsel, and his defense will be that the defendant was delayed at Ensenada, L. C., by circumstances which he could not avoid and that he had no intention of failing to report when his leave expired.

The twenty-sixth annual session of the Pacific Coast conference of the Unitarian Church convened at 9:30 this morning in the auditorium of the new church in this city.

Devotional services this morning were conducted by Rev. P. M. McDeyholds of Fresno.

GRUESOME FIND.

The decomposed remains of a man were fished out of the bay opposite the ferryship wharf at the foot of Fifth street today. The body was discovered by sailors of the submarine flotilla. While the crew was maneuvering in the bay, one of the sailors was startled to notice the head of a human body rising above the surface. With hooks the sailors dragged the body out and placed it on the wharf. Coroner Hunt was then notified. Because of the impossibility of immediate burial a jury was summoned and an inquest held.

Examination revealed what the Coroner believes is evidence of a crime, either homicide or suicide. The man's throat had been cut from ear to ear, with attached to one foot was a heavy piece of iron. The flesh of the face was so badly decomposed, however, that identification by the features was impossible.

In the pocket was found a five-cent piece and a Chinese lottery ticket. The clothing was of the cheapest kind and of the garb of a laboring man.

CRUISER RAMS TUG.

While waiting to unload supplies at the target grounds, south of Coronado, this afternoon, the tug Fortune was unable to retreat before a maneuver of the cruiser Pennsylvania and was struck on the starboard side. The end of the tender was caved in and one of the crew's boats was smashed to kindling.

No one aboard the tender, so far as could be ascertained, was seriously injured. Neither was the injury to the tug of such a nature as to cause immediate danger. The damaged tug was towed into the harbor for repairs. The Fortune is the tender attached to the torpedo fleet.

MURDER TRIAL POSTPONED ON ACCOUNT OF ILLNESS.

Brother on Trial for Slaying Sister's Husband, Who Is Alleged to Have Treated Her Brutally for Years—Child Falls Into Tub of Boiling Water and Dies.

SAN BERNARDINO, April 5.—The prosecution rested in the Powell murder case today. Robert Powell is charged with murder in having killed John Harvey in Mill Creek Canyon. The prosecution proved the killing, which the defense does not deny.

The hearing was continued until tomorrow, owing to the illness of Mrs. Lou Harvey, who is to be a principal witness for her brother, Robert Powell.

It is claimed that her husband, the deceased, cruelly treated her for years, and on the morning of the homicide, before she had telephoned her brother for aid, she had attempted suicide, after being badly beaten.

MAD DOG RAMPANT.

Constable George F. Frost was in town from Etiwanda today and reports a mad-dog scare there. Attys. Willis & Guthrie this morning brought suit in the Superior Court for Christopher Conklin of Redlands against Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Grepe of Highland, to recover damages in the sum of $20,225, which he alleges he sustained by being run down last December in this city while riding a motorcycle. A ball, followed by refreshments, was tendered them in the Balboa Pavilion, while Sunday was devoted to cruising about the bay and exploring its extensions and tributaries. MERCHANTS TOUR ORANGE COUNTY.

UNIQUE JOURNEY OF COMMERCIAL CLUB A SUCCESS.

Only "Wet" Town in County Visits a Lot of Dry Ones—Purpose of Jaunt Was to Become Acquainted and Further Mutual Interests. Will Try It Again.

ANAHEIM, April 5.—The Anaheim Merchants' Association toured Orange county today. There were 160 in the party, in thirty-five automobiles decorated with flags, bunting and pennants bearing "Anaheim Merchants' Association."

The bugler sounded the call and the autos started on the big "get acquainted" trip, which has been planned by local merchants for several months. It is considered a unique jaunt, as it is the first and only trip of the kind ever planned. The parade was escorted by the Crowther Cadet Band of twenty-six pieces.

The Concordia Society, composed of German voices, sang at the various stops, which included Olive, Orange, Santa Ana, Huntington Beach, Westminster and Garden Grove.

The first stop was at Olive, and the Olive Milling Company presented each person with a miniature sack of flour. Fruit punch was served at Orange to the visiting merchants from the only "wet" city in Orange county.

At Huntington Beach luncheon was served, after which the visiting merchants were joined by the Board of Trade and a trip to the Huntington Beach sugar factory was made. A cordial welcome was extended to the Anaheim merchants at each town visited and a promise that the call would be returned soon.

The dusty and tired business men returned to the Mother Colony city at 6 o'clock this evening and stated that they "wouldn't have missed the trip for anything."

Chairman Duckworth of the association said: "This is not all. We are going again. We are only half way now. Just got acquainted with our southern Orange county neighbors. We shall take the northern Orange county trip April 19, which will include a visit to Buena Park, Fullerton, Placentia, Olinda and Yorba." The success of this "get acquainted" trip is due to the chairman of the Merchants' Association, J. W. Duckworth, who has boosted the new movement from start to finish.

BODY OF UNKNOWN MAN FOUND.

Corpse That of a Man Sixty Years Old—Had Several Hundred Dollars in Pockets.

SALTON, April 5.—The body of an unknown man was found about noon today in the Santa Ana River bottom about half way between the South Pacific bridge and the Riverside Highland Water Company flume.

The body had not been identified up to a late hour tonight. He was a man of medium build, about 60 years of age, smooth shaven and neatly dressed. When searched he had between two and three hundred dollars, mostly in bills, concealed about his clothes. He had a roll of bedding, also numerous cooking utensils. The remains of a fire were found near him. It is believed the man died of acute pneumonia.

Coroner Fuller held an inquest this evening. The jury's verdict was that he came to his death from unknown causes, no marks of violence being found on the body. The remains has laid in the river bottom probably since March 23 as a newspaper of that date was found in his pocket. He will be interred at Hermosa tomorrow evening.

MAYOR SIGNS THE BONDS.

Riverside Making Ready to Spend Thirty Thousand Dollars on Its Parks—Public Golf Links.

RIVERSIDE, April 5.—The bonds for the improvement of Fairmount Park to the extent of $30,000 and for the new apparatus and extensions for the fire department in the sum of $20,000 were received from Los Angeles this morning and the Mayor, clerk and City Treasurer are signing and placing the seal upon each of the 100 bonds of $500 denomination, preparatory to turning them over to the purchasers.

It is the intention of the Council to proceed with the proposed improvements as soon as the money from the sale of these bonds is forthcoming.

At a called meeting, this morning, of the Board of Park Commissioners one of the members, Robert Lee Bettner, suggested that the addition to Fairmount Park recently donated to the city by Mayor Evans and his brother, P. T. Evans, might be partially used as golf links, to be used by the public, if the grounds were large enough and otherwise suitable for such purposes. After some discussion of the matter it was agreed that the green committee of the Victoria Club of this city be asked to go over the grounds and make a report as to their suitableness for golf links.

WATER COMPANY'S ELECTION.

Annual Convention of Shareholders Puts in Men Indicating no Change in Policy of Company.

ESCONDIDO, April 5.—With 164,000 of the 220,000 shares of stock represented at the annual meeting, yesterday, the stockholders of the Escondido Mutual Water Company elected the following directors: A. W. Wohlford, Albert Bevens, J. A. Whetstone, J. W. Hedges and H. J. Marshal.

The election indicates the continued control of the system by the so-called Wohlford interests and means a continuance of the policy which has obtained the past three years. The tunnel and other improvement work on the upper end of the system will be continued and plans may be made for hastening the work, including the making of a loan for the replacing of the stretches of wooden flume with cement-rock ditch.

The tunnel, which is to take the place of about 2900 feet of wooden flume, is now in a depth of about 500 feet, leaving 1400 feet to be reckoned with. The progress of between three and four feet per day, with hydraulic drilling, is somewhat slower and more expensive than the directors had counted on.

MORETON FREWEN TO RESIGN SEAT.

WILL CREATE VACANCY FOR TIMOTHY HEALY.

English Parliamentarian Seeks to Advance Cause of Home Rule for Ireland by Giving Up Office to Lend Strength to Growing Cause. Explains His Action.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

LONDON, April 5.—Moreton Frewen soon will resign his seat in Parliament for the northwest division of Cork county, as he opposes the government veto bill and desires to create a vacancy for Timothy Healy, who was defeated in the last election. Discussing today his proposed retirement, Mr. Frewen said:

"I am convinced that the veto bill included every wrong method for winning public opinion in England to rational home rule views. A second chamber of destruction instead of construction is incompatible with the Federal solution, which is the only solution. It is quite impossible to achieve such a constitutional rearrangement as is desired without the co-operation of both great parties.

"The furious passions that are being stirred up must make the generous financing of the new Irish government and the completion of the land purchase hopeless for many years. To have coaxed the Tories, to have conciliated the classes and creeds—this would have been quite easy. Indeed, thanks to the Federal government, for which Lord Grey is chiefly responsible, the leaven was already at work, but now we are likely to be undone. However, it is not possible for me to advance such views. To do so in this crisis would be to weaken Mr. O'Brien and his new movement upon which is contingent that broader settlement which I anticipate with confidence when this present attempt is seen to have miscarried."

The government promises Mr. O'Brien an opportunity this month to offer in the House of Commons the problem of silver exchange with Asia. He predicts a recurrence of the crisis of 1906-7, with equally disastrous results.

THREE MILLION STARVING.

Bread Is Dear and Flesh and Blood Are Cheap in the Famine District Xead Shanghai.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SEATTLE, April 5.—Three million persons are starving in northern An Hwei and northern Kiang Su, according to a letter written by John C. Ferguson, chairman of the Central China Famine Relief Fund Executive Committee, to the Shanghai Mercury, under date of March 5.

Mr. Ferguson says: "At least 1,000,000 persons are starving in Kiang Su. In addition to this district there is a large plain to the west which extends into An Hwei province, and in which it is estimated there are 2,000,000 persons starving. The horrors of the present situation have rarely been paralleled even in this land."

The afflicted territory is within 150 miles of Shanghai.

Britons Get Lower Tariff Rates on Their Textiles and Metal Products Sent to the Far East.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

LONDON, April 5.—The new Anglo-Japanese commercial treaty, ratified in Tokio yesterday, provides for reductions in the rates of the new Japanese tariff on the chief British textile and metal imports in Japan. In the case of gray cotton tissues, the duties are reduced from one-third to one-fourth, and on the most important tissues—pure wool and cotton mixed, and linen yarns—a reduction of one-fifth is made.

On certain classes of iron and steel plates, including galvanized sheets and tin plates, there is a concession of from two-ninths to two-fifths per cent.; on pig iron one-sixth, and on paints, one-third per cent.

Specialties in Japanese manufacture will continue to be admitted to the United Kingdom duty free. The treaty will remain in force twelve years.

FRIED KOODOO ON THE BILL.

And if That Doesn't Suit the Owners May Have Roast Dikdik and Kori-bustard.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

NEW YORK, April 5—Forty pounds of assorted African meats kept fresh in cold storage and fifty pounds of dried African meats will grace the board at a dinner to be given here tomorrow night by Capt. Fritz Duquesne, a wel-known sportsman, to a party of Congressmen. The menu will include such delicacies as roasted dikdik, fried koodoo, broiled giraffe steak, broiled klipspringer and croquettes of kori-bustard.

Capt. Duquesne believes that Uncle Sam should import certain varieties of African wild animals and turn them loose to multiply in the forests and plains of the South and West. The animals which the Congressmen are to sample are not of a ferocious variety and would be easy to raise in this country, the captain believes.

It was partly at Capt. Duquesne's suggestion that Representative Robert Broussard of Louisiana introduced last December a bill providing for the importation of 50,000 African beasts.

TELLS ROMANTIC TALE.

Former Vaudeville Actress, in Jail on Charge of Theft, Hark's Back to Olden Days of Feuds.

Mrs. Mabel Thompson Johnson, known on the police records as Marie Thomas and on the vaudeville stage as Lily Dale, wired for her mother yesterday and expects her in Los Angeles within a few days. Atty. George Parker, who lived for several years in Carbondale and knew the young woman earlier in her history, secured a continuance of the case until the 17th inst. In the meantime she will stay in the City Jail, in default of $1500 bail.

She declared yesterday afternoon that the charge of having stolen $700 worth of clothing and jewelry from Mrs. C. I. Wright, a patient at a sanitarium at Lamanda Park, was made because she had refused to take care of Mrs. Wright's child one Sunday when the mother ordered her to. She said she left Mrs. Wright's employ and the latter then charged her with having stolen some of her apparel.

Lee Rouche, whom the young woman declares was her childhood sweetheart and who has been with her since she came to Los Angeles, was in court yesterday. In telling how she came to meet Rouche, Mrs. Johnson tells a story of a feud she said had existed between the two families. She said that she and Rouche intended to end the feud by being married but they were separated and she later married Johnson, a traveling salesman. She later separated from Johnson and came to the Pacific Coast, where Rouche reappeared. She does not appear much affected by her imprisonment and declared cheerfully that it will come out all right.

BURDETTES GOING EAST.

The Preacher-Humorist and His Spouse Have Packed Their Trunk With California Climate.

Tomorrow night Dr. and Mrs. Robert J. Burdette will leave for a short preaching and lecture tour in the East. They will go first to San Jose, where the doctor will deliver an address before the State Sunday-school convention, on "The Book of a Million Years," the occasion being the tercentenary celebration of the King James revision of the Bible.

Sunday next, he will preach in the First Baptist Church of Oakland. From there they will go to Chicago, where he will deliver the Easter address before the famous Chicago Sunday Evening Club, of which Prof. Clifford W. Barnes, well-known in Los Angeles is president. Thence they will journey to Indianapolis to visit James Whitcomb Riley, an old-time friend of the Burlettes; thence to Shelbyville, Ind., for a day or two with another old friend, Charles W. Major, author of "When Knighthood Was in Flower;" thence to Peoria, Dr. Burdette's old home, and on to Rochester, Philadelphia, New York and Boston.

The visit to Philadelphia will be made for a conference with Dr. Russell H. Conwell, pastor of the great Temple Baptist Church of that city, which has extended Dr. Burdette an urgent invitation to occupy its pulpit during Pastor Conwell's summer vacation. Dr. Burdette confesses that the financial inducements—$100 a Sunday and a cottage in Atlantic City, and a "Temple Church" to preach in—have a strong pull with him. He is experimenting with a view to putting enough California climate into a cold storage trunk to last through a Philadelphia summer.

PARIS FINANCIERS HERE.

They Come to Arizona for Opening of Mining Company's Mills and Then See Los Angeles.

Parisian financiers, including several scions of noble families, arrived at the Alexandria yesterday in charge of S. S. Rosenstamm, associated with the Adolph Lewisohn & Sons Co. of New York. They came from Arizona at the special invitation of Rosenstamm, who insisted that it would be unfair to return to Europe without having proceeded on to the Pacific Coast after a journey almost entirely across the country.

Included in the party are Marquis Leon de Salamanca, Marquis de Saint Sauveus, Constant Say and R. Teutsch of the Parisian banking-house of Goldschmidt, Kahn & Teutsch. The foreign capital represented is principally interested in the Miami Copper Company, Arizona.

The trip at this time was chiefly made to be present at the opening of the new mills of the company. "At present the mills are handling about 1000 tons of ore a day," said Rosenstamm. "This will be increased to 6000 tons as soon as the six sections of the mill are placed in operation, which will be done as fast as possible. The first run shows concentration of 40 per cent. copper. Three cars of the concentrations were shipped on the day we left and three more cars will leave today, showing what an excellent property the mines have developed into."

The amount of foreign capital invested in this particular venture is very large, according to the visitors. They all express a great pleasure, not only with their properties, but with their first glimpse of California, which they stated has already repaid them for their journey to the Coast. The party will visit Catalina, Mt. Lowe and a number of other resorts in the stay of a week here.

OWLS HOLD HIGH ROOST.

Twelve Members of the Unfeathered Tribe Are Feathered With Ceremonies—Silk Flag Presented.

The Owl roost at Turner Hall last night was a memorable occasion. Every Owl in town will say so. And they all know, for they were all there.

There were over 400 present at the high jinks. Members of Los Angeles Nest No. 1256 were the hosts and their guests comprised members of the order from seven States of the union. The San Pedro Nest was present in a body and there were prominent representatives of the Owls in the States of Nebraska, Washington, New York, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and Michigan.

Twelve members of the unfeathered tribe were feathered with ceremonies that are known only to the Owls. A dinner, or roost as the programme had it, followed. There were worms and bugs of all descriptions and all had a keen appetite for them except the new members.

Of course, to be literal, there were no insects and there were loads of more palatable things to eat.

Two orchestras played during the evening and several addresses were made by members of the different nests. There were also musical numbers, and the crowning event of the evening was the presentation of a silk flag to the Los Angeles Owls by their San Pedro brothers.

ON "SAVONAROLA" TONIGHT.

Famous Educator, President of Allegheny College, Will Deliver Great Lecture Before Los Angeles Y.M.C.A.

President W. H. Crawford of Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa., will lecture at the Y.M.C.A. tonight on "Savonarola." He is a man of great eloquence, and this lecture has been delivered before Chautauqua assemblies and at other places, and has won the most favorable comment. The real purpose of the coming of Dr. Crawford to Southern California at this time was to deliver the address at the installation of Rev. Robert Freeman, as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Pasadena, who is an alumnus of the college. Dr. Crawford is also one of the directors of the Carnegie Foundation Fund, and one of the Hall of Fame electors. An admission of 25 cents will be charged to the lecture tonight to defray expenses.

Dr. W. L. Davidson said: "For a concise and picturesque putting of a historic period, for striking pictures of men, for absorbing and wonderful climaxes, for impassioned oratory, it has never been excelled on the latform."

Joseph Cook said: "I have never heard surpassed, not even by Dr. Gunsaulus's famous lecture on the same great theme, nor by Wendall Phillips on Daniel O'Connell, nor by Dr. R. S. Storrs on 'St. Bernard,' Prof. Crawford's lecture on 'Savonarola.'"

Item Welcomed By Many Men
This recipe can be filled at home, so that no one need know of another's troubles, as the ingredients can be obtained separately at any well stocked drug store. They are in regular use and many different prescriptions are constantly being filled with them.
This will prove a welcome bit of information for all those who are overworked, gloomy, despondent, nervous and have trembling limbs, heart palpitation, dizziness, cold extremities, insomnia, fear without cause, timidity in venturing, and general inability to act naturally and rationally as others do, because the treatment can be prepared secretly at home and taken without any one's knowledge.
Overworked office men and the many victims of society's late hours and dissipation will, it is said, find the restorative they are in need of.
If the reader decides to try it, get three ounces of ordinary syrup sarsaparilla compound and one ounce compound fluid balmwort; mix and let stand two hours; then get one ounce compound essence cardiol and one ounce tincture cadomene compound (not cardamom), mix all together, shake well and take a teaspoonful after each meal and one when retiring.
A certain well-known medical expert asserts that thousands of men and many women are sufferers all because of dormant circulation of the blood and a consequential impairment of the nervous force, which begets the most dreadful symptoms and untold misery.

$1.35 Talma Dress Silk . . 65c

3000 Yds. All New Spring Colors

Talma is the new yarn-dyed dress silk with the soft twill of Cashmere Crepe. With its unequalled draping possibilities it is the ideal silk fabric for present fashions in Gowns, Evening Costumes, Tailored Suits, Coats and Wraps.

Yesterday we received by express 3000 yards of this splendid silk. The story of how we got it at so small a price matters little. Suffice to say we bought it at a figure that permits us to pass it on to our patrons at less than half regular price and still realize a narrow margin of profit.

$1.35 a yard is the price the manufacturers insist upon the retailer asking for this silk if bought in the regular way, so, you can imagine the profound sensation this event will create. Among the fifty or more colors are: Vieux Violet, Heron, Jasper, Oxford and Queen's Blue, Banana Brown, Olive, Emerald, Pink, Light Blue, Rose, Modes, Tans, Orange and almost every other fashionable shade.

Sale starts this (Thursday) morning.

More than a hundred dozen Japanese drawn-work linen pieces are scheduled to go at exactly half value—and by half value we mean half actual worth, not half some imaginary quotation.

The work of these pieces is not commonplace by any means, it's away above the ordinary in style and execution, and it's on a nice, fine, round thread linen. Here's a hint.

Strange Theory.

TEARING DOWN FRENZY STORY.

Strong Development in Wife-Killing Case.

Telltale Discoveries in the Reynolds Home.

May Put the Affair in a Different Light.

The first step toward tearing down the story of Charles F. Reynolds, a wealthy Lankershim ranchman, that he shot his wife to death in a fit of drunken passion, was taken by the prosecution yesterday during the preliminary hearing before Justice Summerfield.

The production of a crimson-stained vest and dark-spotted shoes by Deputy District Attorney Horton plainly indicated that the prosecutors have fixed upon a strange theory upon which they hope to convict the prisoner.

That Reynolds shot down his wife, changed her clothing, and then carried her into the house where she was found, is plainly the deduction which has been reached by the District Attorney.

If it can be proved that the ranchman did these things, his defense that she was attacking him with a large knife and that he killed her in a frenzy of intoxication, will be shattered.

According to Reynolds's story, he was not near enough his wife to get his clothing bloody after he shot her. If this is the truth, he will be called upon to explain the condition of the vest and shoes.

MAY HAVE TO EXPLAIN.

These articles were found hidden away in a closet by a representative of the District Attorney's office, after all of the peace officers had completed their search of the premises.

Another unusual circumstance was developed by yesterday's session of the hearing. The autopsy surgeon had testified that the bullet wound in the woman's breast had powder-burned the skin.

The undervest, which was taken from her body by the undertaker, was produced. There was a hole in it, but not a mark of powder. There were crimson spots on it, but not a single stain upon the calico gown, which was also taken from the body, and was introduced yesterday as an exhibit. Another feature which has not been explained is a hole which appears to have been made by a bullet in the sleeve of the garment, while there was not even an abrasion on the skin of the woman's arm.

TELLS OF APPARENT GRIEF.

Among the witnesses examined yesterday was Fred Weddington, who was the first to be summoned to the scene of the crime on the day following the tragedy. He told of the apparent great grief of the defendant, who he said choked so that he could utter only a few intelligible words. He said Reynolds told him that he was worth a great deal of money, but that he would give every cent of it to restore his wife to life.

T. H. Barton, who has been the carekeeper of the ranch since the killing, was called upon to produce the coat which matched the mysterious vest. He admitted that he had been wearing it since he went to the farm. If it would have had any bearing on the case, its value as evidence has now probably been destroyed.

The prosecution also called upon him to produce the clothing which was on the bed on the night of the tragedy. He said he has been sleeping under it, and begged permission to keep the blankets, as he has no other covering.

Herman Studer, who is in a peculiar dilemma.

Which?

BRIGHT THIEF OR A VICTIM?

BOY IN COUNTY JAIL IS ONE OR THE OTHER.

French Youth Who Cannot Speak a Word of English, Arrested Under Remarkable Circumstances, the Story He Tells Through an Interpreter Almost Unbelievable.

Whether Herman Studer, a 16-year-old French boy, who cannot speak a word of English, is a clever horse thief or is merely a victim of circumstances, which implicate him, is a puzzle which the Sheriff's force is endeavoring to solve. He must be one or the other, they say.

Although it was ascertained yesterday where he had sold a horse which was stolen in this city on March 28, and the story he has told through an interpreter as to how he came into possession of the animal seems unbelievable, Deputy Sheriff Wright, who is investigating, has a feeling that the boy is not guilty.

J. R. Cochrane of No. 402 West Forty-sixth street left his horse and buggy at Winston and Main streets on March 28. When he returned the rig had disappeared. Wright was called upon to search for the missing property.

The officer located it on the Malibu ranch yesterday. He found that Studer had driven it there and sold it. The boy was then given a position as a ranch hand, and was hard at work when he was taken in custody.

He declared, talking through the medium of a ranchman who understood French, that he purchased the outfit from his brother. Upon closer inquiry he said his relative was a physician, but that he did not know where he resided. He declared that he made the purchase when he met his brother at the edge of the city.

The story does not impress the officers as true, but, on the other hand, they cannot conceive how the boy could have had the ingenuity to get away with the horse. He landed in this country only a few weeks ago from France. As nearly as could be learned from him he traveled alone. His passport shows a recent date and dispels the thought that he is shamming as to his lack of knowledge of the English language and of the typography of the country.

He will be held in the County Jail until the mystery of his case has been cleared.

POLLY'S IDENTIFICATION.

Stolen Parrot Makes a Demonstration When Mistress Appears at the Police Station—Thief Pleads Guilty.

Polly didn't go quite so far as to identify the men who stole him, but he did acknowledge yesterday that he knew Emma J. Faulding, No. 518 South Los Angeles street, and the croaks and squeals, whistles and cat calls that emanated from the City Jail, when Mrs. Faulding appeared settled the ownership immediately. She was allowed to take the bird home.

Polly was stolen Tuesday from the front porch of Mrs. Faulding's house. She reported to the police, and persons living in the vicinity who said they had seen the thief stolen gave a description of Will C. Peden and C. W. Lewis, who were arrested yesterday morning. They had roomed in the neighborhood and Peden, when taken into the Police Court, evidently believed the evidence against him was good, for he immediately pleaded guilty to petty larceny. Lewis held out and asked a trial, which will be given today. Peden will be sentenced today.

Shortly after the men are alleged to have stolen the bird they sold it to a man living on East Adams street. The police secured the address from Peden, and night before last the bird was placed in the care of the property clerk at the City Jail.

Mrs. Faulding inquired for her pet, and was told that it was kept as evidence. She left the station and returned a short time after with a large shawl.

"I want to put this around Polly so he won't catch cold," she said. "He has never been out all night before."

Then the bird caught sight of her, and the identification followed very quickly.

The property clerk declared he didn't know what kind of food parrots eat and he was afraid the bird might get sick and cheat justice of the evidence, so Mrs. Faulding was told to take her pet home and take good care of him. She promised.

JOIN HERE FOR SHARE OF ROADS

Southern Counties to Make One United Pull.

Put Millions Distribution Before Governor.

Matter of Routing to Be Also Submitted.

Here is progress in building State roads.

The chairman of each Board of Supervisors of the southern counties is asked to appoint a member of a committee.

This committee is to submit to the Governor a list of names of Southern California men as candidates for appointments on a commission that is to become a part of the State Engineering Department.

Such, in substance, is the action taken yesterday at the gathering of supervisors, legislators and delegates from civic bodies of Southern California at the Chamber of Commerce with reference to the distribution of the $18,000,000 State highway bond issue.

A like course was taken in connection with the routing question. Several of the supervisors began to present the desires of their respective boards. It was seen that a vast amount of time would have to be spent to come to any definite agreement and it was decided to leave this, too, to a committee, to be appointed, one member by the chairman of each board.

In both instances the appointments are to be made known to R. W. Pridham, chairman of the Los Angeles county Board of Supervisors, and who was elected president of the permanent organization, by next Monday. The chairmen of the various Boards of Supervisors were elected vice-presidents.

All counties south of those of Kern and San Luis Obispo, these two included, were represented at the meeting and are now component parts of the organization, which is to be known as the Southern California State Highway Association.

State Senators Gates and Thompson and Assemblyman Cogswell were present and each spoke, outlining the purposes and provisions of the act under which the proposed extensive road improvement is to be made.

Mayor Alexander was also present at the morning session and delivered a brief address on good roads.

AUTO TAXATION FUND.

The greater part of the afternoon session was taken up by a discussion of the bill now before the Governor providing for the expenditure of a fund to be created by automobile taxation. It was contended by the Automobile Club of Southern California, whose vice-president, Percy H. Clark, was present at the conference, that if the bill provides, as many believe it does, that the $400,000 which will be collected annually under its provision is to be expended only on State maintenance of roads constructed by counties and completed prior to November 1, last, it will work a hardship on Los Angeles county.

There was considerable misunderstanding among those present as to the exact provisions of the bill and the following resolution was passed and telegraphed to the Governor late in the afternoon:

"Whereas, some question has arisen as to the constitutionality of Section 32 of Senate Bill No. 656—relating to the expenditure of the fund thereby created, upon county highways, and

"Whereas, if such section be unconstitutional, the act will bear inequitably and unjustly upon the various counties of the State and result in collecting a large sum which could not be justly or equitably expended.

"Now therefore be it resolved, that Gov. Johnson be requested to not approve such bill, unless in his opinion and in the opinion of the Attorney-General said section of said act is constitutional."

The resolution is signed by President Pridham of the new organization and received the indorsement of the Chamber of Commerce and the Automobile Club of Southern California before it was sent.

PRESENTS EXHIBITS QUESTION.

At the afternoon session H. Z. Osborne, who was present as a representative of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, brought up the question of formulating plans for making exhibits at the coming Panama Expositions in San Diego and San Francisco. It was decided that a committee shall be formed, one member to be appointed by the chairman of each Board of Supervisors. The appointments are to be made before next Monday and a meeting will be held in Los Angeles in the near future.

Louis W. Buckley of Omaha appeared before the meeting in the afternoon and spoke briefly, urging the supervisors to make extensive exhibits at the Omaha Land Show, which is to be held in that city next fall.

There were more than seventy-five delegates at the meeting. At noon they were the guests of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce at a dinner given at the Alexandria hotel. Various matters of importance to Southern California were discussed. Frank Wiggins, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, outlined the work of the Southern California Fair Commission and made suggestions in connection with the exhibits to be made at San Diego and San Francisco in 19 5. Newton W. Thompson, President Slauson of the Chamber of Commerce, Assemblyman Cogswell and State Senator Gates spoke upon the subject of good roads.

STREET SEMAPHORE.

Sergt. Butler of the traffic squad yesterday examined a model of a traffic sign, which the police department has been asked by the manufacturers to try in connection with their work of controlling the traffic in the congested district. The apparatus consists of a metal staff to which are attached two signs, one bearing the word "Stop" and the other "Go ahead." A lever works the signs so that when the "Stop" signs faces in one direction the Money Behind It.

FINE TOURIST HOTEL FOR BEVERLY HILL

PLANS are rapidly developing for the construction of a magnificent tourist hotel at Beverly Hills by a number of wealthy Los Angeles and San Francisco business men.

It is understood that within thirty days the project will be announced in detail and building begun. With the ten acres of beautiful ground and the many improvements to be installed the investment will approximate $1,000,000.

Back of the enterprise are H. E. Huntington, W. G. Kerckhoff, Gen. M. H. Sherman, W. F. Herrin and others, all officials of the Rodeo Land and Water Company, which corporation will handle the transaction.

Since the platting of the beautiful tract known as Beverly Hills, about four years ago, it has been the ultimate object of the handlers of the tract to interest capital for the construction of a hotel which would compare favorably with any tourist hotel in Southern California. The site is ideal, on sloping ground running back to the Santa Monica Mountains, and overlooking the Pacific Ocean, which is but a few miles away. It covers a little more than ten acres, and adjoins the fine newly-constructed home of the Los Angeles Country Club.

One of the best known hotel managers of Southern California, who has successfully operated a large tourist hotel for years, has already been selected as manager of the new property.

As outlined at present the new hotel will follow the mission style of architecture, will have about 300 rooms, and be furnished in the very latest manner. It is also planned to build a dozen beautiful bungalows, clustered near the hotel, to afford tourists the privacy so greatly desired, and also furnish every detail of service for which larger hotels are famous.

It is pointed out that on the Angeles Pacific lines the site for new hotel will be nearer Los Ang by the cut-off to Beverly than n of the present tourist hotels in H wood and Pasadena. It will also the advantage of being in close t with the beaches, making it a d able place for the summer as wel the winter business.

Percy H. Clark of the Rodeo L and Water Company, who has act promoted the hotel, stated yeste that he hopes to have all plans pleted within thirty days, and ev thing ready for actual constructio

"We hope to have the hotel pleted in time for the tourist bus of next year," said Clark, "and it be necessary to begin as soon as sible on the construction work. I tell little definitely about the plans cept to say that the hotel will fo the mission style and that we will deavor to make it equal to any to hotel in California. We will imp the ten acres of ground in a beau manner, and will not spare expens bring out the best features of ev thing about the hotel. I think we construct a number of bungalows as these seem to be favored gr by wealthy persons who regu spend the winter in Southern Cal nia. We would have gone ahead the hotel before this only we were sirous of securing the proper ma handle it. We think that we done so. At present I am not liberty to give his name.

She Kicks Back.

SAYS HE KICKED HER OUT OF BED.

MILLIONAIRE'S WIFE SUES FOR DIVORCE AND GETS IT.

After Eighteen Years of Wedded Life, Angeleno Spouse of Wealthy St. Louis Business Man Secures Decree on Cruelty Grounds Backed Up by Remarkable Testimony.

Because, she said, her husband kicked her out of bed, smashed windows and furniture in towering fits of rage and otherwise cruelly abused her and her children, Mrs. Charles O. McCasland, wife of one of the richest and most prominent business men of St. Louis, was granted a decree of divorce here yesterday.

Mrs. McCasland is an Angeleno, having lived here for some years prior to her marriage to the St. Louis millionaire nineteen years ago. Nearly all of the period between that time and that of her separation from him, a year since, she avers was made torture for her by the cruelties of her husband. She related that he once took a railroad ticket away from her in Denver and forced her to borrow money to get home. On another occasion she said he became enraged when she asked him to secure another pillow from a sleeping-car porter when she was ill, and stormed about until she was obliged to finish the trip alone, in another car. The breaking of the glass in the door of the family bathroom because their daughter had gone late to bed she cited as an additional bit of eccentricity showed by the husband.

Judge Conrey awarded the custody of the children, a son of 5 years, and a daughter of 18, to the mother. A property settlement has been made between the parties to the action, the testimony showed, and it is understood that after Mrs. McCasland pays the fixed charges on what was set apart for her, she will have an income of $300 a month for the support of herself and her children.

McCasland's attorneys did not appear at the hearing.

FEGGETTE DIDN'T FORGET.

Just Didn't Have the Heart to Tell Landlady of No Funds So He Left to Keep From Owing More.

Whether it was doing his landlady an injustice or a favor to leave her when he found he would be unable to pay his room rent is the knotty point Police Judge Chambers will have to decide when E. G. Feggette, charged with having defrauded an innkeeper, comes up for trial. He entered his plea yesterday, asked for trial and was given until the 14th inst.

"No I didn't pay her," Feggette said. "I couldn't. When I saw I wouldn't have the money I just left so that she wouldn't have such a big bill to lose."

Justice Chambers thought it over a minute or two and then said he would take up the matter when he had more time.

"When it is other music it not really music, but merely a jumbl mass of airs played with vim a spirit.

"On the other hand, the gene musical conditions in America far s pass my expectations. There is a gre deal of the better class of compositi in vogue and the large cities have e ponents of the art who cannot be su passed even in Germany. Your sym phony orchestras, brass bands and individual concertists are, as a ru surprisingly good."

At this period Baron Hase eulogiz the conditions in Los Angeles. "I w an interested listener to the rehears of the Los Angeles Symphony Orche tra under Harley Hamilton sever evenings ago, and there is remarkab talent shown by the people who com prise the organization. The wo performed was almost up to that the famous Philadelphia, Boston New York symphony orchestras. On of the reasons I would say for the pr ficiency of local talent is that it is con centrated in one place. It is not scat tered out as is the case through th East where the large cities are clos together. Here the artists have n field, save the one city, without travel ing hundreds of miles, and that is th chief reason why music in Los Ange les is so far advanced.

From here Dr. von Hase will go t Yosemite Valley and then to San Francisco and other Coast cities pre vious to his return to Europe in orde that he may gain a complete knowl edge of not only one part of the mus ical tastes of the people of this coun try, but of the ideals of all of the na tion.

BROADWAY TO BE TORN UP.

The next thoroughfare to be torn up the city, is Broadway, the Los An-les Railway Corporation having no-fied the Board of Public Works that is proposed to reconstruct its cks on Broadway, from First to leventh, and on First, from Broadway Main.

The time fixed yesterday, on recom-endation of the City Engineer, in ac-rdance with powers conferred by or-nance, was thirty days for com-leting the work on First street, from he time the street is first dug up. n Broadway, the company is allowed enty days for each track on each block, timed from the time the street s first dug up, or 120 days for the en-ire length of the street, it being fig-red that work will proceed on more han one block at a time.

WANTS HIS GROUND BACK.

The Title Insurance and Trust Com-any has renewed its effort to get back from the city the five feet of round in front of the old Evening Express building on Fifth street, deed-d to the city some years ago for the widening of the street, to make it he same width on Spring street as on Broadway. The matter was referred to the City Engineer and the Board of Public Works concurred in his recom-mendation that no action be taken, and if the company is not satisfied with the city's possession of the property, it may take the matter into the court to clear title. It is further recommend-ed that an effort be made to secure the other short strip reaching out to Spring street, and then make the street of uniform width. This no doubt will be done as soon as an effort is made to erect new buildings on the corner of Fifth and Spring streets, the prop-erty now being occupied by old and inferior structures.

DECLARES WIFE SLAYER INSANE.

SPECIAL JURY ENDS MURDER CASE ABRUPTLY.

Convinced of Prisoner's Mental Irresponsibility, Superior Judge Halts Luitweiler Trial in Midst of Hearing and New Venire Called. Will Go to Patton.

The end came suddenly in the George C. Luitweiler murder case yesterday.

Instead of being tried by a jury of his peers on the question of his guilt for the murder of his wife, the young man was adjudged insane by a special venire of twelve men and ordered sent to Patton by Judge Willis. He will be taken there this morning.

For some time it has become apparent that the contention of the defense that Luitweiler was not only insane at the time of the commission of the murder but has been so since, was amply proven. The disinterested and utterly oblivious way in which he sat through a trial that meant so much for him convinced the court that he should be tried on the question of sanity rather than guilt.

After the most of the day had been spent marshaling the testimony for the defense and the experts summoned in his behalf had given their evidence, Judge Willis announced that in his opinion such action should be taken and that the trial of Luitweiler on the charge of murder should be arrested at that point.

Earl Rogers, of counsel for the defense, agreed with the court, further declaring that in his opinion if Luitweiler was acquitted and released from custody that he would either kill himself or some one else within two hours. He refused to be responsible for the boy, if acquitted. The jury that had been considering the evidence was accordingly dismissed until this morning and an extra panel at once summoned from among the bystanders.

Less than an hour was consumed in the subsequent proceedings. Dr. Warren M. Hutton repeated his testimony as to his view expressed in former evidence that Luitweiler was insane. It was stipulated by both sides that the evidence of Dr. Ross Moore, another alienist, would be identical with that offered previously. H. L. Miller, a brother-in-law of Luitweiler, and several other relatives and friends testified to the same effect. The jury returned to court within ten minutes after the charge, with a verdict that the wife slayer was insane.

The decision was received without a shadow of an emotion on the part of Luitweiler. He looked blankly at the ceiling and those about him, without a sign of care or concern at the outcome of the hearing. His old mother and friends of the family received the end of the case with patient resignation.

Luitweiler is suffering from tuberculosis, and it is hoped by his friends that, if given outdoor work, his life may be spared for some time yet. But the death seal of the white plague is upon him.

LEGALITY AFFIRMED.

OF INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT.

In the application of W. F. Montgomery and J. F. Mullin for a writ of habeas corpus, Judge Willis yesterday denied the writ and remanded the defendants. In making this decision the court affirmed the legality and constitutionality of the city ordinance setting apart a certain section of the municipality to be known as the industrial section.

The defendants, a well-known lumber firm, had maintained a lumber yard at No. 132 Avenue Sixty-one, which is a part of the residence district of Los Angeles. They were arrested and found guilty in a Police Court and the writ was to secure their release and test the ordinance in question.

It was alleged on the part of the defendants that the ordinance discriminated against them in the maintenance of a lumber yard, while it permitted other business and occupation of like character to be carried on within what is known as the residence district. The ordinance was declared to be unreasonable, the direct issue being whether a municipal ordinance limiting the territory within its boundaries, in which certain business may be conducted, is an infringement of the constitutional rights of the individual affected by it.

The court held that the ordinance in question was designed to establish specific districts for the regulation of certain kinds of business, and that no hard and fast rule could be laid down; that will determine the exercise of the power conferred upon cities to enact these police power regulations in consonance with the ever-changing social and business conditions incident to their rapid growth. Such rules would produce stagnation. Lumber is an exceedingly inflammable material, the court held, and was peculiarly of a character to need such regulation in the place of its sale, as indicated by the ordinance in question.

The court further declared "that the enforcement of the ordinance shall work hardship on the individual is lost sight of in the protection of the many individuals and is one of the incidents of a city's growth and progress. It will be observed that the ordinance in no manner prohibits the establishment or conduct of the enumerated lines of business. It merely restricts the territory in which they may be conducted. Regulation without the power to restrict location would be a farce. Under such a rule there would be nothing to prevent the establishment and conduct of such lines of business in any locality in which room could be procured, no matter how destructive to values or rights of large areas of property, or how dangerous to large numbers of otherwise helpless citizens."

NEW TRIAL GRANTED.

HELD UP BY GARTER.

Judge Willis yesterday granted a new trial to L. F. Pitcher and Will S. White, convicted in Justice Chambers's court of conspiring to defraud Harry C. McKim out of $500 by the alleged sale of a patent right covering an improved garter. Otto Werner, jointly charged with Pitcher and Chambers, and his companions sentenced to six months in the County Jail. It was from this decision that the pair appealed and they were successful in that they were remanded for another hearing of the charge in the court below.

C. F. Simpson, charged with disturbing the peace in Long Beach, sought his freedom under a writ of habeas corpus, and the prayer was granted, and the prisoner discharged.

UP FOR LUNACY.

LIVED LONG ON MILK.

J. H. Todd was before the lunacy commission yesterday and after an examination was sent to one of the city sanatoriums, where he will be cared for. A friend testified in Todd's behalf that he had lived on milk for the past eight years. One of his illusions is that he is the inventor of an elixir of life that is warranted to cure all of the ills that flesh is heir to.

This idea is not a new one with insane folk, but in this instance J. N. Mershbarger, who said he was a Minnesota farmer, declared that he had been treated and cured of a long-standing ailment by the medicine that Todd had prepared, and he felt so grateful to the unfortunate man that he oered to pay for the care of Todd. He will be allowed to do so.

HERE IS ANOTHER.

A MUCH-SUED COMPANY.

The Domestic Utilities Manufacturing Company, which has been made defendant in several complaints alleging fraud recently, was sued again yesterday. This time the plaintiffs are W. G. Record, Minnie Record and P. B. Record, who ask that certain notes given by them in consideration of what is known as an "agent's contract" for the sale of a patent vacuum clothes washer, be canceled, and that a mortgage given to secure the payment of a note for $1067 be declared null and void.

The complaint is along lines similar to accusations made against the company in various other suits. The Records gave the company no money, but the consideration was expressed in notes, one for $1067 to the Domestic Utilities concern and another for $3333 to A. Booher, who is made one of the parties defendant in the action.

Accusations of fraud and misrepresentations on the part of the defendants are set out and the victims want the notes and mortgage wiped out. The evidences of indebtedness were executed May 4, 1910.

SUMNER SHUT OUT.

IN PHONE STOCK SUIT.

In the action brought by Charles Sumner to recover from William Mead and his associates $750,000 wurth of stock of the Northwestern Long Distance Telephone Company, Judge Monroe yesterday made an order allowing Attorneys Kemp and Park $5000 attorney fees, and insisted that not one dollar of these fees should go to Sumner. It was shown that Kemp and Sumner had a contract on a contingent basis in regard to the division of the fees, but Kemp stated in court that Sumner was not to get a cent of the allowance made by the court. The judgment of the court therefore was for $5000 attorney fees against the Northwestern Long Distance Company and the case was abated against the other defendants.

It will be remembered that, subsequent to the beginning of the case for the restoration of the bonds in question, they were returned to the treasury. Judge Monroe said: "I have very strong opinions on the matters involved in this case both ways. I think there is altogetner too much juggling of corporation stock. It is only the fact that the bonds have been returned to the treasury of the company that has prevented a heavy judgment in this case."

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

SUIT ON CONTRACT. Herbert S. Heineman of Pasadena brought an action yesterday in the Superior Court against Morris Bros., formerly located at No. 572 Broadway, New York, but now residents of Los Angeles. It appears from the complaint that on July 1, 1907, plaintiff gave the defendants exclusive use of a metal reinforcing suspender end and it is charged that they have neglected and refused to carry out the agreement. Damages in $25,000 or asked.

Hedrick, L. A. Whyte and A. M. Scott, subscribed, $7.

ARGUE ON A TECHNICALITY.

Attorneys in the Trial of the Santa Fe on a Rebating Charge Introduce no Testimony.

No testimony was introduced yesterday in the trial of the South Pacific Coast Railway Company, the Santa Fe and the Grand Canyon Lime and Cement Company, the attorneys having contented themselves with arguing over a technicality.

The company was indicted on charges of having given rebates after it had received $70 per carload for transporting lime from Neisot, Ariz. When the government endeavored to introduce tariff sheets to show that the company had a fixed price for transportation, Chief Counsel Norton of the Santa Fe objected on the ground that the documents only gave the price per ton, and did not refer to carload tariffs.

The outcome of the case may hinge on this single point. If Judge Wellborn rules out the tariff sheets, then the government's case will practically fall flat, as it will be left without a means of connecting up its proof.

The magistrate will probably rule upon the question at the opening of court this morning. He stated before the close of yesterday's session that he desired to look over some authorities before he gave his decision.

The Inferior Courts.

WHAT, THEN, WILL BEFALL HASH?

SAUSAGES MUST BE LABELED "MEAT AND FLOUR."

"Etc." Has Met Its Waterloo and Dealer Who Didn't Write Pedigree of Frankfurter Is Fined; Pure Food Inspector Brings Many Into Court.

"If I make a sandwich do I have to stick a label saying meat, butter, bread and mustard on it?" asked Carl Graf, of Heck & Graf, sausage makers, No. 259 South Main street, yesterday when he appeared in Police Court in answer to the charges of Frank Oakley, pure food inspector, who arrested him for not having labeled properly the sausage made in the factory. Police Judge Fredericksson cheerfully admitted that perhaps that would come to pass some day.

The State law requires that food products advertised to be made out of some one ingredient must contain the names of anything else that is put into it. Sausage, according to Oakley, comes under the law, and as it contains a certaina mount of flour, he declared that fact must be stated in the label.

"Every sausage maker knows that just meat won't make a good sausage," Graf declared. "I don't see how I have cheapened my sausages by putting in enough flour to make them real sausages." But Oakley read the law from his ever-ready book and Judge Fredericksson fixed the fine at $25, which Graf paid.

Other grocers and druggists appeared in answer to other charges of mislabeling.

W. P. Fussell, a grocer at No. 528 West Third street, is charged with violating the "maple-syrup act." He paid a fine of $25.

R. T. Ramage, a druggist at No. 3836 Pasadena avenue, is charged with not labeling properly medicine containing opium and alcohol. He will be heard later in the month.

Frank Chambers of the Chambers Drug Company, No. 500 South Main street, charged similarly, paid a fine of $25.

I. Ishimitsu, a Japanese restaurant-keeper, paid a fine of $25 for misabeling a "yellow food powder" used in preparing Japanese dishes. The powder was artificially colored.

H. B. Massey, a grocer at No. 5271 Central avenue, is charged with having misbranded eggs. He will fight the case and will be given a jury trial May 5.

WITNESSES ABSENT.

TURKEYS LOSE CASE.

How to kill turkeys was not decided in Police Court yesterday, despite the fact that more than a dozen large volumes on the raising and care of fowls and their ultimate meeting with the reaper were submitted in evidence. Eugene Phipps and C. T. Wells, charged with having picked turkeys while the fowls were alive, were released. Superintendent Zimmer of the S.P.C.A. and Officer Fowler appeared against them.

After several witnesses had been called the trial resolved itself into the problem of when a turkey is dead.

It was shown that the turkeys had been cut on the head with a killing knife, but that they were still "flopping" when stripped of their feathers.

Attempts were made to introduce treatises on the art of killing turkeys into evidence, but Police Judge Rose declared that the only evidence that he would accept as authentic would be from turkeys themselves, and as there was none in court, he would dismiss the cases.

Their Speed Expensive.

G. G. Damon and Alex Culver contributed $75 to the City Treasury yesterday when they appeared in Police Court in answer to a charge of having exceeded the speed limit. Damon admitted having driven his machine twenty-nine miles an hour on Sunset boulevard, and was asked to pay $50. Culver did not exceed twenty-five miles an hour, and he was let off with the customary fine of $25.

CONCLAVE OF THE P.E.O.

California Chapters of That Doing-Good Organization Gathered Here. Banquet for Visitors Tonight.

California chapters of the P.E.O. held the opening session of their annual convention in this city yesterday afternoon, and will adjourn tomorrow afternoon. All sessions are held in the Masonic Hall at Highland Park, Pasadena avenue and Avenue Fifty-seven. Lunch is served in the building at noon by the ladies of Chapter I. of Highland Park.

Thirty-one chapters are represented and eight of these are local. Mrs. Winona E. Reeves, the supreme president of the order, is here from Keokuk, to attend.

What the initials P.E.O. stand for no one outside of the order has ever known. It is perhaps the only secret order in the world the name of which is never divulged. The purposes of the order can readily be surmised because they are revealed by the deeds of its members. The first chapter was organized as a fraternity among college women in Iowa, in 1868. Mrs. A. J. Grigg of Los Angeles was a member of that chapter, although not a charter member, and she was once supreme president of the organization.

With chapters all over the United States, the organization has accumulated a considerable fortune, and this large fund is used as loans to young women who desire an education, and whose circumstances prevent them from getting it. A woman may borrow money from this order without interest and without other security than her own honor when recommended by a chapter of the P.E.O. She herself, need not be a member. A woman does not have to be a college woman to be initiated. Local chapters have identified themselves with various phases of charitable work. They limit themselves, however, to some single worthy object. For instance, one of the local chapters offers whatever aid it can to the King's Daughters in this city.

A banquet will be tendered visiting delegates at the Mt. Washington Hotel tonight at 8 o'clock.

CHICKENS COME HOME TO ROOST?

ALLEGED AFFINITY TELLS ON HIM TO MOTHER-IN-LAW.

Philadelphia Woman, Seemingly Feeling Slighted, Writes All About It to Mother of Pasadena Wife and Interlocutory Decree of Divorce Is Judical Result.

A Philadelphia damsel, asserted to be a slighted affinity, and his own mother-in-law combined to make things decidedly embarrassing for a Pasadena husband in Judge Conrey's court yesterday. As a result of their allied forces, Mrs. Mary H. Smith of the Crown City was granted a divorce from him, on the ground of desertion and extreme cruelty.

Exhibit A for the plaintiff was a letter written from the Philadelphia person to the mother-in-law, setting forth the relations alleged to have existed between Smith and herself in days gone by. The testimony brought out that the epistle was the child of pique —a perfectly feminine effort to get even on the score of alleged neglect. The mother-in-law, a Mrs. Hutton, appears to have been a prime mover in instituting the action, resulting in an interlocutory decree.

Smith was in the insurance business, but his wife testified that he took a flier now and then in the Philadelphia stock market. Once he got away with $40,000 she had entrusted to him, she declared, and other property of hers had been lost by bad turns in the market.

Smith took his wife to Atlantic City upon one occasion, and there she claims to have learned of his relations with other women and, as a result, left him. He acknowledged, she testified, that he had had various affairs with other women, extending over the three years prior to their separation. To back up this statement the depositions of two Philadelphia detectives were submitted, showing what they claimed to have learned about Smith's conduct with women of like reputation.

Mrs. Smith and her mother came to Pasadena several years ago. There is one child, a little daughter, of whom Mrs. Smith is given the custody.

THEY'RE ON THE WARPATH.

Citizens of Southern Part of Los Angeles Call Three Mass Meetings to Discuss Utilities Commission.

The people ought to know and the people are going to be told whose fault it is that the Public Utilities Commission could not give the south and southwestern parts of the city an immediate answer to their petition for a through car line from east to west on Vernon avenue.

That is the decision reached last night by forty representative citizens from the southern end of the city, and they determined to call three mass-meetings in as many weeks to bring out the subject.

These men stated in their conference last night that Meyer Lissner is the cause of all their troubles, and that they are going after him. Their first mass-meeting to exploit Lissner's attitude on the proposition will be held at Akey's Hall, Central and Vernon avenues, Saturday night. Another will be held a week from that date on Moneta avenue and still another two weeks from that time on Vermont avenue.

Those interested in this question will have an opportunity of hearing exactly what Lissner did not do and why. The quarrel of the people there with Lissner is that he has delayed an answer to their petition for two months, while he can take a vacation, when the petition could have been acted upon any time in the last month. Most of them have their own opinion as to why he makes delay and some of them do not hesitate to express it.

These Saturday-night meetings are expected to be lively. One of the members stated last night that no political machine is strong enough to give Los Angeles a one-man rule, whether that man be right or wrong.

Rumor That Rothschilds Will Buy the Control.

General News of Interest From Oil Fields.

[Special Correspondence of The Times.]

BAKERSFIELD, April 5.—"The Associated has a million dollars on deposit drawing interest at 2 1-2 and 2 per cent. If some outside concern buys the Southern Pacific stock, the company will begin to pay dividends," is the statement of a man who has avenues of information reaching close to the Associated management. This same man said that he had reason to believe that a sale of the Southern Pacific stock is pending and that he was inclined to believe that the report that the Rothschilds were the purchasers is correct.

"We all know," he said, "that the Southern Pacific must sell its Associated stock or be prosecuted for violation of the Federal anti-trust laws. The Department of Justice has been after the railroads in the East that operate coal mines, and the only way in which the Southern Pacific has been able to hold onto the Associated stock so long is by making the plea that to force it to sell would be equivalent to confiscating its property.

"And the Standard cannot buy from the Southern Pacific for the same reason. Yes, the directors of the Standard could buy the Associated stock individually, but I do not believe they have done so. I think it is the Rothschilds who have bought the stock. The sale, in any event, will be the best thing that could happen for the outside stockholders. I can't explain to you why the present management does not declare dividends, but you can figure that out for yourself."

At the meeting of the stockholders yesterday only routine busines was transacted, and the Southern Pacific voted the majority of the stock, as heretofore. There was so little interest in the proceedings that one of the large minority stockholders who was formerly a director, did not sit out the meeting. "What was the use," he said, "of staying to see the Southern Pacific vote its men in when we knew beforehand just what was going to happen?"

There was but one change in the directorate, Guy V. Shoup took the place of Paul Shoup. The directors as they now stand are as follows:

W. F. Herrin, president; W. S. Porter, first vice-president and general manager; O. Scribner, vice-president and assistant manager; Frank Buck, Burton E. Green, Rudolph Herold, Jr., Guy V. Shoup; E. T. Dumble, Joseph A. Chanslor and R. P. Schwerin.

Miss Grace Sheridan was elected secretary and W. A. Sloan was chosen for treasurer. J. L. Bruce of Oil Center is assistant secretary, and a New York man was elected to the office of vice-president for the purpose of signing stock certificates for transfer.

SCARAB STRIKES OIL.

THE MOORPARK DISTRICT.

[Special Correspondence of The Times.]

OXNARD, April 4.—The Scarab Oil Company, operating near Moorpark, has struck oil in its second well at a depth of 1700 feet. The well has been drilled in three months by a rotary rig. It is now on a standard and it is expected to bring in a well near the 2000-foot level. The first well of the company pumped 300 barrels when brought in last fall at a depth of 2800 feet. Since that time a fault in the formation has pinched the well off 300 feet from the bottom and it is pumping but 120 barrels.

The Scarab property joins the Union company, which owns the oil rights on 16,000 acres of promising oil lands, proven by the Scarab wells, as the latter is but a short distance from the Union's line. The Charles McCoy and Frank Runkle ranches have been leased by eastern capitalists, who propose to drill for oil in the near future. Some of the early shallow wells of this district showed an oil of 33 gravity.

Interested in Guaranty.

Charles W. Brooks, one of the prominent oil operators of Texas, has been making a tour of the oil fields and returned to the city yesterday. He met several old friends there, among them Cyrus Bell, superintendent of the Standard Oil Company. Brooks was much impressed by the magnitude of the San Joaquin fields and the outlook for their future. He will become largely interested there in connection with the enterprises of the Guaranty Oil Company.

Maricopa Queen's Record.

The Maricopa Queen Oil Company, owned by Long Beach people, has had wonderful luck. On April 3 the company brought in its second gusher since last Christmas, and spudded in No. 3 well the same day. The company's production goes to the Standard, which is getting the entire output of the two wells. It is considered one of the best records ever made in California.

News Notes and Personals.

The Midway Premier Oil Company has elected the following officers: President, A. J. Snyder; vice-president, P. C. Black; secretary, Harry Thomas; other directors, R. G. Smith, R. J. Montgomery. Since the big well came in on November 12 the company has delivered 164,000 barrels of oil to the Standard.

The Lakeview gusher, 1 year old on March 15, last, is still belching forth about 5000 barrels of oil and water daily. Over 50 per cent. of the mixture is water and it has no commercial value.

The Midway Driller makes the absolute statement that the Associated is getting fifty barrels of oil a day from its well on section 26 in the Elk Hills.

Superintendent William McKnight has decided to redrill the once-famous Mohawk gusher in the Coalinga field. The well has only been pumping about 150 barrels a day lately.

H. Hall, manager of the Visalia Midway Oil Company, now that the Legislature is over, will devote his energies to the development of the oil property in the Midway field.

Capt. J. F. Lucy and N. G. Gulbertson, manager of the Coalinga branch of the Lucey oil well supply house, have gone to New York on business connected with a big contract and will be away some time.

SOCIALIST GAINS.

Red spots on the map are fresh and numerous after the elections of the week. They now appear at Berkeley, Butte and other places and distract from the solitary loneliness of Milwaukee, which has been the big red splotch on the map for two years. Even there is a socialistic tint in the election result at Pasadena, our city of the millionaires, where red at least has been out of mind in the past.

Likewise we have hybrid colors from Milwaukee's near neighbor Chicago, which has given a Carter Harrison office for the tenth time, and from our own near neighbor, San Diego, which has taken a rather murky hue because of the extinction of the original Link-Rooster administration.

Whether some cities are coming back while others are going back, or what not, is not so plain as the fact that the tendency of insurgency, in whatever party it grows, is to promote socialism.

In Berkeley the socialist Mayor won not so much because the socialist-insurgent vote was for him, as because T. R. sent word that Hodghead, anti-socialist, should be elected. Butte became socialistic in its municipal officers not because the majority of voters are socialists, but because the Democrats in control insisted in supporting a corrupt ticket, and the socialist nominees offered something different at least.

In Chicago the magic name of Carter Harrison won the day with the added strength of socialists and laborite malcontents, the Lorimer rump party and the Hearst Ragged Reubens. There seem to be about 100,000 voters in Chicago, most of whom read little English, who still believe they are voting for the first Carter Harrison, long dead.

San Diego passed up Mayor Grant Conard and the Sehon machine and in doing so perhaps started a State revolt against Link-Rooster Lissner-Johnson bossism, for Conard was the first candidate elected on the L-R platform. He has posed as the Alpha of the "progressives." He may be the Alpha of their retrogression.

Pasadena chose Thum Mayor and was aided in so doing by the votes of a large socialist element because Thum stands for paternalism and things that are basically a part of the socialistic propaganda. But the result is not enough to incarnadine the Crown City, quite.

Milwaukee, the big red splotch, is to have an election soon for a part of its municipal staff of officers, and the result will show whether socialism, as established in the city of beer, can come back. The distress of the city and the paralysis of business and the army of unemployed (estimated at 22,000) have been so oppressive that the voters may welcome a chance to repudiate the government of Seidel and Berger and their red followers.

This is not the first time that red spots have shown on the map. Fifteen years ago the Social Democrats, class-conscious socialists under an illusive name (probably better suited to the present time in many parts,) carried half a dozen cities of Massachusetts and Connecticut and elected several members of the Legislatures of both States. It was hailed as the advent of a socialist achievement of national importance, but it failed and is now obliterated.

The elections are testimony to the neurotic politics of the time when the shibboleth of every trimmer and demagogue is to preach giving government back to the people. This fatuous slogan is fomenting political discontent and promoting fad chasing. It is superimposing on our solid and safe representative form of government an ornamentation of deceptive theoretical progress. That insurgency, as it calls itself, is advantageous to the socialists is shown by their prompt co-operation with the demagogues who preach insurgency. Anything that is politically iconoclastic or disturbing is meat for the socialist workers and they have become just strong enough to give color of socialist success in many local elections.

Los Angeles ought to consider the cost of breaking from established forms and seeking pure democracy. It has broken far away already under the leadership of Lissner and his satellites. The ultimate result of their extravagances may mean a socialist city government here such as is now oppressing Milwaukee, where even the socialists themselves, voting for a panacea for all municipal ills, find themselves in a commercial and industrial paralysis that socialism cannot cure.

While we have these new red spots, there is little reason to believe that Los Angeles will furnish another. But any patriotic citizen should pause and think where all this "reform run mad" is leading before he makes up his mind to follow the Lissner "pure Democrats," their fantastic devices of new government (changed every month) and their socialistic schemes for wholesale municipal ownership.

DEMOCRATIC TACTICS.

The Democratic members of the House of Representatives have threatened to hold up reciprocity with Canada, which they really favor, and which President Taft, with their help and with the aid of a moiety of Republican votes, can probably secure, unless they can couple support of the Canadian treaty with tariff revision in the interest of a tariff for revenue only, which some Democrats desire and which other Democrats are not yearning for, and which insurgents want and regular Republicans do not want. The result of the Democratic attitude is "a state of things." Our friends the enemy propose to legislate on an "ant Caesar aut nullus" basis. They say with Byron—

"Now, by my hopes of Heaven I'll be
All, all, or nothing unto thee."

If they cannot have both reciprocity and a tariff for revenue only, then they will risk having neither. If they cannot be "the boatswain and the midshipmite and the crew of the captain's gig," then they won't allow the boat to be launched at all. They have control of only one house, it is true, but, swollen with arrogance and inexperienced in the handling of power, they demand to boss the Senate and give orders to the White House and pass all the laws they want and repeal all the laws they don't want.

Reciprocity alone they might obtain from the Senate, for it is favored at the White House. But a tariff for revenue only the Senate will never agree to, as that body is changed under four years, and in the meantime the voters of the country will probably come to their sober second thought and refuse to abandon the protective system under which the country has exceedingly prospered and in its place adopt the revenue tariff doctrine which, in 1893, silenced the hum of factories and extinguished the flame of furnaces and caused the red flag of the auctioneer to flutter from the windows of homes and filled the highways with tramps and made women and children to cry with hunger and caused bankruptcy to perch like a bird of night upon the ledgers of the merchants. To quote the homely couplet of the intelligent Democrats who joined the Republicans in 1896 in restoring protection by electing McKinley and a Republican Congress—

"A revenue tariff is like Scotch snuff
One pinch and you've got enough."

The Times indulges the hope that the Democrats will stick to their avowed determination to accept nothing unless they can get everything, for they surely cannot get everything. With all due respect to President Taft, The Times has just sufficient insurgency in its otherwise tranquil and conservative veins to hope that reciprocity won't miss any harm that is coming to it. If it is granted to Canada it cannot consistently be denied to Mexico when civil government and peace shall be restored to our sister republic, and reciprocity with Mexico might spell ruin to the citrus industry of California, without the least corresponding benefit in any particular. A tariff for revenue only would reduce the wages of the workers on the sheep ranges and restore the conditions which prevailed in 1893, when the sheep owners could not borrow enough money from the banks on their wool to pay the cost of clipping it and storing it.

"Let well enough alone" is a good maxim in business, in morals and in politics, and Democratic eagerness to undo everything that Republicans have done, and to upset everything that Republicans have caused to stand erect, may result for good if it results in Democrats undoing nothing and upsetting nothing.

A DOUGHNUT EATING GIRAFFE.

A The people of Westport, Kan., have suffered from the escape of the animals from a traveling menagerie and circus. A giraffe, frantic with hunger, thrust his head into the second-story window of an apartment house and placed in process of deglutition a pan full of hot fried doughnuts. The crime brought its punishment, for the poor animal required the services of two of the circus attendants with hot blankets and buckets of castor oil all the next night. Two interesting lawsuits involving great constitutional questions have resulted. Under a Kansas law which prohibits the placing of food containing poisonous or deleterious substances where animals can find it the circus owner has sued the doughnut-maker for damages to the giraffe, and the doughnut owner has sued the circus owner for trespass quare clausum fregit for breaking into his house and seizing the fried doughnuts and making away with them. The giraffe was proceeding under the initiative and the doughnut owner under the referendum. As both of these legislative inventions are likely to be declared by the United States Supreme Court to be in violation of that section of the Constitution of the United States which guarantees to each State—even Kansas—a republican form of government, both actions may be thrown out of court. The circus man is said to be negotiating with Heney to take charge of his case, but, as Heney declines to accept the giraffe, two hyenas and an African jackass for a fee, it is doubtful if the courts of Kansas will resound to the music of his high-pitched yowls.

A DOUBLE MISSION.

A story of how a New York woman elevated her husband from a clerkship to a manufacturer rated at millions is another incident showing that a woman may take her part in life without becoming a suffragette. Woman has always had a twofold mission in her relation to man. She has inspired one type of man and protected the other. She has supplied the capable man with the right aspiration and has stood between the weak man and the doors of prison. Both of these services she manages to accomplish very well without mixing up in politics. So much has she to do in life in her to do these things better by the addition of another heavy burden which is not naturally hers.

UNCLE WALT.

The Poet Philosopher.

When I was young I used to go adown the long potato row, and whack the weeds out with a hoe. Or, early in the summer morn, with one old mule, morose, forlorn, I'd go to cultivate the corn. All through the summer day I toiled, my raiment reeking wet and soiled, and I was fried and baked and broiled. And when at night I sought my bed my feet were like two tons of lead, and till next morning I was dead. When to the country I repair, and see the wondrous changes there, I always go up in the air. For now the farmer surely feels like Cleopatra as he reels along on plows with painted wheels. He drives a large and handsome team; his implements are like a dream; spring seats are spiked to every beam. He blithely tills his fertile lands, and never soils his lily hands, nor in the mud and gumbo stands. His pants are creased and show no dirt; his feet are by the thorns unhurt; he often wears a parboiled shirt. And when he goes to town he makes the journey in a brace of shakes; his auto runs to beat the snakes. He has a gas plant of his own, a bathroom and a telephone, and often he has scads to loan. Thus are the old world's changes rung! It seems to me that I was stung long, long ago, when I was young!

He had been on a hunting expedition for several days in the backwoods, roughing it rather severely, and on taking a seat in a railway carriage returning homewards he looked as begrimed and weather-beaten a trapper as ever brought his skins into a settlement.

He happened to find a seat next to a young lady—evidently belonging to Boston—who, after taking stock of him for a few minutes, remarked:

"Don't you find an utterly passionful sympathy with nature's most incarnate aspirations among the sky-topping mountains and the dim aisles of the horizon-touching forests, my good man?"

"Oh, yes," replied the apparent backwoodsman, "and I am also frequently drawn into an exaltation of rapt soulfulness and beatific incandescent infinity of abstract continguity when my horse stumbles."

"Indeed!" said the young lady, much surprised, "I had no idea that the lower classes felt like that."—[Cleveland Leader.

Taft's Big Saving.

In view of the fact that before 1909-10 the national expenditure had been increasing from $30,000,000 to $40,000,000 annually, the retrenchment of the last two years represents an extraordinary amount of application, vigilance and persistency. President Taft has introduced a new spirit into administration, and the reforms instituted by his subordinates in the various departments have already begun to modernize the whole government service. The idea of obtaining greater efficiency at less cost has not proved to be an "iridescent dream." The President has shown how readily it lends itself to realization in practice.—[Philadelphia Ledger.

RECIPROCITY WITH CANADA.

BY WALTER J. BALLARD.

Reciprocity with Canada is wrong in principle and will, if accomplished, be injurious in fact. Wrong in principle because an invasion of the doctrine of full protection to home industries, to capital and to work and wages by which the yearly factory output of the United States has been built up from $1,836,000,000 in 1860 to $17,500,000,000 in 1910, an increase of almost $15,700,000,000 in fifty years. Wrong in principle also because the inevitable influx of Canadian farm products (and Canada is mainly an agricultural country) will reduce the prices of American farm products and thereby lessen the purchasing power of the American farmer, to the detriment of the American factory and of other lines of American business. Wrong also in principle and in immediate fact as well because it will open up to Canada our great market of 91,000,000 people in exchange for a market of only 7,500,000 people, practically only one-thirteenth the size of ours.

That reciprocity between Canada and the United States will be injurious in fact to this country is amply proven by past experience along that very line. During the fiscal years 1855 to 1866, inclusive, we had reciprocity with Canada. Its advocates led us to believe that under such a treaty our exports to Canada would materially and permanently increase, at least during the life of the treaty. Did they? The answer is furnished in the Bureau of Statistics record of such exports and of our imports from Canada for the purpose of comparison.

In 1854, without reciprocity:
Exports to Canada	$ 24,000,000
Imports from Canada	9,000,000
With reciprocity, 1855 to 1866, twelve years:
Imports from Canada	283,000,000
Balance for 12 years in our favor, only	$ 17,000,000

This $17,000,000, or less than $1,500,000 a year average, is all that we netted out of the twelve years' trade under reciprocity. The game was not worth the candle, particularly as it left us in 1866 where we were in 1854, twelve years before, with exports of only $24,000,000; while in the period our imports from Canada rose from $9,000,000 to $48,000,000, or more than five times as much. Which country gained by that twelve years of reciprocity, Canada or the United States? The answer is obvious and greatly to our loss. Our sales to Canada did not increase in 1866 over 1854, under reciprocity, by a single dollar, while Canada's sales to us in 1866 were $39,000,000 larger than in 1854. Do we want that experience again?

Then (1868) we dropped the reciprocity hot iron, but our fingers had been so badly burned by our people having gotten in the way of using certain lines of Canadian products that the aggregate commerce between Canada and ourselves during the next six years (1867 to 1872 inclusive) went against us to the tune of $30,000,000, an average loss of $5,000,000 a year:

Trade loss by us	$ 30,000,000

Thus in six years we lost our trifling $17,000,000 trade gain for twelve years reciprocity and paid $13,000,000 more for the "privilege" of losing it.

Beginning with 1873, fiscal year, without reciprocity, the tide turned in our favor and has run our way each year since, as witness the official figures:

1873-1904, imports from Canada	1,186,000,000
Balance in our favor, 31 years	$ 558,000,000

This is an average for thirty-one years of $18,000,000 a year in our favor, against an average yearly loss of $750,000 a year for the previous eighteen years, twelve of which were "reciprocity" years.

Now let us see how the cat has jumped in the six years, still without reciprocity, since 1904:

	Exports to Canada.	Imports from Canada.
1905	$ 140,529,581	$ 62,469,622
1906	156,736,285	68,237,653
1907	183,206,067	78,334,615
1908 (depression year)	167,035,947	75,131,686
1909	163,448,656	79,317,055
1910	215,990,021	95,128,310
Totals, six years	$1,026,946,557	$453,618,931
Balance in our favor, without reciprocity		573,327,626
Yearly average our favor, without reciprocity		95,554,604
Yearly average our favor, under reciprocity		1,500,000

Thus, without reciprocity, the gain in our favor each of this last six years, for instance, was $94,000,000 a year more than our paltry yearly in the twelve reciprocity years, 1855-1866.

With this showing of actual facts (not theories,) based upon costly actual experience, there is not a microscope in existence powerful enough to discern any trade advantage to us in the present proposed treaty, or agreement as it is called, of reciprocity with Canada, particularly as Canada will still handicap us, on the articles not listed to be "reciprocated," with her rebate to Great Britain for one-third of her import duties on such articles. From this natural and proper American viewpoint the present proposition is a jug-handled one in favor of Canada and will, if put through, work seriously to our loss.

Referring again to the handicap on our sales of the Canadian-British tariff preferential of one-third, it is recalled that in the Joint High Commission of 1898 the American commissioners, consisting in part of such statesmen as Vice-President Fairbanks, Nelson, Dingley, T. Jefferson, Coolidge and John A. Kasson demanded as a condition precedent of reciprocity the repeal of the British preferential, and when the demand was refused negotiations on reciprocity ceased. It has not yet appeared that any such reasonable demand has been made in the present negotiation. In fact, Mr. Fielding, one of the Canadian negotiators, states that the present proposition is substantially a revival of the treaty of 1854 (the one that cost us so much, as shown above)—the free exchange of natural products (Canadian cereals, for instance, for 91,000,000 Americans, against American cereals for 7,500,000 Canadians,) which has been Canada's proposition ever since that treaty was terminated by the United States, with a small concession on a very limited line of American manufactures, in which Canada does not fear competition.

The protectionist aptly says: "Reciprocity is like the outlawed system of rebates on railroads. It builds up one man's business at the expense of another's. It wipes out towns like a conflagration and builds up others in a foreign land. It takes employment from thousands of good citizens and gives it to strangers who contribute nothi...

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The most interesting event of the year at the Egan Dramatic School occurred on Tuesday evening, when three modern one-act plays were presented, with complete scenery and costume equipment, by the students, in the school's own theater at the top of the Hamburger Majestic theater building.

An audience of proportions limited only by available space in which seating facilities could be placed listened with evident interest to the conditions.

The plays were Sudermann's "The Last Visit," Jerome K. Jerome's fantastic "Sunset," and Sydney Grundy's "In Honor Bound."

The Sudermann effort, which was, of course, the heaviest of the evening, elicited the most effort on the part of the students, and, quite likely, attracted the most attention. A delegation of German lovers of their national drama was out in force to see the playlet represented, and several continental visitors as well, who happen to be staying at several of the local hotels. The cast included Miss Gladys Willet, as Daisy; Miss Emma O'Roark, as the unknown lady; Patsy Calhoun, as Lieut. Von Walters; O. B. Green, as Mulbridge, and Miss Veta van Houten, as the wife. The story, which concerns the sudden and tragic death of a young German lieutenant, who had been carelessly leading a double life, and the bitter meeting of the inevitable "two women" at his bier, is fairly well known to all perusers of German dramatic literature. The Egan rendition was remarkable for force without violence, pathos without bathos, and a quiet dramatic intensity, which it is quite unusual to observe in young players. The scenic effects and properties were complete and prepared especially for the occasion, as were the costumes of the ladies, quite correct as to design and locale, and representing a considerable financial outlay on their part.

Exactly in opposite vein were "Sunset" and "In Honor Bound."

In both these pieces lightness and delicacy, and surety of touch, were to be observed, and the young players secured real laughs from their comedy efforts, which are sometimes hard to find in the efforts of any but the chosen few among professionals.

In the Jerome playlet was Ruth Cartland, the young student whom John Cort has just engaged for Mrs. Carter's company next season. She gave a captivating impersonation of Lois, and the rest of the cast included Miss Ruth Vernon, as Joan; L. G. Doty, as Azariah Stodd; Miss Florence Deering, as Aunt Drusilla; Patsy Calhoun, as Mr. Rivers, and Carleton Wetherby, as Laurence Leigh.

"In Honor Bound" was cast as follows: Lady Carlyon, Mrs. H. W. Thomas; Rose Dalrymple, Corinne Mohrenstecher; Sir George Carlyon, Patsy Calhoun; Philip Graham, Carleton Wetherby.

Patsy Calhoun, who appeared in all three of the sketches, is one of the most promising young fellows Egan has brought forth. He seems to have the real "punch," genuine talent for character creating, and a whole lot of magnetism.

Mrs. Thomas, in the last playlet, was an exquisite picture.

B. A. Rolfe, premier cornet virtuoso, and his Rolfonians, a group of fine instrumental soloists, will be the feature act at the Orpheum the coming week. Mr. Rolfe has put out in his name a number of fine acts in the past, but this is the first time he has personally toured with one. In solo and concerted numbers, the act will be especially strong. Stuart Barnes, clever exponent of patter talk, will be on the new bill, as will be the Flying Banvards, a London Hippodrome importation in the way of athletes and aerialists. Jarrow, the foreign trickster, with his "lemon trick," will add a touch of humor.

"The Campus" continues to be popular to the extent of crowded audiences at every performance and the next Sunday afternoon will enter upon the fifteenth week of its run at the Grand Opera-house. Friday night Ferris Hartman and his company will give the one hundred and fiftieth performance.

With the fifteenth week, "The Campus" will have exceeded all previous stock company records by five weeks.

This week's attractions at the Los Angeles Theater form one of the best shows seen there, but the new bill, which will open next Monday afternoon, promises to be as good a programme.

Chris O. Brown, New York booking representative for the Sullivan & Considine Circuit, in a telegram to Manager Morley, is authority for the statement that the coming show is one of the best he has ever gotten together on the circuit, as well as one of the most expensive list of offerings.

Four of the acts on the new bill are well known to followers of vaudeville. Principal among these new acts will be Bobby Pandur and brother, Master David Schooler, Joe Whitehead and Flo Grierson, and Charles Murray and Rae Hamilton. The Pandurs, in feats of strength have given the title of "The Modern Hercules," have headlined many vaudeville bills, and are more or less well known locally. Master David Schooler re-

The scenic effects and properties were complete and prepared especially for the occasion, as were the costumes of the ladies, quite correct as to design and locale, and representing a considerable financial outlay on their part.

Exactly in opposite vein were "Sunset" and "In Honor Round."

In both these pieces lightness and accuracy, and surety of touch, were to be observed, and the young players secured real laughs from their comedy parts, which are sometimes hard to get in the efforts of any but the very few among professionals.

As the Jerome playlet was Ruth Holland, the young student whom Mr. Cort has just engaged for Mrs. Fiske's company next season. She was a captivating impersonation of Ann, and the rest of the cast included Miss Ruth Vernon, as Joan; L. G. "In Honor Bound" was cast as follows: Lady Carlyon, Mrs. H. W. Hamilton; Rose Dalrymple, Corinne Hamstecher; Sir George Carlyon, Patsy Calhoun; Philip Graham, Carleton Wetherby.

Master David Schooler recently created quite a sensation in eastern musical circles, where he was brought forth by Herr Conreid, late director of the Metropolitan Operahouse. He is a pianist.

Joe Whitehead and Flo Grierson, formerly the stars of "The Umpire" and "The Red Mill," will add much to the life and gaiety of the programme. They are well known by reason of their previous visits to this house. Charles Murray of the team of Murray & Mack, a great local favorite, will be seen in his new comedy sketch, "Jerry, the Janitor." Completing the new bill will be the Six Gypsy Singers, John Hamilton and the new comedy motion pictures.

The occupancy of the stores and offices in the new Orpheum building and the bath given the facade, makes that superb structure show signs of life. It is well advanced interiorly and the expectation now is to open it late in May.

No one about the Belasco Theater seems yet able to tell whether Florence Reed will open at the Belasco Monday night, or whether "Peace On Earth," the new play by Er Lawshe, will be given for a third week. "Peace On Earth," now in its second week, is still attracting capacity audiences at every performance.

Next week the Majestic Theater will present one of the most original of all modern plays, "The Climax." This drama deals with music and mental suggestion in about equal parts, telling the story of a girl with a wonderful voice and the promise of a great career, which seemed to have been destroyed by a slight operation. Just what was wrong with the young woman's vocal organs forms one of the most interesting situations in the play. The Loyal Order of Moose will be in charge of the Majestic Theater for the engagement, having purchased the week outright from both the theater and the company.

This will be the last week of the spectacular railway act, "The Hold-up" at Pantages vaudeville theater. Next Monday afternoon there will be a bill which will be new from the headliner to the motion pictures. The feature act will be the great vaudeville classic, Adgie and her lions, in which a little woman makes the huge beasts do all sorts of stunts. Other newcomers will be Canfield and Carleton, in "The Hoodoo;" Frank Tinney's Klassy Kids, Johnson & Wells, colored singers and dancers; the Olympic Trio of acrobats, and the Two Colemans, with musical novelties.

To the Shrewd Investor

It isn't your luck that beats you.

Do you remember Ben Franklin's little story of how as a small boy he traded a pocketful of pennies for an insignificant tin whistle? How cheap he felt, and how, in after years, he made of it a touchstone! Whenever an especially bright and alluring bargain was flashed before his eyes, little B. Franklin sat back, looked at it hard, and said, "I wonder if I am going to pay too dear for my whistle?" Now, keep that story in mind while we tell you another.

Here's George Graham Rice makes a million and a half selling racing tips, spends over a thousand a week to get his information, works like a dog on the proposition, believes in it himself, makes others believe in it. So many of his tips win that he plays them himself, and immediately all the money vanishes. Hasn't he paid too dear for his whistle?

Then he starts in all fresh in the mining country; has a tremendous success, juggles with millions, puts all his strength and belief in it. Why, it reads like the story of "Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp." It is the most desperately exciting true tale of to-day.

And now, as we said before, here's George Graham Rice, with this experience—knowing how he made the money and just how he lost it—putting the experience at your service for nothing. Won't you look ultra-conservative, even to yourself, if you refuse to take advantage of his experience? Besides, you will miss a lot of good reading. Entirely apart from Mr. Rice's stirring narrative, which he calls

...here are four main elements of safety in every motor car:

Frame---Wheels---Steering Connections---Brakes

Chalmers Wheels

DID you ever see a wheel on a Chalmers car out of alignment, wobbling from side to side as though it might drop off any moment.

A prospective purchaser recently remarked that while he had seen indications of weakness in the wheels of many other cars, he had never observed a Chalmers with wheels that did not appear as strong and as perfect as when new.

This is because Chalmers wheels, like every other part of the car, are built to stand the strain.

No better wheels are used on any motor car, regardless of price. They are stronger and heavier than the wheels usually used on cars of the weight and the price of the Chalmers. The spokes are of the best second growth hickory.

The spokes of the rear wheels, which have to stand the greatest strain, are not only bolted to the hub flanges but are also securely fastened to the brake drums. Compare the wheels on other cars with those on the Chalmers.

Let us show you some of the other good points of Chalmers cars.

BY GREY OLIVER.

Portland, 6; Vernon, 1.

If McCredie has got nothing else than two-hit pitchers the other teams in this league have about as much chance as they would with John D. Rockefeller.

This wouldn't amount to much in any man's country, but it represents the same opportunity that the Vernons had to beat the Beavers yesterday.

McCredie used Tom Seaton for the Vernons to practice on and it might be remarked that they could get more batting practice playing poker than they did with him yesterday. For seven short and exasperating innings the best the locals could do was to get two passes from him and the only man that had nerve enough even to try to get to second base was forced by the next runner with an easy grounder.

All this time the Beavers were biting great chunks out of poor Schafer, and the second inning alone finished the game, for the visitors made two easy runs in it. Later on they grabbed a lot more that were not needed and after the second inning the game was a long procession with the Beavers in front by a city block and the Vernons out of sight.

Their hitting certainly was, and had not Stinson been called to bat for Hogan in the eighth inning it is probable they would not have made any runs. He slammed a two-bagger over third base and on this hit Coy scored from second base. Coy was the first man to make a hit for Vernon and he opened the eighth inning with a hard single to center and advanced on a wild pitch.

CORNERS LOADED.

Seaton had everything from a wild pitch to change of pace, speed and all kinds of curves. He had so much on the ball that he made a lot of the locals pop the pill up in the air and the majority of them strained themselves knocking it along the ground even. The enemy had no such difficulty, for after they had punched Schafer all over the lot, young Gipe took a chance in the ninth inning and they slapped him for three singles and a run.

The bombardment on Schafer began in the second inning. After two were out, Kuhn singled to left, stole second and scored on Peckinpaugh's swat to right. Peck easily scored when Rodgers knocked a triple to the score board.

Seaton opened the fifth with a scratch grounder to Schafer, who juggled the ball. Chadbourne followed by flying out to Carlisle. Ryan and Krueger singled to right and Sheehan hit to left and the result of this was that three easy runs rolled in.

In the ninth Ryan singled and stole second and scored on Sheehan's hit to left.

There was no use trying to beat the kind of hitting that Portland showed, and as Vernon could do practically nothing to Seaton the game turned out to be a rather dull one as far as excitement was concerned. There was plenty of pretty fielding but what was the use when Portland was a mile ahead all the time? The Beavers had

CUT THE LOOPS ON POOLROOMS.

[Associated Press Night Report.]

CINCINNATI, April 5.—Consternation was caused among hand-book men and racing enthusiasts in Cincinnati today, when there came a "flash" shortly before post time for the first race at Norfolk, Va., that the trunk lines connecting the track with the larger cities all over the country had been cut without warning.

Long distance telephone lines were brought into play, and toll charges amounting to hundreds of dollars were incurred in the transmission of the information necessary to the operation of hand books and poolrooms.

FIGHTER MAY DIE.

BOISE (Idaho) April 5.—B. Wakefield is in a precarious condition from the effects of being knocked out in the sixth round in his fight at Hailey last night, with Carl Aune of Philadelphia. He was unconscious for two hours and little hope is entertained for his recovery. Art Jackson, the promoter, Gus Terzoldt, the referee, and George Coates, the time-keeper, are under arrest. Aune escaped and has not been arrested.

SEASON OPEN FOR ALL TROUT.

New Fish Law Effective From April First.

Fishermen Will Make for the Streams.

Those Waiting for May First Will Hurry.

BY EDWIN L. HEDDERLY.

A rush of fishermen for the trout streams will follow the announcement by Gov. Johnson that the trout bill has been signed.

Many trout fishers who were waiting for May 1 before wetting their lines have decided to make for the streams Saturday or Sunday before the streams have been pounded to death.

It is now lawful to take all kinds of trout from April 1 to November 1. The limit on steel head is fifty fish during any one calendar day. The limit on other trout is fifty fish or ten pounds and one fish on any one calendar day. There is no limit as to size.

This law as to open seasons applies

What T'ell Bill?

PROPOSED TAX ON AUTOS FOR STATE ROADS ON

BY PERCY H. CLARK.

Vice-President Automobile Club of Southern California.

AUTOMOBILE men of Southern California are trying to figure just what will become of about $400,000, which will be realized this year from the tax on automobiles, provided the bill, which passed the Legislature, is not vetoed by Gov. Johnson. This bill provides for a sliding tax scale on automobiles, based on the horse power of each machine, of from $5 for the smaller cars to $25 for the high-powered motors.

This money, according to State Senator Bills's bill, is to be used on State roads. The Automobile Club of Southern California is anxious that this money used on the county roads. In a resolution passed yesterday by the Southern California State Highway Association, and indorsed by the Chamber of Commerce and the club, Gov. Johnson is asked to veto the Bills bill if the money cannot be used on the county highways.

While we have no desire to be selfish, the club has always fought hard for good roads. We are glad to see the State highways improved, but we are working for the roads of this end of the State.

More than half the machines owned in the State belong to automobilists in Southern California. More than half the money that will swell the $400,000 will come from this direction. TIGERS WIN EVERY MATCH WITH U. S. C. TENNIS STARS

OCCIDENTAL, 19; U.S.C., 0.

After suffering defeat at the hands of the U.S.C. athletes in football, basketball and track events during the past year, the Occidental athletes came back strong yesterday when a quartette of Tiger tennis players completely shut out the 'varsity racquet wielders on the Methodist courts.

It was all Occidental after Winnie Mace downed Kenneth Newell, the hope of the 'varsity, in the first game. There were four matches of men's singles and one of doubles. The Highland Park boys won every set but one.

Newell gave Mace a hard run in the first exchange, holding him 8 to 6. Each boy won his serve alternately until the set stood five all. In the next game Newell lost his serve and Mace followed suit. The fast pace was beginning to tell on the 'varsity player and he weakened in the next few games until Mace won.

Winnie won the second set 6-0. Newell seemed unable to get the ball over the net, while his opponent kept getting stronger.

In the second match Clarence Barker took two easy matches from Bromley Oxnam. The Occidental player won by easy, consistent playing.

Oxnam played hard, using drives almost entirely. He had poor control over these, however. Although he is considered fully as good a player as Barker, the latter won by slower but more consistent work.

Duffy Seay of Occidental won from "Kid" Chaffee in a game that was spectacular because the two boys play almost the same style of tennis. Their exchanges were not hard, but were kept up for long periods. Seay covered his court much better than his opponent and won on this account.

Morrow, the fourth man in the U.S.C. lineup, seemed likely to save the Methodists from utter rout when he started his match with Musick in whirlwind style. Musick came back stronger as the games progressed while Morrow weakened and lost the third set 6-0.

Mace and Seay took the doubles from Oxnam and Chaffee with ease. It was expected that Newell would play with Oxnam in the doubles but the outlook for a University victory was so discouraging that Newell deserted the squad and joined the 'varsity baseball team which was playing the law school on the diamond.

Occidental College has held the Southern California Intercollegiate tennis championship for a number of years and its victory over U.S.C. yesterday practically clinches that honor for another season. Pomona players are not ranked as strong as the Methodist team, so there is little possibility of a defeat by the sage brushers.

The girls' singles and mixed doubles between Oxy and U.S.C. are to be played Friday. The U.S.C. enthusiasts are counting on Miss Taft and Miss Kincaid partially redeeming their lost honors in these matches. The O.C. men have already won a majority of the points so that a victory by the U.S.C. girls would not save the final result.

To determine the standing in points the players on each side are classified according to their showing in the school tryout. The best four men in each school are then matched against each other according to standing. In the intercollegiate games the winner of the first match receives five points; the second match, four points; the third match, three points; the second match, two points; and the doubles, five points.

The results:

Singles: Mace (O.) won from Newell (U.S.C.) 8-6, 6-0.

Seay (O.) won from Chaffee (U.S.C.) 6-2, 6-2.

Barker (O.) defeated Oxnam (U.S.C.) 6-3, 6-1.

Musick (O.) beat Morrow (U.S.C.) 5-7, 6-4, 6-0.

to the district which embraces Santa Barbara, Ventura, Los Angeles, Orange, San Diego, Imperial, Riverside, San Bernardino.

Most of those who go forth will be disappointed. One party returning from the Sespe said the stream was so full of snow-water that it was of about the color of an asphalt-paved street. They caught a few trout but hardly enough either in point of size or numbers to warrant them their trip.

The San Gabriel is so full of water and the trout therein so widely scattered that it becomes a work of no little time and patience to locate the fish at all. The current is very swift, and it is harder than usual to get bait down close to the bottom where all the fish are lying under existing conditions. The water is in bad shape and warm weather will only serve to make it more so on account of melting the snows in the heights. The mountains are well covered, and it now looks as if the river would be at a higher stage than usual all summer.

There will be a considerable exodus of trout anglers from this city Saturday night, bound for all the various fishing resorts within reach. Few catches have been reported from the San Gabriel, although some steelheads have been caught in the lower river, and a skilled fisherman visiting the mouth from Anaheim road up might be able to repay himself well for his efforts. There is no question but that large steelheads do enter the San Gabriel from the sea, coming up Alamitos Bay, some having been caught there in years gone by.

The bag limit law on trout—creel limit, rather—is worded "ten pounds and one fish" which is not understood very clearly by many. It means simply that the lawmakers had no desire to be arbitrary in the matter as a man's creel might contain just under ten pounds of trout, which would allow him to catch another; but this fish might happen to be a good one which would put the angler in the unenviable position of breaking the law with no intent whatever to do so. Therefore the saving clause in the law.

The relegation of the size-limit is being commended generally by trout

GOTCH'S STAR ON WANE; ECLIPSED BY DAN CUPI

BY J. ALEX SLOAN.

THE WORLD'S championship star of Frank A. Gotch is on the wane. The marvel of the mat kingdom is taking a farewell look at the faces of wrestling fans who have worshiped at his shrine for years. The glare and the glamour of the footlights, the charm of the padded mat and the cheers of the multitudes no longer attract the man who has made jokes of the greatest grapplers the world has produced.

Gotch is not going backward physically, for he is better today than he ever was in his life, but he is just tiring of the limelight and the fast life that goes with the championship and is preparing to fold up his grappling armor and his American flag, which he has worn so long and so successfully, and lay them away as relics.

Gotch might have continued his active wrestling career for many years to come, had he not tangled up in a contest with Dan Cupid at Humboldt, Iowa, some time ago. Frank did his best to ward off the attack of the little love grappler, but he finally went down. And in keeping with the rules of the game it was no flying fall, but he was pinned and pinned for keeps.

The little girl that conquered the champion and is causing him to think of home and the farm instead of the limelight and the yells of the multitude, has all the characteristics of a champion herself. Not in the athletic world but in the home, where she is destined to be a great and maybe a greater success than her illustrious husband has been in the world of sport.

BASEBALL CHIPS OFF THE DIAMOND.

THORSEN MAY NOT LAST OUT SEASON.

Krueger Predicts Los Angeles Will Finish Third—Catcher Kuhn Making Good for Beavers and Fisher Is Fast Being Forgotten—Agnew and Thorsen Laid Up for a Month.

The terrific beating given Oakland by Los Angeles yesterday must show the northerners that the Angels can hit some. When Howard and Bernard get into the game the team will be even better.

Babe Thorsen is not believed to be the pitcher he was last year and some of the fans are beginning to bet that he will not stick the season out with the Los Angeles team.

The Vernon pitchers must have been very bad last week if the Seals could make three home runs off them in one series.

Art Krueger of the Beavers says that when the season ends the first four clubs will be Portland, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Oakland. Hap Hogan should be tickled to death if he reads this story.

Infielder McGeehan of Atlantic City has been sold by Oakland to the Spokane team but it is probable that there is a string on him on a farming proposition.

The fellows who think that old Jim Wiggs is the best pitcher in the league should look up that score at San Francisco yesterday.

McCredie spent a lot of time yesterday looking over Catcher Steamboat Sheehan of the Vernons, and the chances are that Mac would like to get a fellow like the local receiver. However, he has a peach in young Kuhn.

Some of the fans are already complaining about the change in the time of starting the local games to 2:45 o'clock, but the majority of them take to the new order of things very gracefully.

Dillon does not expect to be able to use Agnew and Thorsen for a month yet but both of them must get into condition to be able to stick on the team.

Umpire Bull Perring of the American League dashed through this city yesterday morning on the way East. He stopped off about two hours between trains.

An alleged authority in San Francisco declared that the Portland team is not showing up as well as it should. Another local wiseacre declared yesterday that the Vernon team has lost two games to the Beavers but should beat them easily, for Portland has not the team it had last year.

McCredie's declaration that Kuhn is a better catcher than Fisher begins to seem like the real dope, if one may judge from what the young fellow has done since appearing here.

HENDERSON CANNED.

FARRELL REVERSES HIMSELF.

Walt McCredie of the Portland team received the news late Tuesday night from Secretary Long of the Coast League that Secretary Farrell of the National Commission had revoked his own order permitting Bennie Henderson to play with the Portland team. This means that the pitcher will be idle at least until the Beavers return to Portland.

It appears that some one has been butting into this case and has doubtless informed Farrell that Henderson is a porch climber or a holdup man of some kind. There are a dozen similar cases in organized baseball and for some reason Henderson and the Portland team are picked out for some spite work. Hal Chase jumped the New York team and was taken back; Johnny Kling was another jumper and Jiggs Donahue another. All of these were taken back and yet Henderson is ordered out.

McCredie states that he has wired his uncle about the case and will wait until he returns to Portland before he takes any action. Henderson will not be used as a pitcher in the meantime.

What is the next big event? Well, wait until after the twenty-four-hour race and I'll tell you all about it.

To Test Law on Betting at Jamestown Track—Telegraph Companies Fail to Loop Through.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NORFOLK (Va.) April 5.—Antenor, a colt owned by W. H. Austin, captured the Victoria hotel stakes today in the feature event of the opening day of the Jamestown Jockey Club meet. In the fifth race Hall Matthews bumped into the inner fence and broke his rider's (Wingfield,) leg, crushing it against the rail.

Fred Miller and Willis Hickey, layers, were arrested to make a test of the Virginia race track laws. Both were admitted to bail.

The telegraph companies had no wires in the track today in order to avoid, it was said, any possible violation of the interstate commerce laws by giving one class of business preference over another.

Continues to Play in France After Being Ordered Out and Makes Fine Runs.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, April 5.—Willie Hoppe, holder of the world's championship at billiards, is still playing in France, despite the papers which were served upon him by the Paris police shortly after his arrival, calling for his departure from the country within twenty-four hours.

According to cablegrams received by his father, the matter was satisfactorily settled and the young champion has been making record performances ever since.

Cure, the French champion, who is Hoppe's opponent, is playing most unevenly, but the young American continues to show his ability to work up runs of three figures. A list of his best runs in recent games is as follows: 373, 346, 325, 291 and 201.

After three months in Paris, Hoppe will tour Switzerland with his bride, returning to this country in the early fall for a match with either Morningstar or Sutton.

MORE SCORE CARDS.

Fresh Supply Arrives to Enable the Fans to Keep Track of the Doings of the Ball Games.

An additional supply of The Times pink sheet baseball score cards has arrived and will be distributed to the baseball enthusiasts.

The first supply went like dew before the sun.

The pink sheet coupons came in so rapidly that all the score cards were gone before the opening week of the baseball season had passed.

The new supply is much larger and will probably be sufficient to "go round." However, it will be well to come early and avoid the rush.

The score card is of celluloid, just the size to fit the vest pocket. It registers the innings, runs, hits, errors and outs.

The score card will be supplied on the same terms as before. Cut out the coupon and bring 5 cents to either office of The Times—No. 531 South Spring street or No. 116 South Broadway.

This coupon with five cents, if presented at The Times office, No. 531 South Spring street, or at No. 116 South Broadway, will entitle the holder to one Los Angeles Times celluloid baseball scoring tablet. If the scorer is to be mailed, send seven cents to the Scoring Tablet Department, Los Angeles Times, 531 South Spring street.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

Tom Sheehan showed that there are few better third basemen in the league, if there are any. He was fast and accurate with his throws, got everything and soused the ball at the right time on two different occasions.

Steamboat Sheehan came out for his first appearance as catcher and he made a fine impression in the one inning he worked. He is a strong, solid fellow and in his only chance on a throw heaved the ball to second and caught the speedy Chadbourne a block on an attempted steal.

Hap Hogan had very little to say yesterday, for the poor fellow lost his pep when he saw that Seaton was trying to pitch a no-hit game.

Seaton was the most angry man on the field in the eighth when Coy hit him for the first Vernon swat of the game. He wanted to keep the Vernons from making a hit.

Ross's running catch of Rappe's long fly to the left fence in the ninth was a peach.

Peckinpaugh had but one chance on an assist to first base. This was on Coy's hard bouncer to deep short in the fifth and Peck got the ball to first on a line. It was a great throw and made the fans sit up and take notice.

Seaton hit a perfect bunt toward first base in the sixth and had no trouble in making first on it.

Rappe showed what a real first baseman he was in the fourth, when he jumped high in the air and grabbed a throw from Seaton in his left hand.

Carlisle made his usual circus catch in the fifth, when he ran back to the center fence to get Chadbourne's long fly.

Seaton was so mad over Coy's hit that he made a wild pitch on the next ball he threw. Then he settled down and fanned McDonnell and made Steamboat Sheehan ground an easy one to Tom Sheehan.

Ryan ran in back of second base in the ninth inning to get Ross's short fly, and this pretty catch robbed Ross of what would have been a hit under ordinary conditions. When a pitcher is doing such work, however, his fielders generally take all kinds of hard chances.

Rapps, who is generally supposed to be the best hitter on the Beaver team, could not get anything, while Sheehan, Rodgers, Peckinpaugh and Ryan rapped out two each and Chadbourne got three.

Jack had better of his talking now, as Frank returning east in a few days the yelp of the "air jammer." but Hackenschmidt so badly made him quit "so like a ing," that even the talkative will have trouble making any where that Hackenschmidt is serious in his intentions when ch is around.

Tom McCarey when he saw Westergard yesterday said that he would make a better than any of the present lemons hanging around Okla- and the other fight centers. But Tom was taken with Wester- and size only. In all the history of ring and mat sport few men have ever been able to follow both these branches of athletic endeavor successfully. A wrestler will not travel good with boxing gloves on his hands no matter how hard he tries. Take the example of Frank Gotch. Frank has more nerve, strength and brains than many champion fighters have boasted of but as a pugilist he didn't do. In fact he didn't even start, although he was ambitious at one time to switch over to the ring sport. Gotch will tell you today that no wrestler ever will make a champion fighter and if you ask him why he will tell you just because they won't.

I have seen wrestlers don the gloves with second-rate fighters and be made punching bags for the entertainment of a few friends who are always on hand to encourage the fine physical specimen that most mat men are.

Old Tom Jenkins, who never was in Gotch's class as a mat artist, knew more about handling his mits than most fighters, but he didn't learn the game training with gloves on. He worked in a big iron mill in Cleveland in his early days and his fights with fellow workmen used to average about one a week. This made him fairly successful as a rough-house fighter.

Westergard probably is built more like a fighter than any other heavyweight grappler in the business today. He has powerful shoulders and arms and a wonderful reach, but I don't believe he could make good in the boxing game. Boxers are born, not manufactured.

There is one notable exception to the statement just made that boxers are born, not made. And that exception was, or is, Young Corbett. When he started out in life he was a weakly, puny little lad. His friends advised him to take to athletic exercise as a means of building up his body. Corbett tried everything from marbles to fighting and decided that the latter brought about the best results. He acquired almost all of his strength through diligent work, and was looked upon about as seriously as LaGrave, after the recent Wolgast experience, when he faced Terry McGovern the first time up at Hartford, Ct. The betting that day was 3 to 1 on McGovern and no one gave Young Corbett a look-in. But the Denver lad knew he had a good chance to whip the Brooklyn terror, especially if he could get him rattled. Well, he got Tarry up in the air in the first round and in the second round he put him down on the floor for a prolonged sleep. The battle was fought in the afternoon of Thanksgiving Day and when I heard of the outcome I shared the opinion of many others, that "something had gone wrong with the report." I couldn't believe that Terry had fallen by the wayside in so short a time.

Throughout the country everywhere it was claimed that Young Corbett had landed a lucky punch, but when the two met again the result was the same, only it lasted eleven rounds, and then the fighting world woke up to the fact that Denver had turned out a fighter who had started with nothing but an ambition to get strong and had wound up with a world's championship crown on his head.

fellow named John Madden sold one of his nags for $35,- the beast is spot on a trip to Europe. It would certainly take that animal a long time to earn that much money plowing, and his real value must be judged by his ability in that line. Still, its Madden's money, and he should be allowed to heave it overboard if he cares to. If he would buy that much bread for the starving poor in the big cities he would be honored even in his own country.

Too Much Muscle.

Johnny McGraw now declares that Merkle hits the ball too hard. If he had touched second base the same way two years ago, he might have had the happiness of winning a league pennant once again. It seems that no matter what a man does in this world some one is going to kick. None of the players in this league are affected as Merk seems to be this year.

PARKER TAKES THE HELM.

Judge to Decide Important Questions Which Arise in Automobile Controversies.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, April 5.—Judge Alton B. Parker has been selected by the Automobile Contest Association as the head of the new board of review, which is designed to act as the supreme court of the country in automobile controversies.

Appeals to this higher court may be made from the contest board and other bodies, but only in matters of the most serious import.

Sitting with Judge Parker on the board of review will be Judge Cann of Savannah, Barlow S. Weeks of New York and Everett C. Brown of Chicago. One or two additional appointments probably will be made later.

Game Is Postponed.

SACRAMENTO, April 5.—Sacramento-San Francisco game postponed, wet grounds.

THAT TRAFFIC ORDINANCE.

Whistles for Pedestrians As Well As Vehicles Is Demand of Motorist Who Drives in Town.

Automobile drivers are almost unanimous in declaring the new traffic whistles, which keep the traffic at crossings well regulated, a good thing but say the ordinance should include pedestrians as well as vehicles to prove most efficient.

Drivers have quickly become accustomed to the police signals but they complain that the people who are on foot cause constant trouble by dodging in front of them regardless of the signal.

Just when the driver is ready to go forward in answer to the whistle he is blocked by a stream of pedestrians crossing in front of him. In most places the ordinance is made to include people on foot as well as vehicles. When this is strictly enforced it almost eliminates any possibility of accidents at crossings.

"Men can usually dodge across the street without danger but it is the women shoppers, usually with bundles and children, that are liable to accidents," said one local owner when referring to the difficulty.

GOSSIP ALONG GASOLINE ROW.

Edward G. Kuster, local representative for the Contest Board of the Automobile Association of America, has troubles of his own. It's all right, though. Ed knows the law and will follow a straight line. He will attend the twenty-four-hour race and so will we.

Bill Nevin is sure the Fiat will win the twenty-four-hour race. Of course that red racer will do stunts if Bill is there to supply the necessary juice. It's a hummer and E. E. Hewlitt will be on hand with his watch ready to clock the car as it whirls around the pie-pan.

E. Roger Stearns has entered the Velie in the big race. It's a cinch E. Roger will not drive. He is better at bucking streams where the quicksands abound. Roger is an outlaw. Yes, we know it and he is sorry.

D. B. Rose is keyed up to fighting pitch. He is ready for that stunt with the Ohio electric and it will be pulled off at 1:30 o'clock today. All right, Delos. I'll be on hand to watch the fun.

Don Lee is here. He came down to watch the Cadillac win the twenty-four-hour race. Hope she wins, Don. That 30-horse-power racer has the ginger. If she does half as well on the track as she does on the road it's a "pipe" for the Cadillac.

An E.M.F. is entered in the twenty-four-hour race. If you don't believe it ask Joe Ollier. Bill La Casse will drive. The E.M.F. has been winning in the East. La Casse was on the Flanders when the twenty-horse-power broke the world non-stop record. Perhaps La Casse will win the long board tussle.

Will Cowan is working steadily this season selling Ramblers. His biggest sales are made in the outlying districts where the cars are taking better than ever.

That Cole "Thirty" looks good. Fast as the best of the thirty-horse-power cars and a likely winner. The Cole has the habit of plugging along at speed for mile after mile just the clip that will make 1300 miles.

Can you pick the winner of the twice around the clock grind? One of the hardest jobs ever offered even a motor fan. Perhaps the Cadillac will win. George Adair looks good at the wheel and T. J. Beaudette is some driver. Yes, the Cadillac is one of the favorites.

Baron Von Hempel says a gate of 6000 persons will be fairly good. He expects 10,000. This meet should be a record breaker for the Baron, who is a real manager when it comes to motor racing and milk-fed chicken.

Leon Atwood of Redlands was in yesterday discussing plans for the Redlands hill climb. He says the meet will be one of the greatest ever. He expects to break all records when the entry list is completed.

You can go to San Diego any time you wish over the coast route. So many people say the roads are impassable. That's a joke. There is not a place on the entire trip that a car cannot be sent through in fast time.

Why is it that so many "boobs" croak about road conditions? A man at Elsinore told us we could not possibly go through Bensal. Well, you know how it was. George Adair was at the wheel of the Cadillac. "This car can go anywhere," said Adair. It was easy. The road is bad in one place. We used chains up the hill and took it on the intermediate.

GOLF PLAYERS DELIGHTED WITH THE NEW COUNTRY CLUB LINKS.

ON ACCOUNT of the rain on the opening day at the new Los Angeles Country Club links last Saturday those who attempted to play there were unable to form an exact estimate of the course. Since Saturday most of the club members have played over the course under normal conditions and opinion has been almost unanimous that the new links are far superior to the old and upon which it would be difficult to improve.

As to the fair green, the course lying between the tee and putting green, all were astonished by its almost perfect condition. The surface of the ground is smooth and rarely does the player find a bad lie. About the only fault has been that the grass was a little too long in some places, which fault is being remedied as fast as two moter-mowers can get over the course.

The greatest trouble is in getting the putting greens in shape, for that requires time to harden the oil base. But as time goes on these points are rounding into good condition so that within a short while the entire course will be in as good condition for play as any of the older courses in the country. When the big invitation and formal opening tournament takes place about the middle of May, all rough edges will have been smoothed down and little if anything will be left to criticise justly.

Playing thus far has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the less skillful players at least, that the course is a difficult one. They are already howling about the hard up-hill drives, the long bunker carries and the traps guarding the putting greens. Having become accustomed to the old grounds wards and and the best way of avoiding pitfalls, they were able there to approach within hailing distance of bogey scores. Now, however, they fear they may never come near enough to the Colonel to recognize him with a Terkes telescope. But this is the experience of all courses upon which improvements and changes have been made looking to a higher standard of play. Advancement in the game demands added difficulties to overcome and a greater degree of care and skill in playing. The duffer and sometimes the more skillful player may grumble but in the end he will approve. Without hazards and pitfalls golf is tame sport.

On the opening day Norman Macbeth, who played through the rain, turned in a score of 91. W. Frederickson had a 95 and John W. Wilson 100. These were the only full rounds turned in. The next day Frederickson made an 88. Huitt Martin, one of the club professionals, made 83 the same day, which was low card. Bogey for the course is 80 and as stated in these columns before, is a hard one.

The tournament which was to have been held last Saturday has been postponed to April 15. Unless rain again interferes a big entry list is assured.

Next Saturday the local club team of golfers will play Redlands Country Club at Redlands in the inter-club series. On the following day a match will be played with the Victoria Club at Riverside. Annandale will play Redlands Friday and Riverside on Saturday. These matches will decide the final victory in the series. The two local teams, Annadale and Los Angeles are tied at present.

Those who are expected to play on Los Angeles' team are: Norman Macbeth, W. Frederickson, J. W. Wilson, N. F. Wilshire, W. Millar, F. H. Edwards, E. B. Tufts.

That Contented Feeling.

PANTAGES BANQUETS ACTORS AFTER TIRING PERFORMANCES.

ACTING on the principle that if you make the people who are working for you feel contented, they will do a lot better work than if they are discontented, Alexander Pantages has instituted a novel idea at his Broadway vaudeville house.

On Sunday there are five complete shows at the Pantages house. In order that the performers may have as much opportunity as possible for resting, a banquet is spread in the airy basement of the theater beneath the stage after the last matinee performance Sunday afternoon, and the vaudevillians feast at the expense of the theater. They do not even remove their make-up between the matinee and night shows.

A notable thing about the Sunday banquet at Pantages is that it demonstrates the democratic spirit of the vaudeville performers. Such an affair would be impossible in the legitimate where nearly every show has its star, or near-star who thinks he should be starred, and would as soon think of sitting down at the same table with the remainder of the company, including the stage carpenter and "props," as he would of eating in a cafeteria.

But in vaudeville it's different.

The headliner will be heard asking the flyman to please pass the butter, and the $500-a-week singer will probably be found gossiping between soup and entree with a boy who works the "crash without." This is the big social event of the week at the Pantages house, and is a sort of clearinghouse for the gossip of the week.

And it goes without saying that the spread must be up to the mark set by the best restaurants, for your vaudeville performer is always a high liver, and demands the best. He would rather have to change his makeup a dozen times than eat a meal that he didn't think was good enough for him.

Next week Adgie and her lions are coming to Pantages, and the problem that is now agitating Carl Walker, the Pantages manager, is whether or not the jungle pets should be invited to sit at the festive board with the rest of the show.

JIM FLYNN MATCHED.

OKLAHOMA CITY (Okla.) April 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Jim Flynn, heavyweight pugilist, has been matched to fight fifteen rounds with Jeff Clark before Jimmy Bronson's club in Joplin, Mo. Flynn has been in Oklahoma City since February, making this place his headquarters while waiting to hear news from Carl Morris that would mean a match between the Sapulpa "Hope" and himself. The Flynn-Clark bout will take place on April 25. Flynn has not given up hope of securing a go with Morris.

NELSON IS MATCHED.

BALTIMORE, April 5.—Articles have been signed by John B. Robinson, manager for Bat Nelson, and John Nickel, manager of Dummy Decker, for a ten-round bout in this city at Ford's Theater, June 17. Each has posted $250 for the match.

ADED GAS N MOTORDROME

ic Acid Cannot Be Used in Motor Tanks.

mpel Is the Watch-Dog of Board Pie-pan.

"doped" gasoline can be used in wenty-four-hour race at the Mo- ome Saturday and Sunday. One of ules most closely observed by the fical committees in the big races A.A.A. sanction is the edict st using "loaded" gasoline or per- g the use of any kind of solutions ated to increase the power of the ions in the cylinders.

t night Manager Walter Hempel Motordrome received a tip from the entrants in the twice-around- ock race, to the effect that he other drivers, stipulating that he will wager any sum that the winning car does not exceed the mileage of his mid- get car by more than 100 miles. And it would not take much talk to cause Pittman to bet that his car would beat all the others, without regard to horse power or size.

Roger Stearns, the "outlaw," who entered the Velie, hopes to be able to smuggle himself into the grounds dur- ing the night session. Roger is figuring on a false beard and other "Hawk- shaw" disguises, and shows he wants to get close to the ammunition cart. Bill Ruess may try to keep him out.

The E.M.F., Cole, Flat, Buick, Cad- illac, Schacht and Cutting cars were on the Motordrome yesterday after- noon for practice. Manager Jordan of the Michelin Tire Company was at the course taking notes about the wear on the tires. Jordan's concern is going to give $200 to the winner.

ALLEY SIDELIGHTS.

The Cedar Brooks slunk out of the Orpheum alleys Tuesday night without making any peceptible noise. They had just dropped two games out of three to the Palace Markets. Charlie Rising, captain of the Cedar Brooks, said after the match, "we ordered ten- derloin but the Markets slipped us cutlets."

Speaking of Cy Taylor—while he was in Spokane one of the daily papers of that city spoke of him as being the youngest bowler entered in the tourna- ment, and giving his age as 17 years. Of course Cy's actions at times would lead one to believe that the Spokane paper had about doped his age cor-

to be some day—Frank Gotch, the home man."

Back in Humboldt, Iowa, the little town that looks upon Gotch as the best farmer, banker, business man and world's greatest grappler all in one, there is joy. They know Gotch is soon coming home to them to take part in their social functions, to play ball with the town team and marbles with the kids in the street as he used to. They know that he has at last reached that stage in life where the world has nothing new or attractive to offer him. They know back there also that little Gladys Oestrich has completely conquered their Frank. Many beauti- ful women and some of the world's greatest actresses kneeled at the Gotch shrine, but if any attention was paid them by the champion it was on- ly play. Down deep in Gotch's heart was seated a love for the little girl that he had always known in Hum- boldt as the best, purest and noblest woman of them all. And Mrs. Gotch is with him now bossing the present tour.

Don't shed any tears or worry after hearing this tale. Frank Gotch is an American, pure and simple, and don't ever think that any four-flushing, big- headed foreigner is coming to Uncle Sam's domain and cast any brazen bluff towards Humboldt, Iowa, and get away with it. Gotch has not retired that way. He is just going to stay off the road and remain at 132 Grant street, Humboldt, Iowa, permanently.

She will probably give "L'Aiglon" as an openi performance, and follow with "Tosca," "Camille," "Madame X" and "Jeanne d'Arc." Mme. Bernhardt says this is a sure-enough farewell tour. Next year—according to her present plans—she will retire from the stage in a final burst of red fire, presenting a spectacular revival of "Faust," with an all-star cast, in which she herself will appear as Mephistopheles.

The Doctor's Answers On Health and Beauty Questions

By Dr. Lewis Baker.

The questions answered below are general in character; the symptoms or diseases are given and the answers will apply to any case of similar nature.

Those wishing further advice, free, may address Dr. Lewis Baker, College Building, College-Ellwood Streets, Dayton, Ohio, enclosing self-addressed, stamped envelope for reply. Full name and address must be given, but only initials or fictitious name will be used in my answers. The prescrip- tions can be filled at any well-stocked drug store. Any druggist can order of wholesaler.

Mack: Your request for a simple but efficient cough and lung remedy has al- ready been answered in these columns, but I will repeat this formula which is superior to any thing I know of to cure chronic bronchitis, hoarseness, whooping cough, sore throat, etc. Obtain from any well-stocked drug- gist a 2½-oz. package of essence of Menthol- Laxene, and mix it with a home-made syrup according to directions accompanying it; this makes a full pint of the finest laxative, curative and tonic cough syrup, superior to patent or labeled goods and about 4 times cheaper. It makes the most effective cough remedy that I have ever prescribed.

Nervous—I receive many letters from both men and women who class themselves as "nervous wrecks." Some attribute their condition to dissipated lives, some to society and its functions, some to indiscretion of youth, and others have no explanation.

This condition begets much misery, melan- cholia, and is accompanied with such symp- toms as timidity, downcast eyes, lack of confidence, lost memory and vigor, cold ex- tremities, dizziness, heart palpitation, tremb- ling limbs, shortness of breath, sleeplessness, discontent, irritability and a general in- ability to act naturally at all times. Scien- tifically concentrated drugs, free from opium, cocaine and the like will overcome such conditions. Obtain these ingredients sepa- rately, avoid any embarrassment, and mix at home as follows: Get three ounces of compound syrup sarsaparilla in a six-ounce bottle. Get one ounce each of compound fluid balmwort, compound essence cardiol and tincture cadomene compound. Add balmwort to sarsaparilla, shake and let stand two hours. Then add other two in- gredients, shake well and take a teaspoon- ful after each meal and one when retiring. Drink slowly, at least a pint of water be- tween each meal, and soon new life and nervous force will be felt coursing through the system and all distressing symptoms will be at an end.

Florence—Your questions and symptoms have been answered and explained several times heretofore in these columns, but as they may have escaped your attention I will repeat my advice, as I have for many others. You have an extremely chronic and danger- ous case of nasal catarrh, and this is re- sponsible for your headache, foul breath and indigestion. The mucus drips into your throat and thence to the stomach while sleeping. Obtain two ounces of vilano powder; take a level teaspoonful and mix it thoroughly with one ounce of white vase- line. This makes an excellent healing balm when applied to the nostrils daily. Use the remainder of the powder as a nostril wash, a half teaspoonful to a pint of warm water. Snuff the water from the hollow of the hand, well up into the nostrils until all mucus is removed. Do this twice daily and in a week or two all trace of catarrh will vanish. Keep up the treatment as a preventative.

Frank—If you are thin and bloodless and suffer with acute indigestion, nervousness, sleeplessness and weakness, I would advise that you obtain a package of 2-grain Hypo- Nuclane tablets and take one before eating and one after. Do not eat between meals. Drink nothing but milk at mealtime, and drink it very slowly.

O. L. K.—Kidney and bladder disease afflicts a larger number than generally sup- posed, and anyone who has such symptoms as lame back, headache, feverishness, puffs under the eyes, inflamed eyelids, swelling of the ankles and feet, frequent, burning, scanty or profuse urination, especially at night, with pain in the bladder region, may rest assured that the following prescription will prove vastly beneficial and all such symptoms will disappear with its use. Have your druggist mix or obtain ingredients sep- arately and mix at home: Compound fluid balmwort one ounce, fluid extract buchu one ounce and syrup sarsaparilla compound four ounces. Take a teaspoonful before or after meals and one when retiring; drinking plenty of water between meals.

John Henry K.—Chronic constipation is another of mankind's afflictions, which has always proven troublesome to remedy until the following prescription was originated in one of our large hospitals. This not only relieves pleasantly and promptly, but it really cures the most chronic cases ever brought to my attention: Compound essence cardiol one ounce, aromatic cascara one ounce and syrup of rhubarb 2 ounces. Mix and take from ¼ to 1 teaspoonful after each meal and one when retiring. Children less according to age. If given to children it prevents much sickness and contagion.

Retail—For sore, swollen, tired, aching, calloused feet I can recommend nothing better than the following: Obtain two ounces of vilano powder; to a gallon of steaming hot water add a teaspoonful of the powder and immerse the feet, soaking them from ten to twenty minutes every night. This draws out the poisons and soreness, removes corns, bunions, callouses, etc., and enables anyone to be on their feet many hours daily.

Fanny—If your hair is "greasy," oily and dead in lustre, you can quickly restore its lustre and eliminate the oily appearance and at the same time cure the worst case of dandruff and itching scalp. Obtain a four-ounce jar of plain yellow minyol and use as per directions accompanying same. Beautiful, lustrous, fluffy hair will be your early reward.

Miss Francis—Those people who are too thin, who are weak and puny in body, with scrawny arms, shoulders and chest, can readily increase their weight, improve the quality of their blood by taking regularly for several months the following: Tincture cadomene compound one ounce and comp. syrup hypophosphites five ounces. Mix and take from ½ to one teaspoonful before meals and the same after meals. Also take 3-grain hypo-nuclane tablets as per direc- tions accompanying sealed package. As much as two to six pounds a week should form in flesh on the abnormally thin.

H. J. TILLOTSON, M.D.
Established 30 Years.

I am the only Specialist in Los Angeles who is sole owner of his office and equip- ment, who does not advertise a fictitious name and photograph. I publish my true photograph, correct name, personality conduct my office. I am the largest es- tablished, most successful and reliable, as medical credentials and press records prove. Imitation of my copyrighted an- nouncement is an evidence that I am a bona fide Specialist. I make this state- ment that you will know you consult a Specialist, who sees and treats patients personally. I possess skill and experience acquired in such a way that no other can share, and should not be classed with medical companies. Experience is the safe standard by which judgment may be valued, and it is unwise and expensive to embrace the statements of medical com- panies. It is impossible for a medical company to attend colleges. Com- panies have no diploma or license to prac- tice medicine in California or any other State. Medical companies usually are named after a doctor. A portrait, whose personality and identity are indefinite, is selected and published as the legitimate specialist of the office. Hired physicians, ordinary doctors with questionable ability give consultation, examination and treat- ment.

A thorough investigation should be made by every ailing person as to the specialist he consults. Duty and destiny to self and those who depend upon you demand the best medical attention. I have the ability and can give you this service. I have always charged a very reasonable fee, so that my services may be obtained by any man who sincerely desires to be cured. I make no mislead- ing statements or unbusinesslike propo- sitions; neither do I desire to be particu- larly independent, and I would like to have you for a patient, if you will come to me on a strictly professional basis, and the inducements that I offer, which are my ability and thirty years' success- ful experience. Time-saving treatment and guarantee of cure of certain dis- eases.

NO MONEY REQUIRED TO COM- MENCE TREATMENT. Many patients have no confidence in their doctor, be- cause he demands pay before a cure has been effected, and there are many who have been misinformed about their con- dition, or through unsuccessful treatment have become skeptical and think there is no cure for them. I want an opportunity to treat such cases. It makes no differ- ence about the financial part, as I accept pay for my services as benefits are de- rived, when I am settled the patient is reliable. Health is dear at interest. I will prove my ability to cure you before asking pay for my services.

WRITTEN GUARANTEE. Dr. Tillotson's written guarantee means a cure or no pay for services. I guar- antee to cure certain diseases or refund every dollar you have paid me for my services. My services cost you nothing unless I cure your Varicose Veins, Hernia, Piles, Fissures, Ulcerations, or any disease I guarantee to cure. My terms are rea- sonable and no more than you are willing and able to pay.

READ MY BOOK—It contains information every young man, husband and father should have regarding himself. Book Sent Free to those who, in my opinion, can be benefited by it. Call or write before treating for diseases or disorders.

FACTS FEATURES AND FANCIES FOR WOMEN.

By Olive Gray

DAILY BEAUTY HINT: In place of the old time "spring remedies" change in diet is most efficacious. Plenty of green salad and fresh vegetables should be substituted for much meat, and the juicy fruits should be plentifully used. Rhubarb, which is delicious at present, should be used as sauce at least once a day, as it is excellent in its effect upon the blood and so upon the complexion.

You admire as I did, the window-full of Easter eggs, in a Broadway store, you will be interested in knowing something about the "candy hen" who lays these sugar eggs. It certainly seems as though she must be a rainbow hen to produce such glorious color-ings in sweets. There are nile green, pink, violet, American beauty, and of course—and in fact, almost every shade known to spring millinery. The "hennery" which produces these luscious eggs, which are it seems, as edible as are those from real hens—located on the premises. There are two kinds of eggs displayed, those of solid cream candy and the transparent ones, which are of the more delicate colors but not quite so satisfying in quantity, as they are hollow shells. I learned that this is, in fact, the first season that such charming effects have been produced in candy owing as recent rigid enforcements of the pure food law have made changes in the proper preparations necessary and during the transition, the shades were dull and not so pleasing. Now, however, it has been mastered and perfect results has been combined with beauty.

Flowers in Sweets.

And this is not the only art that has been mastered in the making of candy. Although I have noticed of late that the handsome boxes of confectionery contain exceedingly natural looking roses, violets and occasionally other flowers for ornamentation to the top layer, I have supposed them to be manufactured flowers; but I learned yesterday that they are the real blooms, candied. I was given a peep into some of the dainty "wonder boxes"—for that is what they seemed. There were not only roses, violets and sweet peas, but lilies, and even wild poppies—all in perfect shape and in colors as natural as if growing in their native fields. It is a consummate art of the confectioner to accomplish such work. The best of materials are, of course, required, but more than anything else is time and skill. Think of the money loss, too, in handling such delicate things! So, when He sends you for Easter a large box of sweets, with an exquisite rose abloom upon the surface layer, remember that the price he paid bought not only the sweets, but also a bit of creative art as consummate in its way as painting in water color or in oil.

Roses.

The making of roses: I have always wished that the dainty Cherokee fragrance and also that it were edible; and I recently saw a spray of Cherokees which had the exact odor of the Eastern wild rose. Oh, it was delicious!

"Now the slickest trick at a friend's house in Lamanda Park," said the visitor. "It was at luncheon, and when the cream pitcher began its fourth visits to the strawberry dishes, mother asked her daughter if she had remembered to butter the cream pitcher. I suppose I looked interested, for she explained that it was their way to rub butter over the spout of the cream pitcher, as this treatment prevented the "breaks" so often made in pouring cream. With far from fond recollections of sundry such breaks when I had spilled this dainty upon the tablecloths and napkin, I began to watch cautiously the butter pitcher; then gained confidence as the golden flowing stream ran forth." It may well be applied to such discovery, don't you think?

Black Satin.

The vogue of black satin garments is well illustrated in that window-full of suits, coats, and more elaborate suits, on Broadway. From the coat of tailor suits for street wear, to the most elaborately beaded gown for afternoon and evening wear, this extends. There are combinations of black satin with black and striped silk, with white embroidery and with touches of handsome color. One very striking afternoon gown has a plastron of solid beadery in tones of green and brown with this being the sole touch of color in the creation.

Flowers.

This summer use the new hand-made forms of lace will, it is predicted, replace those of ribbon which have here-to-fore been popular. Inexpressibly dainty are the sprays of white roses cut from transparent laces, the petals held in place by silk wires and only touch of color resting in the golden stamens. Waiths of flowers, it seems to be, as if transformed by fairy wand.

Vegetable Omelette.

"Now is the time of year," said the Good Housekeeper, "when I give my family that delectable dainty, asparagus omelette. You see the signs of the times are right for this dish. Eggs cheap and asparagus is becoming plenty. "One sign is never lacking," chuckled The Boy, "that is our appetite for this dish."

Of course the Good Housekeeper knew that I would want to give you the recipe; and if I have given it before I will remind you. Stew the asparagus in salted water—just enough to serve as a sauce when the asparagus is done. Make the omelette according to your favorite recipe and before quite finished, turn in the asparagus. Fold the omelette over and pour the slightly thickened sauce from the asparagus over all, before serving.

"Household Terror."

That is the name that is given to one of her neighbors. I do not know that her family call her, if indeed they dare to call her, even under their breath. No, she isn't a scold—not even that. She seldom talks. Not that she is that marvel of distilled virtue supposed to be located between the still tongue. I think it is because she does not wish to set mischief in motion that she speaks so little; for microbes and germs and dust and moths are her especial detestation. In fact, almost her only reading is in regard to the various ramifications of the germ theory. She has her family and acquaintances so trained that they are afraid to enter the front door, lest they bring in sand or dirt on their feet, and she is so careful of everything in the house that its members are glad to get away as often as possible and to stay as long as they can. She is, in fact, a scourge of cleanliness. She bathed one baby to death, it is said—for she continued to wash the poor child so frequently in spite of the protest of physicians, that the little one gradually faded away. It is with a sigh of relief that, after a visit to this too well ordered and cleanly house, one enters a real home, where something is going cheerfully forward regardless of possible disorder and untidiness.

A Lenten Party.

This party was given by a tired debutante, to other debutantes—all glad of a time of comparative rest from the season's festivities.

The invitations were informal and read simply "Come to my Rest Cure Party, at three on Saturday." When the guests arrived, they found the shades carefully drawn and a big fire glowing in the grate. Comfortable couches were placed about the room, each with a soft afghan and plenty of pillows for use. The girls were asked to don kimonos and loose slippers and to ensconce themselves upon the couches. All conversation was forbidden, a maid passed hot bouillon and wafers and not a word was spoken for half an hour. Then disjointed talk began to filter in soft tones through the drowsiness. At intervals, music from a guitar came faintly from the distant conservatory, adding to the soothing effect. Later a low voice read several pretty poems and short stories. When at the close of the afternoon, the ban was removed and tongues began to wag, the girls voted it the most charming affair of the entire season, and declared themselves rested rather than fatigued as is generally the case after any sort of social affair.

Fashion's Fancy

Turns to the lighter braids and those more or less transparent, for use in the more dressy summer hats and bonnets. Genuine horsehair is as popular as ever, being finished with most dainty trimmings of delicate flowers, or butterfly effects.

Oriental laces and stripes in which motifs of embroidered linen are incorporated are in great vogue. So also is the lace known as Carrickmarose—that lace in which linen or batiste forms are applied to the mesh.

As the moonstone is supposed to bring good luck to its wearers, a dainty bit of bijouterie, with this sentiment, is a pendant containing one of these gems, cut as an oval cabochon, surrounded by filigree handwork made of fine silver wire.

The fashion of veiling has been extended to the veiling of jewels. It is the fad in London to wear all the pendants and brooches of precious stones that one can muster and then hide their glitter under a veil of chiffon so they appear as a glowing part of the under dress.

WOMEN'S WORK, WOMEN'S CLUBS.

BY SYDNEY FORD.

It is a coincidence that the twentieth anniversary of the Friday Morning Club and the birthday of its second president, Mrs. J. A. Osgood come on the same date and the club will therefore make Mrs. Osgood its guest of honor at luncheon next week. The speaker of that morning, Dr. Jessica B. Peixotto of the University of California will also be an honored guest. Dr. Peixotto will address the club on the social theory of Tolstoy.

Dr. Luella Clay Carson, president of Mills College, is expected to arrive in the city this morning. She is coming on invitation of the Mills College Alumnae Association, whose guest she will be during her brief stay, and numerous social functions are being planned for her entertainment, beside automobile trips to Pasadena and Long Beach. At the latter place she will address the students of the High School. The Alumnae Association will give an elaborate luncheon in her honor at Hotel Darby next Saturday when prominent educators from this end of the State will be invited to meet Dr. Carson. She will address both the Friday Morning and Ebell Clubs while here. Previous to her presidency of Mills College she was

IN THE SPRING EVERYONE NEEDS S.S.S.

Spring is the season when the blood is weakest, and our systems least responsive to the demands of nature. It is the time of fickle appetites, poor digestion, lack of energy, bodily fatigue, and many other systemic disturbances which warn us that we need a tonic.

Everyone who needs a tonic needs a blood purifier, for it is the weakened and impure condition of the circulation that is responsible for the run-down constitution. A great many so called tonics are mere nerve stimulants, often producing instantaneous exhilarating effects, but acting with decided injury on the system later. If your system is weak and depleted you can only tone it up by supplying an increased amount of nourishment, and this can come only through pure, rich blood. Any tonic which does not purify the blood is dangerous, because it leaves the impurities in the circulation to constantly prey upon the health.

S. S. S. is the greatest of all tonics because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers; and it is the one medicine you can rely upon to supply the system with the best tonic effects and at the same time thoroughly purify the blood. Everyone needs S. S. S. in the Spring, because by building up the system now they may avoid serious illness later on. Many people have put off using a tonic until the system became so weakened it could not resist disease, and have paid for the neglect with a spell of debilitating illness. S.S.S. is nature's ideal tonic; made entirely of healthful roots, herbs and barks. It tones up the stomach and digestion, and contributes to strong, robust health. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores.

S. S. S. has been used extensively in our family as a Spring tonic, given to both young and old, and always with the best results. It thoroughly cleanses the blood of all impurities, at the same time it builds up the general health, gives appetite, strength and energy. We have given it to our children as intimated, and found it to be non-injurious to the system, and always capable of purifying the blood and restoring health.
MRS. CLARA DAUBERT.
Schuylkill Haven, Pa.

My blood was weak and impure last Spring, and I was troubled with a general letting down of the system. Under the fine tonic and blood purifying effects of S. S. S. my appetite improved, I increased in strength and weight and my blood was restored to its normal healthy condition.

...IRL MISSING ... ADDS MYSTERY.

...VA BOVEE DISAPPEARS AND DANIA IMPROVES.

Relationship of the Young Woman Who Has Dropped Out of Sight, Appears to Be Clouded—Tailor's Other Daughter Believed She Was a Sister—Jury Charges Murder.

With the disappearance yesterday of ...va Bovee, 19 years old, who was ...aying at the home of S. L. Dania, ...e tailor who shot and killed his ...ughter Ledania last Saturday, the ...se has taken another odd turn.

A few hours after the shooting last ...Saturday, Eva Bovee went to the ...shley apartments next to the tailor's ...hop and asked for Lenore. The child ...as given to Miss Bovee and the lat...r then told her to go to the County ...ospital. Miss Bovee accompanied ...t and they went together to the ...edside of the wounded Dania.

What Dania told them is not known ...definitely, but when they left the hos...ital little Lenore believed that Miss ...ovee, who had been living with her ...ather, was in reality her sister. Then ...he Bovee woman told others they met ...hat her real name was not Bovee but ...ania, and that the tailor was her ...ather.

The woman then started to search ...or a room where she and Lenore ...ould live, but before she got beyond ...fficer Marden's reach, the latter in...erposed and separated them. Lenore ...ried pitifully because she thought ...he was being taken from her own ...ister. The child was consoled, how...ver, and told that Miss Bovee was ...o relation to her, whatever.

The child was then placed in the ...etention Home until yesterday af...ernoon, when she was taken to live ...ith her stepmother, the present Mrs. ...ania, who left Dania in February be...ause of abuse and took apartments ...n the Sawyer apartments on South ...lope street.

Now the child believes that her ...tepmother is her real mother, though the latter is but 24 years old and the child is nearly 11.

Lenore is a pretty little child, but because of recent occurrences she said, in her childish way, that she is not certain who she really is. Her father has had three wives and at the time of the shooting was living with Eva Bovee. She was led to believe that the Bovee woman was her sister and had that belief shattered within a few minutes after she had accepted it. She thought that the present Mrs. Dania was some relation, she didn't know which, and now she accepts her as her real mother. She mourns the dead Ledania as her true sister, when she is only a half-sister.

A coroner's jury yesterday afternoon returned a verdict charging Dania with murder and, acting on the belief that Dania will at least be sent to jail for several years, the police hope to have the child placed in her stepmother's custody for good, so that she will never have to be told that the one she has accepted as her mother is not her mother and give an innocent child additional suffering.

Dania's condition is rapidly improving. He will soon be able to leave the hospital and face the charge of having shot his little daughter without provocation.

GETS UP; DIES.

In the act of arising from bed in the Wilson Hotel yesterday morning, Gus Yarenst, a laborer, fell to the floor and died. He was found by one of the employees when the door was opened with a pass key. He had been staying at the hotel for about a week. Tuesday night he returned to his room in an intoxicated condition and went to bed. It is believed his death was due to heart trouble.

"Home Sweet Home"

THE man who wrote it never had a home. But WE would not miss it. It is waiting for us. WHERE? Near the county seat of MADERA County—a 20, 40 or 80-acre farm. The land is level, the markets good.

If water is "King" Alfalfa is "Queen," and by their joint reign the Kingdom of Home on a few acres in Sunny California is made possible. Nothing gives quicker returns than alfalfa, yielding a ton or more each cutting to the acre, cut at least five times a season. Ten acres of alfalfa will keep 15 cows, and each cow will net its keeper $55 annually. A little confidence, a little effort, a little money applied, and you have made a start toward a home and a modest fortune.

Here, too, sunshine, soil and water combine to produce great crops of delicious small fruits. These properly handled will yield an independence. It will pay you to investigate MADERA. Descriptive booklet on application.

Gas Talks

CHAPTER 35

Million-and-Quarter for Gas Betterment

AN OUTLAY OF $1,250,000 WILL be made this year by the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation in the improvement of its manufacturing, distributing and storage plants. This means the employment of hundreds of extra men—the expenditure at home of an immense sum for labor and material.

It means better gas service for 87,000 patrons—means 80-cent gas for the myriad new homes that are springing up in the outskirts of the city—means an unfailing supply of gas for every consumer.

Continuing its broad policy of expansion, this company is installing a high-pressure system that will carry an abundant supply of gas to outlying sections, insuring service equal to that afforded in the central part of the city. Larger mains are being placed in congested localities, storage capacity is being increased, and new appliances are being added at the works.

The result will be better gas and better service, if these be possible.

A Smart New Suit For Easter?

Ready and Waiting For You Here!

Be unusual! Get in ahead of "the other fellow" this season! Easter is almost here and you probably haven't realized it. The majority of Men are in just your fix. And the majority will wait until the last minute to select their Easter Suit---and then wonder why they're hurried so.

Clever New Spring Hats

The new "Bonnets" for men are in order.

Fact is, the bell rang on Winter headgear some weeks ago.

Have you a special notion as to shape, style and coloring for your new Hat?

Well, that very thing you want is waiting for you here.

New "Franklyns" in soft and stiff styles—the best $3 Hat you ever saw.

Full assortments of Stetsons—and many other new ideas.

Correct New Footwear

When you "appear out" in your new Suit or new Hat—or both—of course, you want a new pair of Shoes.

You'll find it convenient to get them here—and something more than convenient—

You'll find Footwear of sterling quality at moderate cost—with a bunch of willing salesmen who know how to treat you "right," and fit your feet perfectly.

New styles in High Shoes, in Lace Oxfords and in Button Oxfords—in all the leathers that are fashionable this Spring.

Models to please you at $3.50 to $7.50.

Careful service for "hard-to-fit" feet!

Select yours this week—while you can do it leisurely—while you can have plenty of time to run through the new patterns and colorings—there are lots of them—and they're better than ever—you can scarcely afford to pick your Suit in a hurry.

Suits here at $15 that are better than that amount of money ever bought here before.

Suits at $20, with silk linings that are guaranteed for one year—just think of it!

Suits at $25—and on up to $40—garments from the famous Stein-Bloch Company, and from many other makers of repute.

We may be deluded, but we've got a notion that if you'll stop and look into our South Windows, and study the clothing there displayed, you'll be as much impressed as we are.—not only with the unusual quality of fabric, and the handsome new colorings—but with the unmistakable value that each Suit represents at its price.

Do this—but don't stop at the windows—come in and we'll show you thousands of Suits, hanging in racks, all pressed and ready to put on—an ideal way to show and select clothing.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

Seventy-five crates of pineapples from Honolulu arrived yesterday via San Francisco. They are the first pineapples that have come in more than two months and, at the high price of 10 or 12 cents a pound which was made by the three dealers who received the stock, the pines moved freely. They had first to undergo the double fumigation act and pass through several inspectors' hands before being marketable.

Strawberry arrivals caused the market on [illegible] to be overloaded, and prices were cut to the extent of 50 cents a crate. Receipts were reported. Some strawberry quavas, the spring variety of the guava family, came in from San Diego. They were the first of the season and sold at 10 cents a basket. Loquats were plenty and some inferior and also some green fruit is being received.

Fifteen to twenty crates were absolutely demolished. Eggs in the other crates were badly broken. The loss will

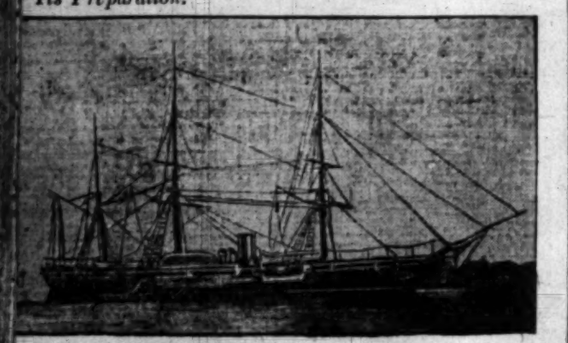
The War Day by Day---Fifty Years Ago

Series of Graphic Historical Sketches running through The Times under special arrangement with the Century Company.]

April 6, 1861.—Secret Expedition for the Relief of Fort Pickens, Pensacola Bay, Sailed from New York—How Lincoln Was Led Into a False Step With Regard to Its Preparation.



The U. S. Steamer Powhattan.
Choice as flagship of the Fort Pickens expedition resulted in a historical situation in Lincoln's Cabinet.

FIFTY years ago today, in the late afternoon, the war vessel Powhattan steamed down the narrows of New York harbor, bound for sea unsealed orders.

Not a man in her entire company knew her destination except the commanding officer, Lieut. David D. Porter. He had been put in charge of the ship by President Lincoln, to proceed with the utmost secrecy and dispatch to the relief of Fort Pickens, Pensacola harbor.

The expedition had been fitted out with great haste, in the face of many difficulties. Its commander must have been congratulating himself on getting at last under way when a fast revenue tug was seen steaming at top speed down the harbor from New York, and signalling the Powhattan to wait for her.

The tug bore an urgent message for Lieut. Porter. It read:

"Give up the Powhattan to Mercer.

"SEWARD."

Mr. Seward was Secretary of State. Lieut. Samuel Mercer had been detailed as commander of the Powhattan when Lieut. Porter was assigned to her for this special duty.

Lieut. Porter did not think the order from the Secretary of State could override that of the President. Therefore, he wrote an answer declining to give up the ship on Mr. Seward's order, and proceeded in his voyage, leaving the tug Hook astern at nightfall.

Fate in the Balance.

The outfitting of this expedition had evident Lincoln had been led into an error that he was never to repeat. He had assigned Lieut. Porter to the Powhattan and given him his orders, without the knowledge of the Secretary of the Navy, Gideon Welles.

The details of this incident form an illuminating though minor chapter in the history of the government during Lincoln's early administration.

William H. Seward's ambition to dominate the President—which had led him to suggest to Lincoln that he, Seward, run the government and shape its policy—was responsible for a painful situation for Lincoln that developed a few hours before the Powhattan left New York.

Much depended on the success of the Pickens expedition. Its departure could be accepted, doubtless, by the South as the gage of war. Its failure might lead European governments to recognize the confederacy as a belligerent, at least.

The expedition was the President's first definite step in his policy to "hold, occupy and occupy" the southern forts then besieged. He had not arrived at any point of dispatching it without sorrow. War turned on it as certainly as the expedition destined for Sumter, which was ordered at the same time, had not yet sailed. Either was sufficient in certain contingencies to bring on the first clash of arms.

Lincoln's False Step.

Secrecy was essential to the success of the Pickens expedition, if a clash, as is to be avoided in relieving the fort. The fact had led Lincoln into the false step of consulting only Mr. Seward among his Cabinet advisers when preparing the orders for the expedition.

To Mr. Seward secrecy was not enough; there must be mystery. No hint of what was going on must reach any other member of the Cabinet.

The appointment of Montgomery C. Meigs, an engineer officer then in charge of construction work on the Capitol, to organize the expedition; the choice of Lieut. Porter to command the ships and the various steps toward securing ships, men and stores were taken without Gideon Welles or Simon Cameron Secretary of War, knowing anything of it.

The Powhattan was chosen to lead the expedition, and Mr. Lincoln's choice of Porter to command her and to Capt. Mercer to resign her to Porter were signed without the President knowing that the same ship had been chosen by Secretary Welles to head the Sumter expedition.

Other orders were placed before Mr. Lincoln for his signature. In the great pressure of business he signed them without reading them.

Fifty years ago Secretary Welles was astonished to receive orders from the President transferring certain naval officers. The secretary at once sought Lincoln, whom he found alone in the executive office.

"What have I done wrong?" asked Lincoln, playfully, as, raising his head, he read the troubled countenance of Mr. Welles.

Mr. Welles showed Lincoln an order assigning one navy captain to Vera Cruz, "on account of important communications in our foreign relations." The President was surprised, and told Mr. Welles these were not his instructions. He had signed several orders, supposing them to relate to "a matter Mr. Seward had very much at heart," but these were not properly a part of them.

No one was quicker than Lincoln to recognize a false step. He made up his mind there he would never again go over the head of the proper member of his Cabinet in doing government business.

He sent at once for Mr. Seward. Explanations followed. Mr. Seward was ordered peremptorily to recall the Powhattan. Lincoln himself changed the President's name to it he signed his own.

Ships, Men and Stores.

As a naval force the Pickens expedition was not powerful, though sufficiently so to defend itself against a belligerent that as yet had no navy.

The Powhattan was in bad condition, having been placed out of commission, after a long cruise, three days before her orders for this voyage were received. Naturally she had been most hastily fitted out.

Accompanying the Powhattan were two transports, the chartered steamers Atlantic and Illinois. They carried about 700 soldiers, including sappers and miners, artillery and infantry and stores sufficient to provision Fort Pickens for six months.

The military was in command of Brevet Col. Harvey Brown, who had been ordered to assume command of the military department of Florida, with headquarters at Fort Pickens. Lieut. Adam J. Slemmer, who had been holding the fort, was to be ordered north with his worn-out command of forty-six men.

The ships had orders to call at Key West, restore order in that town, where the Confederate flag had been raised over a Federal building, and establish in office various new officers of the United States court there, in place of Confederates resigned.

Lieut. Porter's orders were to proceed thence without loss of time to Pensacola, enter the harbor and take up such a position as to prevent an attack from across the bay on the fort and transports while the stores and men were being landed at Pickens.

Fort McRea, mounting about 100 guns and manned by Confederates, guarded the channel opposite Fort Pickens.

Porter had formulated a plan to run past this fort disguised as a British ship, but his guns would be shotted and his men at their stations ready to answer if fired upon.

For tomorrow: Fort Sumter cut off from communication with the land.

Here Is a Soldier.

A VALIANT MEXICAN OFFICER.

BRIG.-GEN. CUELLAR OF THE FEDERAL ARMY.

The Gallant Soldier Who Fought the Battle of Casas Grandes, Defeating Madero's Insurgent Troops. He Lost an Arm But Gained a Star—How He Collared Insurgents.

[Special Correspondence of The Times.]

EL PASO, April 3.—The troops that took charge of Edward Blatt and Lawrence Converse, after receiving them from the Mexicans who kidnaped them, were part of the command of Gen. Navarro, who is at present stationed at Juarez. It was on the initiative visit of Mayor Kelly and Postmaster Smith of El Paso to Gen. Navarro, in the interest of the boys, but before they had had any conversation whatever with them, that the subject of boundary lines was first mentioned, and at that time Col. Samuel Garcia Cuellar remarked that, if the question came up as to the territory the boys were on when arrested, it would be some time before they were released, claiming it would make necessary a survey of the location by the Boundary Commission, which seems as if he had anticipated the outcome, as it has turned out as he predicted.

Col. Cuellar made many warm friends in El Paso during the meeting of the two Presidents—Taft and Diaz—which occurred October 16, 1909. Cuellar being here in the capacity of chief of the military staff of President Diaz, a position which he still holds. He is a comparatively young man. He speaks English, and no doubt other languages, as well as his native tongue, Spanish. He is one of the several officers in the Mexican army who has proven his ability when given the opportunity. While he has been in the public eye for a considerable time, he has lately been brought conspicuously to notice through his meritorious conduct at the battle of Casas Grandes, a few weeks ago, where he so ably commanded the Federals, completely routing the enemy under command of Francisco I. Madero. His official and very interesting account of the battle was published in the City of Mexico papers of March 15, but Cuellar keeps modestly kept his own brave achievements in the background as much as possible.

With a vigor most commendable, he directed his men from 7:30 a.m. until noon, conferring upon the situation with his fellow officers at the same time. While coolly rolling a cigarette several places, finally wounding him in the right arm, above the wrist, which compelled him to leave the field after turning over the command to Col. Rafael Eguia Lis.

It was whispered in the army that Cuellar was an officer of the "pink tea" variety, and he realized the opinion held of him, consequently, when the chance came for actual fighting, he asked to be sent to the front, which resulted in his being placed in command of the troops which he led at the engagement of Casas Grandes. There, by his valor, he proved the falsity of the opinion which had been expressed of him, and came out of the battle a hero, though he will have a constant reminder of his gallantry, his right arm having been wounded and amputated above the wrist.

Col. Cuellar has the honor of having been the recipient of a message of condolence from Francisco I. Madero, expressing his sympathy over the latter's misfortune. A number of prominent business men of the City of Mexico will, upon Col. Cuellar's return to the city, present him with a handsome sword in recognition of his fine services at the battle of Casas Grandes. The scabbard will be of gold, engraved, and the blade of the finest Toledo steel, with hilt inlaid with jewels.

It might be asked: "What is in a name?" Cuellar in English is "collar," and the colonel "collared" the insurrectos and "tied up" all ways of retreat before they were aware of his proximity. He was not in Casas Grandes when the attack was planned, and the insurrectos were not counting upon having to contend with his troops.

ARTHUR TRUMAN.

[Col. Cuellar has since been promoted to the grade of brigadier-general for gallantry at Casas Grandes. He has arrived at Juarez.]

PROPERTY OWNERS JOIN.

Form Organization Declared to Be for the Protection of the Small Taxpayer—Officers Elected.

With a charter membership of 1000, property-owners who are without any special organization for their protection, the Tax Payers' League was organized in the Story building yesterday afternoon. Officers were elected. An executive committee will be appointed by the president at the next meeting to be held within a few days.

Some of those present at the initial meeting stated that they will have a membership of 10,000 householders within ninety days and that they have definite lines along which to proceed for the protection of the man who owns a home, but who is not identified with any of the larger interests and who is not in a position to take part in the correction of such abuses as the small taxpayer may encounter.

The officers and board of governors elected yesterday are: President, H. S. McCallum; first vice-president, L. A. Phillips; second vice-president, P. E. Bowen; treasurer, H. J. Brainard; secretary, H. M. Chapman; attorney, William A. Alderson; members at large, J. C. Davis, C. H. Bareford, Roger M. Andrews and D. A. Dedrickson.

H. S. McCallum last night said: "Some of us have been quietly at work on this plan for about three months. Our interests are identical with those of the people to whom we have appealed for membership. We see a chance to be of service to one another through organization. The powers that be will never listen to individuals, but a powerful association can always get their ear.

"In the course of a year hundreds of questions come before the Council of a great city like Los Angeles in which the small taxpayer is as much interested as the owner of bank stock. The man who has nothing but his little home must look out for himself and he can make small headway if he stands alone. We intend to present a united strength that will challenge attention in any direction we turn.

"We are not soliciting the membership of those already represented in the larger commercial organizations, but we do wish to include every man who owns a home and who wants to do what he can to protect it. We do not intend to hold a big stick over anybody, but we do mean to have small property owners so organized that the people will always be sure of fair treatment in all public affairs."

COLONEL UNDER PROTEST.

Resident of Los Angeles Dies in New Orleans—Once Only Native Republican in Georgia.

Edward C. Wade, ten years a resident of Los Angeles, died yesterday in New Orleans. He had been sick some time. He left his home, No. 622 Boyle avenue, with one of his sons, bound for Cocoa, Fla., where he wished to pass his last days with his wife. His age was 81.

Before the Civil War Col. Wade was a wealthy cotton broker at Savannah, Ga., where his fortune was estimated at between two and three millions of dollars. When the war broke out he remained a Federal, which resulted in his ostracism by friends and by relatives at Savannah and Macon. Six weeks before Sherman marched to the sea, Wade was drafted as a conscript, and forced against protest to enter the Confederate army. He was made a colonel and fought against Sherman.

After the war he retained his pro-Federal politics, and his unpopularity was so great that he was obliged always to go armed, while his family was sent to Florida to avoid persecution. At one time he was the only native Republican in Georgia. Because of his reputation as a fire-eater he was appointed to the offices of collector of internal revenue in the district south of Atlanta, and of United States marshal. In the latter capacity, at the head of a detachment of Federal troops, he drove the Ku Klux Klan out of Georgia, and broke its power in that State. He served through the administrations of four presidents, and retired under Cleveland.

Claims before government officials for damages to the amount of his orignal fortune, for property destroyed in the war, are said to have been held by Col. Wade. Yet he was not wealthy at his death. He leaves a widow in Cocoa, Fla., and two sons, E. M. Wade and Maner Wade of Los Angeles.

DENVER (Colo.) April 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Francis Ryan, alias Edward Stevens, lodged in the City Jail March 29 on complaint of the Los Angeles police, charged with complicity in a $40,000 forgery case, last night made his escape through a window, over the roof, down a fire escape, and by his flight shattered what promised to be an idyl of paternal love.

When Ryan was arrested as he stepped off the train from the West he was accompanied by three children, two sturdy boys and a baby girl aged 9 months. On these he bestowed a very passion of caressing devotion, and the bitterness of their motherless plight was subdued by the father's knowledge of their needs.

Arriving at the jail the man and his little ones were taken before Chief of Police Armstrong. The usual melodramatic scene ensued. The father, facing punishment for crime, was clung to by his tiny, frightened brood, his arms went about them. His voice pleaded for mercy, and asked that he be not separated from them.
